

HUNGARIAN WORKERS DEMAND FOOD AND WAR'S END AT ONCE

Memorial Urging Peace Without Annexations and Fair Distribution of Necessaries of Life Presented to Premier; Ask Immediate Discussion of Franchise Bill; Government Promises Aid.

Amsterdam, Jan. 23.—The official correspondence bureau of Budapest announces that Dr. Wekerle, the Hungarian premier, has received a deputation of workmen which handed him a memorial containing a resolution stating that the workmen desired a speedy conclusion of peace based on the principles of no annexation, self determination of the rights of peoples and the immediate discussion in the the Hungarian lower house of the franchise bill.

The workmen further requested a fair and equal distribution of foodstuffs and other necessities. DISTURBANCES MUST CEASE.

100 Men Entombed in Canadian Mine Blowup Halifax, Jan. 23.—Nearly 100 men were entombed by an explosion tonight in the Allen shaft of the Acadia Coal company's collieries at Stellarton, N. S. Seven have been brought up alive. Rescue workers are going into the shaft and emergency apparatus of all kinds is being concentrated.

Dr. Wekerle emphasized that the government would stand or fall with the franchise bill and would appeal to the people if a majority for the bill was not obtained. He announced that the government was resolved to take energetic measures to master the difficult conditions caused by the war and that it expected the workmen immediately to resume work.

Work is Resumed. The leader of the workmen's deputation noted the premier's reply and expressed the hope that work generally would be resumed. Dispatches from Budapest add that work was resumed everywhere on Monday.

The strike in Austria, according to a dispatch from Vienna printed in the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin was started by a workman named Schorffelder, who induced a couple of hundred of his comrades at the Daimler Motor Works in Weiner-Neustade, 13 miles south of Vienna, to walk out.

The strike spread rapidly and on Thursday of last week all the munition works and factories were forced to close. Hundreds of thousands of persons gathered in the streets. No songs were sung and no banners were flown, the dispatch says, threats, grumbling and demands only being heard.

REED RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CO-OPERATORS

Byron Reed of Omaha was re-elected president of the Nebraska and Iowa Co-Operative Mercantile company, which closed a two-day session of its fourth annual convention by giving a banquet to 300 stockholders at the Castle hotel late yesterday afternoon, after which officers and directors were elected for the present year.

This company is made up of more than 300 retail merchants of Nebraska and Iowa, and is operated on a co-operative basis. No dividends are paid at its annual meetings, but the profits of the company are returned to stockholders through reduced prices of commodities purchased from the company which does a general wholesale and jobbing business. No person other than stockholders can buy commodities from this firm.

Manager C. W. Southwell pointed out to the stockholders that the company had made a phenomenal growth in four years. During the last 10 months of 1917 the total amount of business transacted crowded $650,000, and, according to Manager Southwell, the business will be almost doubled during 1918 despite the war.

The following officers and directors were re-elected: Byron Reed, president, Omaha; C. W. Knott, vice president, Crete; Ed Wise, Omaha; C. L. Higgins, Malvern, Ia.; W. E. Brookings, Tekamah; H. M. Soennichsen, Plattsmouth; G. F. Dyson, Boone, Ia.; C. M. Maier, Coon, Ia.; C. E. Spradlen, Sidney, Ia.; H. Osterberg, Mead, and C. E. Small, Stuart, Ia., directors. C. W. Southwell, Omaha, was retained as manager.

The fifth convention will be held in Omaha in January, 1918, although the date and place was not designated.

Defends Public Officials. It was here that he defended men in high places.

On the train from New York to Indianapolis, he said, he heard the names of many men suggested to take the places of those in responsible governmental positions, but not one of the men named, he added, has ever done a public service or expressed a word of thought in behalf of labor. He mentioned no names.

Mr. Gompers defined Bolsheviki to mean a group of men who are the extreme of extreme Maximalists, men who want all their dreams to come about in one fell swoop.

Takes Slaps at I. W. W. After declaring that the "czar in his palmist days never did more harm than the Bolsheviki has done," he reminded labor that it has its Bolsheviki in this country.

He said there was one organization that had so conducted itself that it was now without power to make a showing, much less a fight. While Mr. Gompers did not name the organization, delegates said he plainly meant the Industrial Workers of the World.

PAUL SUTTON AND PHELPS WOMAN UNDER ARREST

Detective and "Star Witness" in Famous Chadron Case Taken Into Custody for Lincoln Authorities.

Detective Paul B. Sutton and Elsie Phelps, prominent figures in the Omaha-Chadron alleged conspiracy last year, were arrested Wednesday morning and booked at the county jail upon information from authorities at Lincoln that they were indicted by the grand jury of Lancaster county on charges of conspiracy.

The prisoners were taken to Lincoln at 1:50 o'clock.

Counts Charge Conspiracy.

There are two counts against in the indictment, the first charging that on or about May 5, 1917, Sutton and the woman "unlawfully, wilfully and feloniously conspired and agreed falsely and maliciously to charge and procure to be charged one Gust A. Tylee with conspiracy with Philip Winckler, Charles I. Day, Allen G. Fisher, Louis K. Mote, Stephen Maloney, Harvey J. Wolfe, Charles W. Pipkin and William S. Dolan to corruptly seek to obtain from Edwin D. Crites the sum of $500, from Mrs. Robert Hood $500 and Robert Hood $1,000 by threats, intimidation and coercion and that Mrs. Phelps under the instruction of Sutton had conspired with Tylee and Fisher in Lincoln on May 7, where Mrs. Phelps falsely pretended to be working in the interests of Robert Hood, a client of Fisher and Tylee and would endeavor to find out whether or not the suspicions which Hood had against Mrs. Hood were well founded, when in fact Mrs. Phelps had been hired by Sutton to gain the confidence of Fisher and Tylee in order to betray and bring about the ruin of Tylee and cause him to be falsely accused with criminal offenses."

The second count charges that the above parties, Philip Winckler, et al, conspired to cause Crites and Mrs. Hood to be found in his office late at night in order to scandalize them and arranged to have Winckler, Day, Fisher and Mote to enter the office and under coercion compel Crites and Mrs. Hood to put up $500 each and also to force the latter to refrain from appearing in a contemplated divorce proceedings against her by her husband and not ask for alimony.

Arrested in Lynch's Office.

Sutton was arrested in the office of County Commissioner Lynch and Miss Phelps was taken from the office of an electrical cleaning company, of which she had just been appointed manager.

Authenticated information is that

Captain Allen G. Fisher of Chadron and Gus Tylee appeared before the Lancaster county grand jury and furnished information which warranted the indictments.

Elsie Phelps was the woman detective who, at a preliminary hearing at Chadron last May, admitted that she double-crossed the Omaha Detective association and co-operated with Detective Sutton. Miss Phelps was assigned by the Omaha Detective association to go to Chadron to work on the Hood case and was instructed to proceed to Lincoln first and meet Attorney Fisher and Detective Tylee at the Lincoln hotel. Tylee previously had been in Chadron on the Hood case and Fisher had been attorney for Robert Hood.

Nine Bound Over.

Shortly after Miss Phelps had been in Chadron, conspiracy to blackmail charges were filed against Stephen Maloney, five members of the Omaha Detective association, Captain Fisher and two other Chadron men. The nine defendants were all bound over from county court at Chadron and, when the cases were brought up for trial in October at Alliance, the trial judge took the case away from the jury and ordered dismissal of the defendants.

Rumors that a counter-action would be started against Sutton and the Phelps woman were heard several weeks ago, and their indictment in Lancaster county came as no surprise to those who were on the inside of affairs.

When arrested, Miss Phelps said: "Well, it is too bad. I was just starting a job as manager of an electrical cleaning concern and this affair may cost me my job. When I get to Lincoln I will furnish bond and then will go to visit my daughter at Tecumseh to stay until the trial."

Kiddoo On War Savings. Guy C. Kiddoo, assistant Nebraska War Savings director and secretary of M. E. Smith & company, in speaking to the federated retailers on the War Savings campaign in Nebraska, said:

"Our campaign to teach economy and thrift to Nebraskans and to sell them $26,000,000 worth of War Savings stamps this year, will help win the war in two ways. First, by providing part of the immense sum of money needed to buy supplies and equipment for our armies, and secondly, by making available for the government, labor and materials now consumed in non-essentials.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.
