STATE RAIL BOARD STRANDED ON SNAG

Question Whether Demurrage Charges of State or United States Shall Be Enforced in Nebraska; Not Settled.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Jan. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The state railway commission has run counter to the government in its control of the railroads and is now wondering what its powers may be in the control of demurrage charges in Nebraska. A hearing today was had on the application of the western demurrage and storage bureau of Chicago to allow the roads to publish the increased demurrage charge on state traffic. The state rate is $1 per day after free time per car, while the government charge is $3 and increases correspondingly. No representative of the demurrage bureau was present, but a few representatives of shippers and one or two railroad men attended. C. E. Child, manager of the Omaha traffic bureau, said he did not believe the order of the director general and the Interstate Commerce commission will be enforced on January 21, as proposed. Representatives of the railroads were of the opinion that they were expected to enforce the order of Director General McAdoo. Commissioner Wilson said he did not believe McAdoo could overrule the Interstate Commerce commission in the matter of rates.

Wilson's Address Is Given Publicity By German Press

Washington, Jan. 14.—President Wilson's war aims of the United States has been published in full by the Berlin newspapers and by papers in other northern cities of Germany, according to reports made to the State department from Copenhagen. The department probably will now cease efforts to distribute the address in Germany. It had been expected that even if the address was published it would be in such garbled form and with such eliminations as to rob it of its full value. Reports to the State department from South America are that wide publicity has been given to the address in almost all capitals, especial prominence being given to it in Chile, Peru and Argentina. So far as reported to the department the content of the press in all those countries has been an endorsement of the president's views.

REDS TOO STRONG TO BE TURNED OUT

British Ambassador to Russia Says Bolsheviki Will Remain in Power if Promises Are Kept.

London, Jan. 14.—Sir George Buchanan, British ambassador to Russia, in an interview at Stockholm with a correspondent of the Daily News, says that the situation in Russia is so uncertain that nobody can know on one day what will happen on the next. The Bolsheviki are in such a strong position that no other party at present is able to turn them out. He said the Bolsheviki will be the ruling power as long as they are able to keep their promises to the people. Cannot Recognize Reds. Asked whether the entente allies were likely to recognize the Bolsheviki, Sir George replied that they could not be recognized as representative of whole Russia, their supporters being only in the north. South Russia, he said, was going its own way. The Bolsheviki had summoned the constituent assembly, but the real rulers of the country would be the councils of workmen's and soldiers' delegates.

FRANCIS CARRIES GREETING TO RUSS

American Ambassador Delivers New Year Salutations; Message of Friendship in Wilson Peace Speech.

Petrograd, Sunday, Jan. 13.—David R. Francis, the American ambassador, in greeting the Russian people on the occasion of the Russian new year, has issued a statement to the Russian press in which he says: "The best greetings I can give the Russian people from the American people is President Wilson's message to congress on January 8, (December 26 old style), which has been given in full to the Russian press." Freedom Is Jeopardized. The ambassador says that the message expresses clearly the friendship of America for Russia, adding: "The Russian people, however, cannot be too often reminded or too deeply impressed by the fact that their hard-earned freedom is jeopardized by negotiations for a separate peace, nor that, if Germany dominates Russia, their highly-prized liberty and fruits of the revolution will be sacrificed."

Same Peace Plan

Ambassador Francis calls attention to President Wilson's message to the American senate in January, 1917, saying that the peace outlined in "the same peace Russia championed after the revolution in March, the same kind of peace that the Bolsheviki government of Russia and the wearied, but gallant, soldiers of this afflicted country feel is now jeopardized by Germany trickery."
