At this meeting every lumber dealer present rose and solemnly pledged that he would sacrifice as much time, and property, and even life itself if it became necessary to save America from the perils of the world war. Mr. Palmer told the lumber dealers that war savings and thrift would not materially decrease the demand for the things made and handled in Nebraska, as in this state the great mass of the industry is engaged in the pro-duction of things necessary to the comfort and ordinary happiness of mankind. War savings, according to his view, will intensify the production of Nebraska industry. Mr. Palmer will speak Monday at

Balloon Men at Fort Omaha

Await Order to Go to Front Members of the Third balloon squadron of Company B, were again disappointed yesterday after their expectations had been aroused for a trip to an eastern seaport. Leave of ab-sence had been denied the men and all gathered up their personal effects preparatory to receiving orders to entrain. Contrary orders were issued and the squadron will remain in Omaha for an indefinite period, although all expect early orders to leave. A letter was received from the men composing this squadron expressing the thanks of the members for the courtesies extended them during their stay in Omaha.

Rosoff Bros., proprietors of the Empress market, announce that the store will be opened Monday when a half price sale will be started on the entire stock of groceries and the sale continued until all are sold. They have made such a sweeping reduction in the price of the stock, being enabled to do so by the liberal adjustment which the insurance companies made, that they expect all the groceries to be moved in a short time. Most of the package groceries are only slightly damaged on the exterior, the contents themselves being untouched, as the fire was soon put under control by the firemen.

Jake Rosoff, general manager of the Public and Empress markets, says that it is the idea of the firm to dispose of the entire stock just as fast

A complete line of new fixtures will be instaled as soon as the old Pacific coast yards, the department's at this half price sale.

FRANCIS' BRAYERY DEFEATS RUSS MOB

Charles R. Crane Tells How American Ambassador Stoor Off the Petrograd "Reds."

(By Associated Press.)

St. Louis, Jan. 13 .- Charles P. Crane, head of the American mission to Russia, in an address here today told how Ambassador Francis stood at the door of the American embassy in Petrograd and with a revolver ir hand held off a mob. Mr. Crane said that a mob, believing that a man named Muni (in real ity Mooney, the San Francisco dynamite suspect) was to be executed in this country-started for the American embassy. The Petrograd authorities warned Ambassador Francis by telephone that the mob was approaching. Guests at the embassy begged the ambassa-dor to flee with them, but he refused said Mr. Crane. Mr. Francis told a negro servant to get a revolver. With this weapon the ambassador met the mob at the door.

"Your government is going to hang our leader, Muni, and we are going to clean out the American embassy," said the leaders.

"No you are not," replied Ambassa-dor Francis. "This is American soil, and I will kill the first man who crosses the line." Mr. Crane said the mob then dis persed. He said he heard the noise at the embassy and arrived there just as the crowd went away. From the negro servant, John Casey, Mr. Crane learned the details.
