Mrs. C. T. Disney Bride of Last Week

Mrs. C. T. Disney, nee Miss Marie Shook, is a bride of the week. The bridegroom is a flying cadet at Fort Omaha and the bride will make her home with her mother for the present, the future plans of the young couple depending on the war situa-

SOUTH SIDE

Mrs. James Hall is still confined to her home by illness. Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Dunn was formerly Miss Mayme O'Loughlan.

Harry Christiansen was home a few days from Camp Funston, having been called here by the death of his little nephew.

Mesdames V. H. Smith and E. R. day to attend the funeral of the baby realist. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Greenway. Garfield school has 100 . cent

Junior Red Cross membership, of which the children are very proud. Lucy Hill, daughter of Walter Hill, is seriously ill at her home with throat trouble.

The Adah kensington of the Eastern Star met at the Masonic hall

Admission will be paid by measuring the waist line and paying I cent per inch. The program will consist of music by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence summer.

In the display of georgette. This little dress, in size 16, is a model suited to juniors of clusiveness of design is the display or small women. The price—$24.50.

Company L spent eight weeks last summer. Henry, vocal solo by Mrs. Vera daughters, Audrey and Evelyn; piano of 40 khaki-covered testaments, to be that your week's pleasure was com-

The marriage of Miss Helen Nath, church performed the ceremony.

out with American flags. Mr. Charles Nerad, uncle of the bride, was best man and Miss Rose Marek was bridesmaid. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white chifwas held in place with lilies of the valley and she carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore a dress of white embroidered voil and carried pink roses. Little Helen Kluson carried the ring on a white satin pillow and little Flora Schmidt was flower girl. Mrs. Burres will make her home ith her mother, as her husband expects to be called into active service

The W. S. W. club met this week at the home of Mrs. J. A. Johnson, 4116 E street. The club reorganized and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. J. B. Green; vice-president, Mrs. E. Sodousky; secretary, Mrs. C. B. McNish; treasurer, Mrs. D. M. Howard; critic, Mrs. O. W. Sharp. Mrs. Karl Barkhurst will

W. Sharp. Mrs. Karl Barkhurst will be the next hostess.

The marriage of Sidney H. Miller, son or Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Miller, and Miss Bessie Miller of this city, took place in Fremont a short time ago. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have taken ago. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have taken he lived in.

an apartment in the Scargo building. The marriage of John Sterrat and Miss Helen O'Connor took place on Tuesday at St. Mary's church. In the evening the young people were given a reception at the O'Connor given a reception at the O'Connor home at Thirtieth and O streets, when my father-in-law dies." he said, "and meanwhile I'm living in it free rent, while the old man pays the taxes."—Washington Star.

Poet of the Hour Will Lecture in Omaha hour, will lecture on "Gallipoli" Mon-Arts society preceding the lecture.

John Masefield

The author of "The Battle of the Somne," "Salt Water Ballads," "The lished his own field hospital in France | SPIRIT. and later went to the Dardanelles. He has been constantly at the front since his last visit to America.

Masefield interprets the war ideals colored as a rose, are the wonderful ville Block, 16th and Harney Sts. of the allies as perhaps only such an pearls exhibited by Albert Edholm, outstanding figure in English poetry Jeweler, in his shop at the corner of could do. Just as his books are Sixteenth and Harney streets. These y done," so are his talks vivid word Knight were called to Fremont Fri- pictures of the dreams of a poetic the fact that good taste decrees equipped to help you to be "sensibly School children between the ages for the woman of refinement. One of cents. The regular admission is $1.

Prairie Campfire Girls Remember Our Boys at Camp the setting for this lustrous jewel.

Prairie Campfire Girls at Gothen-Thursday, Mrs. W. Wright was the burg, Neb., prepared a unique comhostess and a demonstration of ma- munity message book, "Lines From zola was enjoyed by the members. Home," which they sent last week to The Bohemian ladies that have soldier boys of the community now been doing so much knitting are now in Company L, 134th infantry, stagoing to do Red Cross sewing as tioned at Camp Cody. The booklet is well, one class meeting in the evenings.

The booklet is made up of 42 pages of Chinese water proof bond paper, each bound septons to the present proof bond paper, each bond paper, each bond paper proof bond The Dorcas club met with Mrs. N. Ryan Friday afternoon. Next meeting will be with Mrs. E. R. Knight on February 22.

The ladies of the South Side Conference was 100 messages from relations. The ladies of the South Side Conference was 100 messages from relations of the south side conference was 100 messages from relations of the south side conference was 100 messages from relations of the south side candy I saw at Candy I s The ladies of the South Side Con- feature was 100 messages from rela- soft folds of subdued plaid, which gregational church will give an apron tives or close personal friends of also finishes dainty collar and cuffs social Friday evening, February 22. members of Company L. On the of georgette. This little dress, in Each one writing a message con-Boyle, vocal solo by Vera Welch, tributed 10 cents, thus netting the vocal trio by Mr. Harry Bruce and girls $10. This goes to the purchase garita Fischer. You remember her, Miss Florence Straley; vocal sent for our army in France. The solo, Mr. Jack Driscoll, and music by book was censored by Mrs. Anna P. Ulmer orchestra. Mrs. John Boisot of Three Trails chapter, ing actress. Remember how she and Wells will have charge of the re- Daughters of the American Revolu- her leading man, Harry Pollard, ran tion, and was pronounced by her "a work of splendid achievement, not daughter of Mrs. Bryan Maguire, and only indexing the high character of Mr. William R. Burres of Ft. Crook, the girls who had put into it so many took place at the home of the bride's hours of prayerful study and labor, mother on Monday evening. The Rev. but also the high moral and patriotic Omaha. This week she is in another Charles Holler of the Trinity Baptist pulse of our community, as was shown in the tender personal messages that The house was decorated through- rang with pride in and loyalty to our

Here are two greetings, characteristic of the whole 100:

"Dear Boys of the Colors-Believing as we do that God has chosen fon made short and full and trimmed Old Glory for the furtherance of His with fillet lace. The long net veil kingdom—we know He will hold you new white patent leather exford ties in the hollow of His hand. Yours,

"THE ---- FAMILY." A little girl 8 years old whose sign in white. The coat effect, with

We are learning to knit

While you do the big job-We are doing our bit. And we're saving some money To trim the old town When you've skinned the kalser.

And come home with his crown! Mrs. W. J. Birkofer is guardian the Prairie Campfire Girls.

The Mean Son-in-Law

John D. Reckefeller, jr., at the Young Men's Christian Association camp in New Jersey, where he has been doing volunteer war work, told a story about a mean young in-law had made him a present of the house he lived in.

"It's a very generous thing, if so,' I added.

"Well, it sin't so," said the young man
"That is, it ain't exactly so. He offered me the house, but I wouldn't accept it."

"Why not?" said I.

"He winked solemnly.

Biennial Convention Strictly A War Service Conference

The biennial convention of the Governor Charles Hillman Brough General Federation of Women's The meeting will be held at Hotel Clubs, to be held in Hot Springs, Ark., Eastman, and will be followed by the April 28 to May 8, will be distinctly tri-state reception, given by Arkansas, a war service conference. Speakers Texas and Louisiana.

general federation service office are day night, May 14, and will be fol- of concrete and steel, with front of as conference rooms. days of the week during the convenare to be concrete presentation of a

are being listed and already include Department luncheons will be givsuch names as Miss Julia Lathrop, en each day. The pioneer banques Hon, Jeanette Rankin and Richard given by Mrs. Tod Helmuth is to be given at the Arlington, the only hotel The food administration and the on government reservation, on Saturbalanced menu in aesthetic value and Rock has been eliminated and in its convention headquarters. The main department of work, to be arranged apples it can eat, food value. The menus will be printed place Arkansas will have "Hostess auditorium will seat 10,000 with a according to their individual require- Owing to the way ogether in a separate page of the Day" the day following the close of guarantee that all who come may ments and to have a number of the tertainments and decorative scheme First Christian church. gates desiring maximum food value at to visit Camp Pike cantonment in found quite perfect.

Little Rock will be entertained.

Tets Go Shopping with Polly

OR THOSE who delight in the Seventeenth and Farnam.

whim of today's coat-wartime existence of ours let's not

THE IDEA that art, beauty and at-can be had only at lavish expense is utterly mistaken. I wish you'd go factors is the treatment given the skin. Many women through lack of injures it. These powders, come in six shades: The Sandalon at $1,00 is for oily and normal skins and the Standard at 50 cents is for the dry

White stockings with bit of color

ANY a bewitching frock owes its subtle charm to the hosiery tractiveness in home furnishing

In these martial times perturbing Let's pause in labors grievous To dream awhile of days Colonial, Of men heroic and maids mischievous (Even as George and Martha).

Gleams from candlesticks and fireplace

Disclosing scenes of jolly celebration, Where brave gallants and coquettes rosy Give no hint of wartime's devastation.

We must love the patriots of old Colonial days, Whose lace frills hid hearts of beat courageous,

DEAR FOLKS: The Great En- WOMEN of fashion who once de- THERE are handsome blouses of ALL THOSE appreciative of ar- NEVER has more subtle originality chanter is at work! Before our Women of having or preserving T maive charm and simplicity in A Listic music are anticipating Never exercised in dress modeling very eyes; so slowly we cannot see it a beautiful form have solved this imthe Blouse Department at Thompsonwith great pleasure the rare treat to than that displayed at Herzberg's done; winter is being transformed services of Mrs. D. A. Hill, a corset Howard streets. Of a truthfulness! nesday evening, February 27, at 8:15 Douglas street. The most striking into the glory of spring! Just as specialist who for the past seven Milady "sewed a fine seam" when she o'clock, when the Tuesday Musical fashions of the hour are expressed in John Masefield, the poet of the Nature changes, seemingly, from a years has given her entire time, con- embroidered the designs in Japanese Club will present Harold Bauer, one these models. Daring, lovely and also somber mood to happy thoughts, let centrated thought and study to the flowers with eyeletted petals that of the foremost planists of the day, together irresistible is a Mandaria day at 3 o'clock in the Fontenelle. The celebrated literary man arrives in Omaha Sunday evening and will be entertained at luncheon by the Fine of the lock in the Fontenelle. This is no time for gloom and dark foreboding. Now, more variations in the forms of women ren- while others lay claim to charm and sic lovers planning to attend the re- colors in dull gold and blues. A smart than ever, is the time for what the der impossible the application of the distinction by the simplicity of their cital. The author of "The Battle of the Somne," "Salt Water Ballads," "The Story of a Round House" and other is great need for keeping a stiff upper You are cordially invited to call at shades to harmonize (if you wish works sold his manuscripts and originals to raise money for a Red Cross good measure of pluck and for great fitted in these corsets, whether you sport skirts. "C'est une Blouse." A unit, then went into the field to render first hand assistance. He established his own field hospital in France SPIRIT.

good measure of pluck and for great fitted in these colsets, whether you approach the field to render first hand assistance. He established his own field hospital in France SPIRIT.

good measure of pluck and for great fitted in these colsets, whether you approach model in old blue georgette having ciate their beauty and comfort by gilet, collar and cuffs of bisque with merely looking at them. You'll find unique trim in antique gold threaded that all fittings and mail orders will design, spattered with infinitely small AS DELICATELY beautiful as the be given careful and prompt personal beads. petals of a lily and as daintily attention by Mrs. D. A. Hill, 205 Ne-

FEW things to a woman afford greater satisfaction than the splendid stories of bravery splendid- pearls have been used in original consciousness of irreproachable attire. conceptions of jewelry inspired by The Pantorium, 1515 Jones street, it quiet, distinctively artistic jewelry smart." Rip up your old garments (this is the most essential factor in of 15 and 18 will be admitted for 50 these jewels of rare beauty, a pink the preparation) and send the ripped cents. The regular admission is $1. pearl, nestles in a ring of platinum, garments to the Pantorium for garments to the Pantorium for the Lee Larmon Florist Shop (next cleaning or dyeing. This is a little door to the Fontenelle Hotel) will hint they gave me this week when tiny diamonds surrounding its rosy I took in some material to be dyed, and I'll be more than glad if it proves helpful to you. If the garment to be china-deep gold in color-with dyed is faded or streaked in portions. it will dye black most satisfactorily, as, in dyeing light shades the faded part takes up more dye than the un-faded, thus making the faded streaks. The large basket for the center show as plainly as before dyeing.

showing exquisite workmanship in the frosted pierced lace work and beauty. Surely none but fairy fingers had to do with the creation of to laugh with and at her Sunday and Women who love distinction and original discrimination would love

Dainty Cousin Dolly most demure,

And veils upon her Poke (a) Hats.

I SN'T this welcome news for us all the year? All kinds of gingham dresses made until April 1, for $6, at

2719 Capitol avenue. Phone Harney

2679 for information. Hoot, mon!

Smaller halls, seating 1,000 each,

at this, the most busy season of Wears polka dots in dresses, ties

Monday, February 18 and 19.

magic words!-

pokey;

demure-

with button trim-

"SWEETIE-EETIE-EETIE" would love to have a box of vogue of practical patriotism candy I saw at Candy Land (next

ing. An attractive navy tailleur model WE WONDER how many admirdepends on a polka dotted silk tie to ers there are of fascinating Marexpress a whim of originality. Emphasizing the vogue of present moof course, and how you never felt ment is a suit of navy blue whose short jacket has lining of rich plaid, plete unless you went to the old Burwith collar of same. There's a suit of tan tricotine with tobacco brown faille silk vest and collar, with new rippled coat effect-and a suit of away and were married? My! Wasn't gray and blue whose charming femithat just like the tombovish, romantic nine lines you can't resist. The belt Margarita? We look forward to her of coat holds in place the rippled pictures at the Sun with just as much skirt, and extends across the vest, interest as we did when she was in fastening by one large button of smoky pearl to match color tone of of her joyful moods in "Jilted Janet," and we will all be at the Sun theater suit.

this little dress to wear with the "YOU'RE very welcome to our house; it must appear in other Dame Fashion's decree. It's house; it must appear in other made of soft navy foulard of a rich ways than words." These words heavy quality in all-over graceful decame to my mind upon visiting riends were all in Company L, wrote. double edge of georgette, ends in two the large, new Flatiron Garage My Dear Soldier Pals.

pretty points. The fullness of the conveniently located with entrances on lackson street and at the coat is held by heavy silk corded gir- on Jackson street and at the dle. Distinction and Difference. Two Howard street. You'll find that their most modern equipment insures excellent service either in repair work or garage accommodations. For the ladies there is the dearest rest room imaginable. Very attractively and restfully furnished—the delightful in-She wouldn't miss the polka at a dance. Yet with all her "dots" she's not little niceties of appointment and refinement-make you feel WEL- without an attractive personal appear-Of this I'm sure, Dainty Dolly most COME.

WHO wouldn't be joyful in this tailored suit of navy gabardine, distinguished by its unusual irregular lines, with fullness of the faces with materials (disguised as face coat taken up into big box pleats, powders) that should never be used headed by embroidered arrows, which lend a wideness to the skirt of the coat. The belt crosses in the front over a vest of rich gold Crepe Que. This suit of marvellously perfect tailoring is $42.75, at the F. W. Thorne Shop.

THE smart and proper combinations in prevailing color effects skin. On sale at Franco-American are represented in these new spring Hygienic office, 772 Brandeis Bldg. boots to sell at $10 at Napier's An alliance of feminine wiles and Booterie, 16th and Farnam. Style military tactics has resulted in a dress T 3102-with vamp of light beaver introduced in the clocking is very efin one of the Omaha shops. It is brown kid. The eleven-inch top of fectiveservice color, and has severe lines beaveretta fabric will blend beautishaped French heel, kid-covered, is M T WAS my good fortune Thurs-21/4 inches high. Style T. 31000-is a worn. At Thompson-Belden's you'll military walking boot of soft brown find hosiery for every function in soft, elegant and serviceable day afternoon to view in the workroom of the Ideal Button and kid, with eleven-inch top of fawn fetching designs and exclusive coloring, the act of embroidering a black leather Cuban heel, which is ex- is used in their manufacture, and to Worn with tailored and to be crepe de chine dress, which, I under- tremely smart for socion. crepe de chine dress, which, I under- tremely smart for spring. You may this may be traced their luster and blouse, you'll be delighted with my stand, is for one of the prominent order these boots direct from Na- soft strength. The "wee 'uns" are find of beads-not just beads-but is to be $25.00-but, oh, my, it's go- them for you. In either case be sure porch where luncheons will be served a miniature exposition which will in-At request of the president, Mrs. to delegates daily, has been remodeled clude various exhibits of art. Space tinually on duty.

en each delegate as souvenir of a Annual Sunday School preparing a series of menus conform- lowed by a reception given by the glass, and surrounded by a vine-clad Auditorium Annex will be used for cotton country. Arkansas apples will be at every turn and free. Arkansas tion. They are to be inexpensive and Josiah Evans Cowles, and the G. F. at a cost of several thousand dollars on the first floor of the auditorium Horticultural society has promised to W. C. board, "Play Day" in Little to suit the club women and will be will be reserved for displays of the furnish the federation with all the day schools of Douglas county will at Waterloo and March 7 at Dietz

Owing to the war the elaborate en-Cotton bolls put in boxes made by States flags will be used as decora- churches, to lead up to the convention, Emma Lindquist, secretary, are The convention will be opened by The auditorium a monster building have been partitioned off to be used Arkansas school children will be giv- tions suitable to a nation at war.

Joining swords in warlike ways, To win the fight for independence. And if those beautiful women from courts far famed Could forget Fashion's beloved name, Spinning, knitting and conserving, To save for freedom a land most fair.

Then truly—we like they— All luxuries foregoing-(Even as George and Martha). Should save, create, conserve, To boys on foreign shores bestowing What we have saved, conserved, created.

cameo brooches I saw at Arnold Edmonston and Company's, 212 the inherent daintiness of the feminine Rose building. They are all hand heart. The crepe, in a cobwebby decarved, showing most delicate, skillful sign, all soft blue, gray and rose, workmanship and are set in different designs, each one in keeping with the the shoulders, weighted down by two to procure them at this time. T WOULD be hard to conceive of inspiring influence of a lovely at 50 and 75 cents in poppies and is showing junior coats in new pea-bachelors' buttons, which Miss Camp- cock blues and clay shades, which are home and value beauty above its cost, bell is showing in the Gift Depart-most unusual values at $19.75. ment at Orchard & Wilhelm's, 414 have interesting appeal. They are South Sixteenth street.

particular dominating character of the know, they have all been created in showing wonderfully artistic flower holders. A set of baskets in Nippon Save and spend wisely. Do not save to excess or spend to excess handles of sweet scented bent wood as thrift and luxury may become a reflects the artistry of a charming national weakness-Who but the Japanese K IND and courteous Mr. Taso, at the Nippon Importing Shop, 218 piece of a luncheon or dinner table South Eighteenth street, is always s quaintly charming and distinctly charmed to show his wares of surnew. Hand painted vases in graceful passing loveliness. This week he's lines are included in this wonderful display. One, a generously large showing lovely blue and white linens vase, with design in softly blended in luncheon cloths, both large and

Many of the smartest suits this ridge Importing Company conceits are used on the edges of the year are only going in for one button room at Fourteenth and Farnam. REPRESENTATIVE of a clientele flat flower bowls of muscova pottery. to fasten the coat. From one extreme to appreciative of quality and ex-

ONE MAY know that she is a very dainty person if her petticoats S EVERAL inquiries have just Orient for $3.95. During February, are in accord with her gowns and frocks. The Particular Person will delight in the silk petticoats of every shade and color-two toned, self shadowy grays, cool greens, low treasures, in this unusual shop. toned, ruffled, tucked and pleated, to toned blues and vivid rose, with, in he seen at the F. W. Thorne Shop at every case, just a touch of black to emphasize the colors.

BY A BIT of springtime magic, ENTRANCINGLY fashioned and flowers charm us anew each time we receive them. In this work-a-day, lose sight of the more aesthetic side of life, which is best expressed just brimful of new ideas for becomthrough the medium of flowers. The John Bath Florist Shop, 1804 Farnam street, is prepared to give you artistic know there's a hair dressing parlor in connection with the millinery and sic at the Lincoln Inn. hair goods shop. Truly a Parisian To masquerade as a dress is the combination!

with me some day when I'm filling an order at the Omaha Reed and Rattan Company, 640 South Sixteenth street. THE Oriental note-so popular this In this shop is an array of wonderspring-is struck in the trim on fully attractive furniture. If you've a a frock of navy blue serge seen at decorative scheme for some room in the F. W. Thorne Shop. your home, you're very apt to find drape in the back is modified by a just the piece you have in mind, but panel which extends below the waist if you don't see what you want in the line, ending in a dainty chenille show room-the efficient workmen in fringe. This dress, a distinctive this shop will design and make it for model, is $29.75.

restfully furnished—the delightful intimacy of its personal comforts—the little niceties of appointment and reby all women is impossible home, visit the Hospe Company's shop an attractive personal appear-shop, 1513 Douglas street. In the Art ance. One of the most important Department you'll find excellent values in artistic frames in all the alluring loveliness of Roman gold, ma-gracefully to necessity today. She hogany and silver frames. Those cuts her cloth with a view to saving information, think that "a face powder is a face powder." They dope their fond of things artistic will revel in the and makes a single dress serve for pictures on exhibition, and clever many occasions. And, oh, how begift ideas in mirrors, candle sticks, coming the patriotic fashions are on the face. "The Franco-American piano lamps and artistic shades. Way" teaches that the right kind of You're very welcome, and you will, powder protects the skin, helps it to I'm sure, enjoy a visit to this delook its best all the time and never partment.

> I T'S ABSOLUTELY necessary that Milady should be topped by a hat whose unimpeachable smartness is equalled only by its suitability. Alluring, captivating, dignified and becoming hats have just arrived from the east (I saw them unpacked), and are being shown by Miss Belle Hatch in her charmingly exclusive shop at 1820 Farnam street.

Foulard-the silk of the hour-is worn with tailored suit and ladies in town. The price for the work pier's, or I shall be glad to select is to be $25.00—but, oh, my, it's go- them for you. In either case be sure ing to be gorgeous!

represented by Jap silk stockings in ornaments of odd beauty, in the lovely shades, all packaged and labeled "Little Mischief."

represented by Jap silk stockings in ornaments of odd beauty, in the lovely shades, all packaged and labeled "Little Mischief."

Shop.

touch is introduced in the bustle draping of this dress. Another, a HEY'RE exquisite creations, the combination of crepe and taffeta in Cendre gray (ash color), satisfies all the waistline by artistic girdle of cameo. These bits of art range in the waistline by artistic girdle of price from $8.00 to $15.00 and are taffeta, in loose tie at left side. You truly treasures, for as you probably love them? I knew you would. Europe and it is almost impossible THE sand colored tricotine coat, trimmed in surprising touches f turquoise blue, just received at the I T WOULD be hard to conceive of F. W. Thorne Shop, is almost a snything more dashingly voguish than the Italian beaded boutonnieres vestee effect and tie-belt. This shop forms two panels loose hanging from bands of the taffeta, and drawn in at

The Chinese baskets for knitting, with cord and tassel ornament, I told you of last week, are only 50 cents, 85 cents and $1. They're truly lovely-

XQUISITELY embroidered bags all gold thread embroidery, tassels, jade and amber handles, in combinations of old blue, gold, rose and brown have just arrived at the Eld-Though reflecting the vogue of the moment, they're practical for everyday use and appropriate for every occasion. All the way from the reached me as to the most at- on Tuesday, from two till five, fratractive hangings in the sun room, grant Japanese tea will be served to Cretonne drapes, by all means, in all who are interested in artistic

> Would you like to know where you can rent Martha Washington wigs for fancy costume parties or historical worn with most bewitching ef-fect are the Marie Antoinette curls PLEASING the palate is an Artat the F. M. Schadell Company's not a mere chance! At the Lin-shop at 1522 Douglas street. I'm coln Inn, 218 South Sixteenth street, not a mere chance! At the Linyou'll enjoy food that is pure and ingly fashionable coiffures which were fresh, sweet and savory, delicious and imparted to me at this shop. You dainty. Good music is as rare as good food-you'll enjoy the inspiriting mu-

> There's a quaintness and charm in the dainty blue and rose tinted coffee and toast sets I saw in a shop the other day. The little plate on which the cup rests is oblong in shape, just space enough for the toast at the side of the cup-

C APTIVATING at a glance, are the unique protectors for knit-ting needles I've discovered in the Orchard & Wilhelm Company's Gift Room. These clever little devices of cork in delightful colors, hold the four needles used in knitting socks, They're fastened together by an elastic cord and for a trimming-just -Chinese beads and tiny black and for the sets of two knitting needles. Both designs are 50 cents.

Fashion, the queen whose word is law-and whose law a whim-yields

The Omaha Bee takes pleasure in offering the services of the Shopping Department to its readers. The latest offerings of the shops will be described, suggestions made and any article described in these columns, or in the advertising sections of The Bee, will be purchased without charge. Please enclose as many details as possible and enclose stamps for reply Purchases will be sent C. O. D. unless accompanied by check or Money Order.

-Advertisement.

special services will be held March 3 at St. Luke's church, South Side. Convention Here March 8 March 4 services will be held at Ben-The annual convention of the Sun- son, March 5 at Elkhorn, March 6

be held in Omaha March 8 at the Memorial church, Omaha. Miss Margaret Brown and W. H. program for the future use of dele- the hiennial, when delegates caring hear. Acoustics have been dispensed | Special Sunday school services will ers; J. L. Duff, president of the Dougwith. Vines, wild flowers and United start March 3 in the Douglas county las county Sunday schools, and Miss

March 8. The first of the series of pected to attend all the servic ]