demand, sold at Safurday's prices, and the yellow at a le and le decline, while the mixed scored the extreme decline. White

Chicago, Feb. 11.-Prospects of a renewal of eastbound shipments of grain from Chicago strengthened the corn market today after prices had sagged owing to a decided enlargement of receipts. 25 cents. Encouragement shown in regard to likelihood that corn would soon begin to move east from here in considerable amounts was based on sudden notice that orders which prevented the re-loading of eastern cars at Chicago elevators had been withdrawn. As the notice meant that grain brought in by lines west of here could be loaded at once on eastern cars instead of being piled up in Chicago, the bearish effect of liberal arrivals here was soon more than offset. A cut in the retail price of potatoes to 2 1-3 cents per pound for best Nebraska whites and to 21/2 cents per pound for best western potatoes. A ruling by Food Administrator Wattles that hereafter in offering potatoes for sale they must be plainly marked where they were raised. An agreement by commission men These were developments of conferences yesterday between Food Administrator Wattles and his assistants, Omaha commission men and the price fixing committee of Douglas county. Reneated complaints that the retail price of potatoes was too high and from producers in Nebraska that they were not getting enough for their potatoes and that the margin between the price paid to the producer and that paid by the consumer was too wide prompted the investigation. After a three hours' conference the commission men agreed to maintain these prices: For best Nebraska potatoes, $1.85 per hundred, or $1.11 per bushel; for best western potatoes, including those grown in Colorado,

Wyoming, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and South Dakota, $2.10 per hundred, or $1.26 per bushel. # SLOAN'S SPEECH IS TEXT BOOK ON MEAT ANIMALS

Nebraska Congressman Enlightens House Members During Discussion of Agriculture Bill.

Washington Bureau of The Omaha Bee 1311 G Street

By EDGAR C. SNYDER.

Washington, Feb. 11.-Special.)--Oratorical achievement and even forensic entertainment are as scarce these days in the house of representatives as heat in the coal famine. The fact is the house has been dreadfully dull for sometime, notwithstanding the war and all it means. Visitors looking for some able member to start something worth hearing disappointed. Yet some very good speeches are made now and then. Miller of Minnesota made a rattling good speech Tuesday, while the consular bill was under consideration, when he discussed the question of

and remembering invariably go away

Sloan of Nebraska contributed a great deal of new matter on the sub-Cliff Crooks of Fairbury, president ject of tuberculosis in meat animals when the agricultural bill was up.

Representative Sloan's speech on 15 of these had made appropriations. to compensate the owners in part. Congressman Sloan having been instrumental in getting the United States Department of Agriculture interested in the eradication of hog cholera and having watched its workings throughout the country was convinced that we now have from 25 to 30 per cent more pork than we would have had if the o maintain a fixed price to retailers. government activities had not been started five or six years ago. of the best pieces of preparedness accomplished just ahead of the war

When Mr. Sloan got through speaking a member said to him. "I thought you were running for the senate. When did you get time to prepare that speech which is a treatise on the subject?"

"Oh, my sensational race is not going to interfere with my duties as a representative," replied Sloan. Whatever comes of the legislation the congressman is endeavoring to bring about in the interest of the farmer and stock raiser, Mr. Sloan will be entitled to the credit of having started two important campaigns in the interest of increasing meat production and in a measure averting the almost prohibitive prices which are bound to follow if our food animals are not protected, namely eradication of hog cholera and the reduction and probable eradication
