E. P. Bracken of Chicago, Burlington railroad vice president, in charge of operation, is in Omaha for a conference with General Manager Holdrege. According to Mr. Bracken, these are times when railroad officials know but little more than do the laymen concerning the future of the railroads.

Mr. Bracken says while railroad officials have been at work on a train schedule to fit the reduction of service, it has not been completed. The roads are all working in harmony with Director General McAdoo and stand ready to co-operate with him in his efforts to give the public the best possible service.
