

CLASSICISTS TO MEET IN OMAHA EARLY IN APRIL

Middle West Association Will Hold Its Annual Meeting, With Delegates Present From 30 States.

The 14th annual meeting of the Classical Association of the Middle West and South will be held in Omaha on April 4, 5 and 6. About 300 delegates from 30 states are expected to attend. This will be the first time that the association has met so far west. The selection of Omaha is due to the efforts made by the classical department at the University of Nebraska.

The association has a membership of more than 3,000. The program will be of wide interest and will include lectures by some of the most famous men from all corners of the country. A Latin play, "Roma Non Delenda Est," (Rome ought not to be destroyed) will be presented by the students of the local Central High. The play was written by Miss Susan Paxson, who is in charge of local arrangements. It was presented last year and because of its popularity had to be repeated. It will be given for the association on April 5 and for the local students and teachers on April 9.

Hotel Fontenelle will be the headquarters of the delegates. The meetings on Thursday afternoon will be held there. An auto ride is planned for the visitors for Friday afternoon after the play. The autos will be furnished by pupils of the Central High classical department. Meetings on Saturday morning will be held at the Central High school.

The following eminent classicists will present papers: Professors Francis W. Kelsey, University of Michigan; G. L. Hendrickson, Yale; M. S. Slaughter, University of Wisconsin; J. B. Pike, University of Minnesota; J. B. Game, Florida State College for Women; Marie L. Harkness, Sophie Newcomb college; D. A. Penick, University of Texas; F. C. Eastman, University of Iowa; R. D. Elliott, University of South Dakota; Arthur Walker, University of Kansas; G. S. Scoggin, University of Missouri; H. W. Prescott, University of Chicago; W. E. Johnson, Lane Technical High school, Chicago; F. H. Cowles, Wabash college; C. N. Smiley, Grinnell college (president of the association); Arthur Kieth, Carleton college; J. C. Morgan, York college; J. T. Green, Kirkville State Normal; Olivia Pound, Lincoln High school; Grover Barber, University of Nebraska; C. H. Weller, University of Iowa; S. E. Stout, University of Indiana; B. F. D'Ooge, Michigan State Normal; C. O. Denny, Drake university, and R. H. Tukey, William Jewell college.

All Societies Invited To Join in Celebration

Colonel J. M. Banister, chairman of the committee of arrangements for the Lincoln day celebration February 12, calls upon the head officers of every society, organization and association of whatsoever nature and nationality to call meeting at once and announce the great patriotic event, and to issue urgent invitations, written and verbal, to every member to attend the celebration. The colonel's subcommittees will attempt to get formal notice to these officers, but may not have time to cover the whole list; therefore the colonel and his committee are anxious to have the word passed along to every organization in order that its officers may feel the obligation resting upon everybody to do his utmost to make this event the greatest patriotic meeting in the history of Omaha.

Velvet Joe's 1918 Almanac Is Alive to the Times

It takes a ready reckoner to keep a man abreast of all the new things that have come into daily life. And if Velvet Joe hasn't discussed every live topic in his war almanac he certainly has covered most of the big ones. And Velvet Joe's gentle, sunny philosophy is everywhere in its pages. Anyone desiring a copy of Velvet Joe's almanac is requested by the author to drop a postal to him at his home, 424 1/2 Folsom avenue, St. Louis, and an almanac will be sent free of charge.

The names and addresses of a few friends written on the postal will insure their also receiving a copy. Velvet Joe's almanac will be particularly useful to friends in army and navy camps.

Omaha Alien Has Brothers Fighting Each Other in War

Otto Behrendt of Benson, who registered Friday morning in the city hall as a German alien, told the registrars that he had a brother in the German army and another brother with the United States army in France.

Frank Behrendt is with the German forces and August F. Behrendt is a lieutenant fighting for democracy on the western front.

The possibility of these brothers being comparatively near to each other and fighting against each other at this time was suggested to the Benson man by an interested listener.

Community Centers Meet In Schools Tonight

Orchestra numbers, costume dances and singing will be features of a community center program in Edward Rosewater school tonight.

South High school players will present a complete program at Castelar school community center. An orchestra of 30 players will be heard. Several humorous features are promised.

"His Old Sweethearts" is the title of a dramatic offering at Monmouth park by the dramatic class of this community center.

Yes! As I Was Saying---

The Men's Suits and Overcoats

Which Burgess-Nash Have Specially Reduced for Saturday, Are the Best Values Obtainable Anywhere at the Price

$21.50 and $31.50

THE above is the expressed opinion of a clothing expert, made while in conversation with the writer the other day, and we feel certain that it will be your opinion, too, when you see the garments and realize their timely value importance.

There's a reason, of course, and this is it, our stock of men's suits is too big, and we are putting this section, like others of our store, on a war-fitting basis and willingly accept the sacrifice that we may accomplish this end.

Every garment possesses all the points there are to a suit or an overcoat, thorough satisfaction with the way they fit, the way they're made and the way they look and wear—splendidly tailored throughout. In style and fabric everything that is new is represented. The tailoring shows the master touch of America's greatest designers. All sizes represented, from 33 to 46.

There's a wide range of materials, including plain serges, good staple styles that will be desirable for the coming season. All reduced to the two prices Saturday, $21.50 and $31.50.
