It will now be a distinct pleasure to remain with your stock during the week and, gentlemen, I assure you the danger of floods is now entirely removed, the swine barn being built upon ground graded to prevent this very condition.

"The facilities for handling your stock will be made doubly convenient by the change in tracks of the Burlington railroad. The old tracks are being taken up and will be sent into the grounds from another angle, running along the side of the swine barn where your hogs may be unloaded at the doors."

Roe Has Fine Time as Snowbound Passenger

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Jan. 16.—(Special)—Deputy Attorney General C. S. Roe returned from Washington last night where he went to look after the interest of the state in irrigation matters before the supreme court.

He had the pleasure of being stuck in a snow drift for two days in a little town called Willard, about 260 miles this side of Washington on the way back. However, the people of the town opened their homes, the Elks and Masons, their club rooms and Secretary Lane of the cabinet and Mr. Billings, of the Russian mission, who happened to be on the same train, delivered addresses at two mass meetings and the time passed very pleasantly.

Neligh, Neb., Jan. 16.—(Special)—The state wide drive for war savings and thrift was felt in Antelope county today, when a meeting of the committee was held here in the city auditorium. William Wolfe, chairman of war savings for antelope county, presided. The 30 committee men were assigned parts of the county to canvass carefully, instructing the people as to the imperative need for thrift and war savings. Harry O. Palmer, executive secretary to Ward M. Burgess, state director of war savings, outlined plan of campaign. The Neligh banks propose to hold a thrift and war savings essay contest during the month in which all school children will take part.

BIG COP GUARDS DOOR OF MUTUAL SOCIETY MEET

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Jan. 16.—(Special). A big policeman, six feet and one half tall and correspondingly proportionate, guarded the portals to the meeting of the Farmers Mutual Insurance company holding its annual session in the house of representatives today.

The big fellow appeared at the state house this morning and inquired for Mr. Hall. He was shown the spacious apartments of the state treasurer, George E. Hall, but the latter soon convinced him that he was immune. He was next directed to the railway commission and Commissioner Tom Hall proved an alibi immediately. Then he wandered to the second floor and discovered Dr. P. L. Hall guarding the entrance to the place where the insurance meeting was to be held and the doctor acknowledged at once that he was it, and that it was customary to have a guard at the door when meetings held.

W. E. Straub of Lincoln is president of the insurance company; George Hornung of Collette View, vice president; J. W. Trumble of Lincoln, secretary and Dr. P. L. Hall of Lincoln, treasurer. These were all reelected unanimously.

WEST STATER WOULD USE UNBROKEN LAND

Suggests to Governor That Owners Turn It Over to State Which Will Bring in Reliable Persons to Till It.

Alliance, Neb., Jan. 16.—(Special).—The following letter has been sent to Governor Neville by W. D. Fisher, secretary of the Nebraska Association of Commercial Clubs:

If the suggestions contained in Mr. Fisher's letter be carried out and agreed to by the owners of the unbroken land in the state, it will mean an increase of help to harvest Nebraska crops, an increase of the lifted acreage of the state and an increase of Nebraska's already substantial "bit" in the war savings campaign. The secretary says there are 100,000 acres of this land in Nebraska. He said:

"Why wouldn't it be a good idea to appoint a special committee to arrange with the owners of the land to turn their land over to the state for a period of say two years or for the duration of the war, then have the board advertise this in the proper manner and offer the land free to reliable persons with the understanding that all of the land is to be cultivated.

"Without any doubt this will be the means of bringing additional farmers into our state, farmers who have sufficient capital to pay the ordinary rental price will be given a chance to make good, land will be tilled that has never been cultivated before and if a complete report is demanded from every person operating one of these farms, I am quite sure that it will show that Nebraska will increase her food production thousands of dollars and hundreds of families will be able to do their bit in helping to win the war, while under present conditions this is impossible."

Harry O. Palmer Explains Shortage of Equipment

Bassett, Neb., Jan. 16.—(Special).—The United States is unable to procure food, clothing and equipment for its soldiers in sufficient quantities for the same reason that the hay producers of Bassett and vicinity are unable to secure cars for the shipment of their hay, according to Harry O. Palmer, executive secretary to Ward M. Burgess, war savings director, who spoke here last night to a mass meeting in the opera house. He stated that the transportation facilities of the country are so taken up with hauling things which are unnecessary, but demanded by the purchasing public, that they are not available in a larger measure for the hauling of hay and other products of the Nebraska farms.

Saunders County Man Knows What's Going On

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Jan. 16.—(Special Telegram)—Frank Dolezel of Wahoo, who represented the county of Saunders in the 1909 and 1911 legislatures as representative, is in Lincoln attending the meetings of the county, state and district fair association.

Mr. Dolezel visited the state house today and gave evidence that while he may not be in the legislature now, still he is a man of good judgment. He said after taking the World-Herald ten years, he became disgusted with its pro-German tendencies and stopped it, subscribing for The Bee in its place, which may be considered showing good democratic judgment.

U. S. CAN FEED ALLIES WITH CRUMBS SAVED

Food Administrator Wattles Tells Home Economics Department What Little Savings Can Accomplish.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Jan. 16.—(Special Telegram)—Nebraska's wonderful productivity and the ability of the state to supply foodstuffs were the main factors brought out by Gordon W. Wattles, federal food administrator here today in an address before the Nebraska Home Economics association.

Mr. Wattles presented figures showing that the total value of fundamental food produced in the state the last year was $81,543,055 and that for every man, woman and child in the state, Nebraska produced 700 pounds of meats, 647 pounds of flour, 112 pounds of sugar, and 767 pounds of potatoes.

"With our wasteful habits, the average consumption of flour per capita is 246 pounds annually; of meats 150 pounds annually, and of sugar 88.8 pounds annually," said Mr. Wattles.

"If we did not economize at all and continued these habits, we would have enough left to feed four to 2,000,000 others, meat to 4,500,000 and sugar for 257,000 others."

"But if we follow the suggestions of the food administration and consume four pounds of flour per week instead of about five; 130 pounds of meat instead of 150, and 36 pounds of sugar instead of 88.8 we can furnish in addition to the above figures, the equivalent of 791,666 bushels of wheat, 25,000,000 pounds of meat, and 66,000,000 pounds of sugar."

"Not only can we furnish this huge amount which will sustain life for thousands and thousands of boys in the trenches, but we can do it and live well at home. But remember we can send across the water only what we do not eat. All available foodstuffs had been sent across November 1."

Julia Vance of Lincoln, Prof. C. W. Pugsley of the state farm, and Mary E. Rokaha of Lincoln led in the discussion of the conservation problem. In the afternoon the subject was again taken up and Alice Howell of Lincoln, Mrs. W. H. Deming of Fairmont and others worked on the discussion. The session closed with an address by Mrs. Emma Reed Davison of Washington.

Sage Tea Darkens Hair to Any Shade

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

Use one ounce of sage and Sulfur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

Bee Want Ads Bring Best Results.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulsumed coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Adv.

Buy W.S.S. Stamps

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS ISSUED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

On Payments

The man or woman who buys only one $5.00 War Savings Stamp when he or she is able to buy twenty stamps is not doing his or her duty in this war-time effort.

Every man, woman, boy and girl who receives a wage of more than $10.00 per week can easily afford to buy more than one stamp—and ought to be able to buy at least one stamp each month.

To make it easy for those who can buy more than one stamp, a payment plan has been devised by the committee so that automatically each month one or more stamps will be delivered to you and you can pay either the committee or your employer (preferably the latter).

To buy $100 worth of War Savings Stamps means that you must save for ten months only $8.24 to $8.42 each month. Surely any of us can save that much. At the end of ten months you will have paid the whole amount, $83.30, and you have an investment worth $100.00 on January 1, 1923.

This is a good plan for more reasons than one. First, it helps your government to wallope the Kaiser and his kit of pirates. Second, it is a profitable investment for you. Third, and most important, by obligating yourself for ten months to save a certain amount each month, you acquire the habit of putting aside a little out of each month's pay. That makes you thrifty—it gives you an increased amount of respect for yourself. It makes you feel better all around.

You can easily make arrangements with your employer to deduct from your pay check each month the amount necessary to pay for your stamp, and he will deliver the stamp to you each time. This is the most convenient way for you and for everybody concerned.

So, think this over, then ask for a "yellow" card and sign your name, agreeing to take $100.00 worth of stamps, at the rate of one each month for ten months. The committee will send you the card to sign if you will write us or call us up. Telephone number is given below.

$100 Payment Plan

Ask us for a "Yellow" Subscription Card, which calls for $100 (face value) of War Savings Stamps on payments as follows:

$8.24 on Jan. 30, 1918	$8.34 on June 30, 1918
$8.26 on Feb. 28, 1918	$8.36 on July 30, 1918
$8.28 on Mar. 30, 1918	$8.38 on Aug. 30, 1918
$8.30 on Apr. 30, 1918	$8.40 on Sept. 30, 1918
$8.32 on May 30, 1918	$8.42 on Oct. 30, 1918

Total $83.30
On Jan. 1, 1923, These Bring You $100.00

Not one of us, thank Goodness, feels that way. We're all willing to buckle in, give up things and SAVE, SAVE, SAVE, that Uncle Sam may have the money to fight.
