LABOR LEAGUE TO HAVE TICKET IN PRIMARY RACE

Seventeen Nominees on Referendum Ballots Circulated Among Members of Workingmen's Organizations.

Referendum ballots of the Workingmen's Nonpartisan and Economic League bear the names of 17 members of affiliated organizations. The instructions are to vote for seven and return ballots not later than March 1.

The names selected by the executive committee are: H. L. Bridwell, J. M. Berger, R. C. Becker, Jack Davis, Frank C. Gardner, Henry R. Hartnett, Theodore Jensen, John Martin, T. P. Reynolds, John F. Roach, W. Rosenberry, M. F. Rooney, William A. Scott, Robert Vaughn, H. F. Wulf, James Whiting and John F. White.

These referendum nominees are members of various local labor unions. The present plan of the league is to support the seven who receive the highest referendum vote among the membership of the locals represented by the league.

Started Last Fall.
This league of organized labor started last fall under the name of the Workingmen's and Farmers' Nonpartisan League and after changing the name several times the present name was adopted.

J. R. Wanberg is secretary and C. L. Shamp is head of a platform committee of 15 members. Meetings are held every Sunday at the Labor temple.

Last fall announcement was made that it was proposed to affiliate with the Farmers' union, but no action has been taken on that matter.

The league is composed of three delegates from each of the unions which have affiliated. It was said a few weeks ago that 57 unions were represented and that the league had an indirect membership of 14,000 men.

The following have filed their petitions for the city primary on April 9: Hugo Melchior, Alfred C. McGlone, Leonard C. Johnson, Jerry Howard, Elmer E. Gilliam, Adolph A. Tenopir, Michael Mullen, Harry Hartnett and P. J. McElleccott.

H. B. Milder received a blank petition from the election commissioner's office on Friday. "I'm not doing anything just now, so I guess I might just as well file," stated Mr. Milder when asked as to his plans.

L. B. Johnson, former councilman, avers he is "in the hands of his friends." He said he had not decided whether he would enter the race.

A dramatic entertainment for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross will be given at the Blackstone the first week in April. Omaha chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will sponsor the show, which Miss Mary Irene Wallace will direct.

Girls of the "Thirty-eighth avenue dramatic circle" will be the actresses. Students of Saunders and Commercial High school are promoting the event.

Ten schools already register 100 per cent in the Junior drive. They are Dundee, Park, Florence, Garfield, Lothrop, Monmouth Park, South Lincoln, Hawthorne, Field and Highland. Seventh and eighth grades of Brown Park are also 100 per cent.

Dr. Fred J. Clark will speak on Lincoln and the Junior Red Cross campaign Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at First Congregational church. School children received a special invitation to attend.

Awarded $13,937 Verdict Against Street Car Company

John H. Lucas, caretaker at the Country club, has been awarded a verdict for $13,937 damages against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company by a jury in district court for injuries alleged to have been received when he was struck by a street car while walking across the tracks near Fifty-first street and Military avenue December 28, 1916.

Lucas declared he was dragged along the tracks by the car, which crushed his right foot, and necessitated amputation. He also said a blow on the head rendered him deaf in both ears.

Lucas was represented by W. J. Connell, former counsel for the street railway company, whose nephew, Herbert J. Connell, contested the case as counsel for the company.

Courses in Semitics to Be Offered at Nebraska

Courses in Semitics, particularly stressing the Hebrew language, are to be offered by the University of Nebraska next fall if a sufficient number of students express a desire to take it.

Prof. Joseph Alexis, who will be in charge of the work, took his master degree in Semitics at the University of Michigan in 1906. He continued his studies in Semitic languages and literature at the University of Chicago 1908-1910.

The first year course in Hebrew will take up the essentials of grammar in conjunction with a study of Genesis and other historical books of the Old Testament.

The second year course will deal with the finer points of grammar in connection with the reading of more difficult historical and prophetic books.

Auction Three Coyotes For Red Cross Benefit

A coyote hunt for the benefit of the Red Cross took place February 13, in Champion, Neb. It netted the Chase county chapter $506. Three animals were captured. North, east, south and west sides made bids for the animals, so the contributions came from all.

A Red Cross sale of a Shetland pony, cattle hogs, chickens, grain and potatoes at Imperial, Neb., netted $1,400 to the chapter. E. M. Stewart, chairman, reports.

Thirty Liquor Appeal Cases to Come Up Monday

Thirty liquor appeal cases are set for hearing before Judge Troup in district court Monday morning. The cases will be prosecuted by T. J. McGuire, special prosecutor under the prohibition law appointed by Governor Neville.

ARCHBISHOP TO OPEN CHARITIES STATE MEETING

Prominent Speakers of State and Nation Will Address Annual Conference of Nebraska Organization.

The 18th annual meeting of the Nebraska conference of Charities and Corrections will be called to order at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in city council chamber.

Prof. Lee Kratz and the municipal chorus will lead in community singing. Archbishop Harty will offer the invocation, Governor Neville is on the program for an address, and Mayor Dahlman and Rev. Frederick Cohn will speak.

In addition to the community singing, there will be selections by Miss Claire Schneider, violinist, and Mrs. Dugan, soprano. The musical program will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Prof. J. L. Gillin, director of Red Cross civilian relief, central division, will give an address on "Home Service." Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm, state director of Red Cross civilian relief work, will read a report of the work in Nebraska.

Sessions in Hotel.
Meetings will be held in Hotel Fontenelle Monday morning and night and Tuesday morning and afternoon. The Monday afternoon session will be held in city council chamber.

Rev. Frederick Cohn will preside at the meeting Monday morning, when the speakers will be: Dr. Ira W. Porter, Miss Vera Elsing, Mrs. Marie Liff, Dr. Theodore Hanson, superintendent of National Public Welfare league; Judge Arthur G. Wray of York, Neb.; John A. Rine, secretary of the Omaha Board of Public Welfare; T. F. Sturgess, manager of Twentieth Century Farmer; E. D. Gepson, chairman of Nebraska State Child Labor committee; Dr. Owen R. Lovejoy, secretary of National Child Labor committee.

Building Owners Pleased With Work of Fuel Chief

The Building Owners' and Managers' association of Omaha is so pleased with the coal service Omaha people got throughout the winter, when in many parts of the state it was all but impossible to get coal, that a resolution has been adopted expressing the thanks of the association to Fuel Administrator John L. Kennedy and to Omaha wholesale and retail coal dealers for their exceedingly skillful handling of this most difficult problem. The resolution was offered by Edwin S. Jewell, manager of the City National Bank building, and unanimously adopted at the last meeting of the association.

Tells Judge He Lives in "California"—at 1507

Trjin Kozib, charged with unlawful possession of two cans of whiskey, which had been camouflaged as varnish, was asked in police court where he lived. "California," he replied. "Where in California?" "1507 California," was the sage reply. Asked how long he had lived there, he volunteered the information that in four years he would have lived there three months. Judge Fitzgerald retained his composure long enough to fine him $100 and costs.
