

Nebraska NEAR SIDE STOP GOES FOR OMAHA THIRD OF MARCH

State Railway Commission Decries Street Railway Company Change System and Use Good Judgment.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Feb. 16.—(Special.)—The State Railway commission has ordered the "near side stop" for street cars in Omaha.

In making the order this afternoon, the commission decides that the order should be enforced with a measure of "hoss sense" on the part of the company and employees, especially as it applies to junction points, and suggests that outgoing cars observe the far side stop and incoming cars the near side stop, in order to keep the intersection clear.

As regarding the near side stop, the commission holds that as city ordinances generally require automobiles to come to a full stop when cars are taking on or discharging passengers, they will not be compelled to come to a halt on an intersection, but just back of the street corner, and thus not block traffic.

The order will go into effect March 3, next.

Many More Branches of Four-Minute Men Organized

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 16.—(Special.)—In 19 more Nebraska towns branches of the division of four-minute men of the United States committee on public information were organized this week.

By March 1, the government wishes the organization completed in every town where there is a moving picture theater.

The following new local chairmen are announced by the state chairman, Prof. M. M. Fogg of the University of Nebraska:

Adams, J. B. Coffman; Anselmo, C. E. Bass; Bladen, H. G. Wilcox; Bridgeport, F. S. Copeland; Ceresco, F. T. Wright; Elm Creek, F. P. Purcell; Germantown, R. W. Hans; Greenwood, N. H. Meeker; Gresham, Otto Gaeth; Holstein, C. E. Kipner; Lusk, J. R. Mouser; Naponee, Claude Wilmot; Nelson, George Jackson; Omaha, E. A. Kirkpatrick; Polk, Grover T. Post; Prague, Cyril Svoboda; Royal, Elmer E. Curtis; Wilber, Joseph Tuma; Wolbach, V. E. Plunk.

Beatrice Elks Observe Fiftieth Anniversary

Beatrice, Neb., Feb. 16.—(Special.)—The local lodge of Elks observed the fiftieth anniversary of the order last evening with initiatory services and a smoker.

Two candidates were initiated, the past exalted rulers occupying the chairs. Patriotic addresses were made by Past Exalted Ruler Fowble, W. W. Scott, John Dehant, C. G. Baker, E. M. Carrithers and others. The lodge now has a membership of 300 members and is in the most flourishing condition in its history.

Mrs. Charles Geddes, a pioneer of Beatrice, died last night at her home in this city, aged 64 years. She had been ill for more than a year. She is survived by five children, three sons and two daughters.

Will Stearns, formerly a member of the Beatrice force, is with an engineering corps in France. He is a son of William Stearns, a civil war veteran of this city.

Tecumseh Home Guards Boast Civil War Veterans

Tecumseh, Neb., Feb. 16.—(Special.)—Tecumseh has one of the most attractive companies of home guards there is in the state, and it was one of the first to be organized.

The total active membership is 148 men and of this number 27 are veterans of the civil war. The guard meets at the court house each Tuesday evening and when the weather will permit, drills on the campus adjacent to the court house. The commissioned officers are: Captain, Charles D. Blauevelt; first lieutenant, Superintendent W. S. Cook; second lieutenant, Frank Williams. The company has some 30 or more old rifles for drilling, and has recently ordered 25 new Sharps 50-70 rifles.

Oversubscribe Allotment For War Savings Stamps

Fairmont, Neb., Feb. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—An enthusiastic company filed the auditorium at the high school yesterday afternoon for the purpose of subscribing to the government war savings stamp proposition. The apportionment for Fairmont was $15,645. In one hour $25,000 was subscribed.

INSUROR NEWLY COINED BY INSURANCE MAN.

HENRY H. LOVELL, "Insuror."

Insurance of all kinds and surety bonds are included in the new coined word, "insuror," that indicates the business of Mr. Lovell. A beautiful suite of rooms, 102-103 Bee building has been fitted up to care for the new business. Beautiful furnishings make the rooms attractive.

For the last two years Mr. Lovell has been manager of the insurance department of the Bankers Realty Investment company and for the last year he has also acted as financial representative of the North American Hotel company. In these capacities he has made a host of friends in Omaha.

Being a strong believer in the future of Omaha and assured of its prosperous growth he resigned to enter into business for himself.

He thoroughly understands the business in which he has embarked for himself. Following his graduation from the University of Michigan in 1897 he associated himself with the Fidelity and Casualty company of New York and remained in its employ until 1905. He later was general agent for various leading eastern insurance companies and was manager of one of the largest eastern surety companies.

This meeting also voted approval of the action of the board of education in dropping German from the schools.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Henry Hemke and Miss Dorothy Griffin, both of Nebraska City, Neb., were licensed to wed here today.

Beatrice Man Drops Dead.

Beatrice, Neb., Feb. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—R. H. Robinson, an old resident of Beatrice, dropped dead of apoplexy in George Smith's cigar store here today. He was 64 years old. One of his sons, Lewis Robinson, is a member of Company C, 134th Infantry, Camp Cody, N. M.

Soldier's Home Notes.

Grand Island, Feb. 16.—(Special.)—Commander John F. Nye received word this morning of the death of his little granddaughter at Hastings.

Adjutant Maxwell has recovered from his recent illness and is again able to about.

"Parmer" Jones, so-called by the members at Burkett, is convalescing from a recent attack of grippe.

The sudden change in the weather has caused a large number of members to attend sick call this morning.

OMAHA WOMAN SHOT BY SUITOR WHO WAS REFUSED

Mrs. Iva Linsley Likely to Die as Result of Wound Inflicted by Herman Boche of Norfolk.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Iva Linsley of Omaha probably will die from a wound inflicted by Herman Boche of Norfolk, a rejected suitor. Boche shot the young woman and himself early today in a rooming house conducted by her mother, Mrs. Sophia Lattimer. He may die.

Mrs. Linsley is 24 years old. "He used to be very attentive to me," said Mrs. Linsley. "When I was married several months ago he followed me to Kansas City when I came here to visit my mother."

Mrs. Linsley's husband is on the way to Kansas City from Omaha. Boche entered the room where Mrs. Linsley was talking with Miss Cecil Rogers, about 1:30 o'clock this morning. Without a word he drew a revolver and began firing.

In Two Murder Trials. Norfolk, Neb., Feb. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Herman Boche, who shot Mrs. Iva Linsley at Kansas City, figured in two murder trials in Madison county. In the first trial he was charged with killing George W. Ives with an ax in January, 1890, but was not convicted.

He killed Frank Jarner in Norfolk in 1907. He was convicted and sentenced to 10 years in the Nebraska penitentiary, but was paroled a few years ago and has been living near Norfolk.

Went to Kansas City. A week ago he went to Kansas City, intimating to friends here he was infatuated with a woman named Iva.

Just before the state went dry the Norfolk police took a long hunting knife from Boche, who figured in a quarrel in a local saloon. Boche has a violent temper and officials who have dealt with him say he becomes brutal while drinking. A telegram from a hospital in Kansas City to his son here states that Boche's condition is dangerous.

Indiana Dry Law Held Illegal by Superior Court

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 16.—Indiana's state-wide prohibition law was held to be unconstitutional and void by Judge F. M. Hostetter of the Vanderburgh county superior court here today in ruling on a demurrer to a complaint filed by a number of brewing companies against the county prosecutor to enjoin him from enforcing the law after April 2, 1918, the date named for it to take effect.

The ruling opens the way for an immediate appeal to the Indiana supreme court, if the "dry" interests desire to take that step.

Judge Hostetter declared that the prohibition law was not designed to limit and regulate the making and handling of alcoholic beverages, nor to confine the use of such beverages within the bounds of temperance and moderation, but absolutely to make temperate and moderate use of intoxicating liquors legally impossible.

He decided the present constitution of Indiana would not permit such a law to stand.

CLEAN THE PLATE IS CAMP SLOGAN

Small Saving by Each Individual Makes Total of Stupendous Amount, According to Army Officials.

Camp Funston, Feb. 16.—The "clean plate" is to be the order at all mess halls at Camp Funston, national army cantonment. A bulletin calling the attention of the nation's fighters here to the necessity for food conservation has been issued by Brigadier General Winn, in command of the cantonment.

The bulletin, quoting a circular letter from the bakery branch office of the quartermaster general, follows: "In time of peace many food economies were so small in their returns that the end did not justify the means. But at present, with 1,500,000 men assembled in the various cantonments and willing to give their aid, there is almost no economy too small to be worth while. Even a half cent a day saved by 1,500,000 men amounts to $7,500 a day and at this rate $2,737,000 could be saved in a year. The saving in a company of 250 men would, on this basis, amount to $125 a day, no mean amount, especially if added to the company fund.

Serve it Again. "Most of the men of the new army have been living in homes where the small savings that now amount to so much, not only in money value, but in actual conservation of food, were not considered worth bearing with; for this reason these men cannot be expected to realize the necessity for being careful with food or to view the question from an angle of real economy."

"With the cost of rations at 4 1/2 cents a day for each man, a man who leaves on his plate even one-eighth of the food served to him causes a waste of a half cent a day. Attention is called to this not with a view of having the men eat less, that would be highly undesirable, but to have them realize the great importance of avoiding waste. At one of the cantonments the commanding officer found the habit of the wasteful plate was so prevalent that a regulation was enforced requiring that food left on a man's plate should be served to him as the first course of his next meal.

"The prevailing practice of cutting cans with a cleaver may save time, but how much of the contents of the can is left clinging to the inside under the uneven edges? It is safe to say there is a loss of 1 per cent of the contents of each can, or a loss of 10 cans in every 1,000.

"The thin slice of bread is the economical slice and these are to be halved, so that a man who desires more than one slice of bread, but is not hungry enough to eat two whole slices, may satisfy his appetite without wasting half of the extra slice. Bacon and ham should be carefully sliced in order to avoid uneven ends."

U. S. to Build Sanatoriums For Tubercular Soldiers

Washington, Feb. 16.—Sanatoriums for the treatment of soldiers suffering from tuberculosis are to be established at New Haven, Conn., and at Whipple barracks, Prescott, Ariz., in addition to those to be built at Asheville, N. C., and Denver, Colo.

It is understood that they will cost about $550,000 each.

CHIROPRACTIC PHILOSOPHY Chiropractic Philosophy recognizes the Infinite as a being with infinitive productive activity, and as possessing omnipotent power to reproduce a being with attributes like those of its own, only in limited degree. The Infinite—soul—thus comes into existence, with all divine attributes and knowledge of the laws governing its own being and those of other things.

Your life force—where does it come from? From your brain—or rather from that part of the brain we call the cerebrum. That is the powerhouse of the body. The power it generates—mind you, we do not say creates—is distributed through the body by way of the spinal cord over a marvelous network of nerves that reach every part. The finest pointed needle cannot find a place on the body where it may prick without the message being flashed to the powerhouse: "Hey, something wrong down there."

And the brain flashes back instructions: "Get away from the needle." With the notice to move comes the physical movement—your arm—or rather from that part of the brain we call the cerebrum.
