Cattle-Receipts were very moderate again today, about 5,500 head, and the two days' receipts fall $,000 short of last Monday and Tuesday. Demand was fairly good from all the dressed beef houses, and prices ruled steady to strong for anything in the way of beef steers or butcher stock. On account of the heavy receipts at Chicago, and the sharply lower prices at that point the shipping demand was somewhat restricted, and the heavy cattle were not more than steady at yesterday's advance. Inquiry for steady at yesterday's advance.

stock cattle and feeding steers was more active than at any time recently, and desirable grades sold freely at stronger prices.

Hogs-There was a liberal run of hogs on hand this morning and trade was rather slow. Packers opened up bidding 26@39c lower, but on this basis sellers were inclined to hold back in the hope of a better later market. With little indication of a strengthening in the trade toward midforenoon, offerings began to change hands at neon, offerings began to change hands at prices that were for the most part 25c lower than yesterday's general market. Top brought $15.60, and the bulk of the offerings moved at $15.25@15.60. The biggest portion of the hogs were still in first hands around 11 o'clock

62..296 ... 15 70 Sheep-Trade in fat lambs was very dull and sharply lower. Packers were bidding anywhere from 25c to 50c lower than yesterday's opening, and there was little prospect of cleaning up the day's offerings. Combined with the still serious railroad Heup, eastern market reports were bearish. and bidding was on the whole very indif-ferent. Some of the better grades sold up around $16.40, with the good medium kinds selling around $16.00 $16.35. Heavy lambs were practically unsalable at anywhere near decent prices. The tone to the market was the weakest it has been in a long time. Sheep were rather scarce and in no better demand than lambs. Medium kinds sold around $9.00@10.00, nothing choice chang-ing hands early. Feeders continued to show strength and sold up to $16.75. Less de-strable handyweights sold around $16.50.
