Nebraska Lands. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It has been brought to my attention that some holders of contracts on five-acre tracts in Berea Sub-Division No. 1, in The Hungerford Potato Growers Association are complaining that the Association are complaining that the Association did not do everything it promised to do in the year just past; that those holders of tracts, who have made small payments to apply and have been paying in $5 per month on each tract, are not satisfied because weather condi-acre and vanishing to the property of the p are not satisfied because weather condi-tions last spring so hampered and held back the work of the Association that it was impossible to get the tracts broken and seeded. From what I have learned, it would seem that some of these complaints bear the earmarks that warrant me to believe they are the result of the work of the Knocker and the "I told you so" class who think they Ellie & Co. the "I told you so" class who think they could do better than anyone else and who believe that the acts of the elements should be no excuse whatever for Higgins ments should be no excuse whatever for the partial fulfillment of promises.

I, as President of the Company, The Hungerford Potate Growers' Association, wish to say that I have been in personal charge of the work and that I did everything possible to do. I found it impossible to control the acts of the elements and therefore failed, to get broken and seeded, any of the tracts. I feel that my hands are perfectly clean in the matter and that I have dealt fairly and honorably with every client, but it is the same with this as with everything else with which I allow my name to become connected or used. I stand flatfooted behind every act of The Hungerford Potato Growers' Association and to all those who are not perfectly satisfied the partial fulfillment of promises.

all those who are not perfectly satisfied to allow me to do the best I can, war con-ditions, climatic and weather conditions ditions, climatic and weather conditions considered; those who are not in every way perfectly satisfied with their investment, I say to you, that I personally will take ever your contracts with The Hungerford Petato Growers' Association, without discount, and pay you a hundred cents on the dollar, for every dollar you ever paid in to this Association. You need not wait to get your money from me in other he way you have paid the good to the disgruntled ones to whom the Association proposed to make it possible for them to own a piece of land all their own, a piece of land accumulated with pin money that they would otherwise spend for trifles. Yet, the very first dark hour that the Company sees, there are the disgruntled ones to jump upon the ever-present Knockers Platform ready to help to trample down those who are trying to do but who have perhaps met with temporary misfortunes.

ENTITLED TO VOTE?

Test Suit is to Be Filed at Request of Governor Neville to Settle the Question.

Assistant City Attorney Fleharty is ooking for a victim.

Contrary to the usual custom, he is not looking for a man to prosecute. He is desirous of finding a national army soldier entitled to vote in Omaha in order that he may defend his right to the ballot.

At the request of Governor Keith Neville a test suit will be filed to determine whether the present Nebraska law excluding members of the regular army from voting applies to the federalized National Guard and men in the national army. The action will be started by having a member of the national army attempt to register in Omaha and upon refusal a mandamus proceedings will be started. An appeal will be taken immediately to the supreme court.

Call Special Session. After the suit has been argued and decided in the supreme court Governor Neville will determine whether it will be necessary to call a special session of the legislature. Should it develop that the present laws can be made to serve the purpose in view there will be no extra session. "The intent of the law as I inter-pret it," said Mr. Fleharty, "is to prevent professional soldiers from controlling the government. The question to be determined is whether the National Guard and national army men serving for special service only would come in the class of regular army soldiers. If a distinction can be shown the court between the three branches of the army as established by the War department the Nebraska boys drafted into service should be allowed to vote."

Meatless and Wheatless

Meals on Dining Cars Dining cars will put the wheatless and meatless meals each day into effect immediately in their service in addition to the wheatless and meatless days already established. Federal Food Administrator Hoover has notified the Nebraska state food administrator of this. The federal food administrator says that portions of bread or rolls of not more than two ounces shall be served at any one meal. This is to apply generally to all service, whether dining car, hotel, restaurant, or home. He also stipulates that rolls shall weigh not more than one ounce apiece except where cornmeal, oatmeal, or bran bread are served, when the size 52% of the rolls may be increased to not more than four ounces.

Captain Kruesi Comes as Assistant to Major Maher Captain Walter E. Kruesi of New York has been assigned to Omaha as assistant to Major Maher, depot quartermaster, and arrived here Monday to take up his new duties. At the time of his transfer he was assigned to the New York depot. He was called into service last spring and since that time he has been in the administrative division of the quartermaster general's department at Washington until a few weeks ago. Until the board was disbanded he was a member of the Board of Control for Labor Standards established in connection with the quarter-

American Duchess Gives Up

Home for War Purposes London, Feb. 5.-Sunderland House the home in the Mayfair district of the duchess of Marlborough, who was Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt of New York, has been commandeered for the use of officials of the inter-allied council, according to the Daily Mail.

The duchess was given only a week's time to quit the house, the newspaper says, but she quickly pur-have been investing in the shares of the Omaha Loan and Building Association, their pennies, dimes and dollars, and not one of them has ever lost a dollar invested with us," said George W. Loomis, President. "They now hold over ten millions of dollars worth of our shares, and are investing heavily every year. We have been teaching the lesson of thrift all these years, and our work in this field will prove of service to the government in its campaign for the sale of liberty bonds and thrift stamps. People are prone to squander their dimes and we have to show a great many of them the benefits of saving their money and investing in our shares. On the other hand, our Association will receive benefits from the government's propaganda work which will last until long after the war. Now-a-days it is the duty of every man, woman and child to save their money and place it where it will yield good dividends.
