Advance in Liberty Bonds, Built on Belief Next Issue Will Carry 41.2, Outstanding Feature.

Omaha, February II. 1818.

A fair run of grain was on hand today, say

The cocipits totaling 264 cars, with four of wheat 232 of corn, 12 of eats and three cars each of rye and barley.

Early trading on the exchange was practically at a standstill owing to the late arrival of inspections. Business followed a rival rival from the recent temperature of a reid wave in the stock market today. Liberty bonds predicated on the belief that the next issue is to be on a 4½ per cent basis was the most notworthy feature of the stock market follows and there can business followed a rival rival from the recent temperature of a reid wave in the stock market follows and the extreme of the stock market follows and the recent temperature of a reid wave in the stock market follows and the next issue is to be on a 4½ per cent to stock market follows. Say ington met with general approval. This was largely nullified, however, by further "government ownership" debates in the

New Food Regulations

Are Enforced in Paris Paris, Feb. 21 .- Victor Boret, the food minister, conferred yesterday with hotel keepers and others and after hearing their objections to his order forbidding the serving of food between 9 and 11 a. m., because of the hardship it would work on the laboring classes, agreed to revoke that part of the order until further notice. He insisted, however, that the prohibition against the serving of solid foods between 2:30 and 6:30 p. m.

must be applied rigorously. Indian Uprising Quelled by

Troops From Fort Douglas Gold Hill, Utah, Feb. 21 .- A detachment of 50 soldiers from Fort Douglas, under command of Captain Walter C. Gullion, accompanied by United States Marshal Nebeker, today surrounded a band of Indians in the Goshute reservation near the Nevada state line and afrested seven red men who were ringleaders in the uprising By Gas Asphyxiation against the army draft and who have been threatening the safety of Indian
