ARMY NOTES

Major W. O. Gilbert of the judge advocate department of the army, on duty in Washington, has been promoted to a lieutenant colonelcy.

Captain George R. Gilbert came up from Fort Riley and spent the last week-end here with his wife and his mother, Mrs. George I. Gilbert, returning Sunday to Riley, where he is organizing a hospital train.

Lieutenant Lynn T. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hall of this city and a member of the Omaha ambulance company at Camp Taylor, Ky., has just returned to that camp from four weeks' special training in surgery at Cleveland, O.

Lieutenant Lawrence Phipps has been ordered from Macon, Ga., to San Antonio and Mrs. Phipps has gone to Denver, but will be in Omaha again next week.

George Flack and Herbert Smalls are both at Atlanta, Ga., at the ground school.

Dr. E. W. Lee of New York, formerly of this city, has received a commission as major in the medical corps of the army and hopes to be called to France. At present he is using the Carrel treatment in one of the New York hospitals with great success.

Philip Downs left last week for Boston, called to take two months' training in naval aeronautics at the Boston School of Technology. Mr. Downs went into the mosquito fleet last summer, but when it was disbanded he came home to wait further orders, which only came last week.

John Chadwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Chadwick, is at the Boston Tech taking a course in naval aeronautics.

Rich Baum, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum, formerly of this city, has entered the ambulance service as lieutenant and is now on his way to France. His brother, Jack Baum, is in Washington, D. C., in the supply department of the coast aviation.

Ronald Barrows, brother of Mrs. Henry C. Nicholson of this city, has been seriously ill with scarlet fever at the army hospital at San Diego, Cal. Mr. Barrows is with the 145th field artillery at Camp Kearny, San Diego. He was taken sick upon his return from spending the holidays in Los Angeles with his mother.

Burdette Kirkendall made his solo flight on Friday of last week at Kelly field No. 2, San Antonio. Burdette, Clarence Peters, Mrs. M. C. Peters and Miss Daphne Peters dined together in San Antonio recently.

Lieutenant Fred W. Clarke, Jr., is in command of a detachment of men at Hoquiam, Wash., to get out spruce for airplanes.

Francis Metz, son of Dr. Philip Metz, leaves today for the naval training station of the Great Lakes. This 19-year-old patriot underwent two operations to make himself physically fit. He is a Nebraska product. His grandfather, Jim Goff, was an Indian fighter during territorial days, and his great-grandfather kept the first store in Columbus, Neb., when most of his customers were Indians.

Card Party.
Vesta chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will give a card party Tuesday afternoon at the New Masonic temple. High five and whist will be played.

BENSON

A program was given Thursday in the high school assembly room and the proceeds are for the Junior Red Cross.

Miss Anna Schlen of Benson and Mr. John Christian of Paxton, Neb., were married last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorton Roth entertained at their home Friday evening for the Methodist brotherhood.

Mrs. John Morgan and daughter will arrive next week from Pennsylvania to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Campbell.

Miss Floy Clippard entertained at a "little girls" party Monday evening for the Loyalty Daughters' club, the 20 guests being dressed as girls. Children games were played during the evening.

Washington birthday parties were given by the Augusta Luther league at the church and by the Christian church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Atkinson Friday evening, with patriotic programs at both places.

The Westminster guild met in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, when a chicken dinner preceded the regular meeting and address given by a returned missionary.

Rev. Charles Herron of Omaha is filling the pulpit of the Presbyterian church during the absence of Rev. McClung.

Mrs. J. Calvert was hostess for the Methodist Ladies' Aid society last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hilligas announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Delta, to Mr. Henry Pale.

The English Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will give a noon and afternoon luncheon at the church on Thursday.

The Danish sisterhood held a bazaar in the Auditorium last Saturday.

SOUTH SIDE

Mrs. William Warman, South Side resident, now living in Seattle, Wash., stopped off for a short visit with Mrs. W. B. Route this week enroute to her old home at Chariton, Ia., where she will visit her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kervalis have a new boy this week. Mrs. Kervalis was formerly Miss Edna Nevin.

Mrs. Millard Baily is still very ill at her home, 4308 South Seventeenth street.

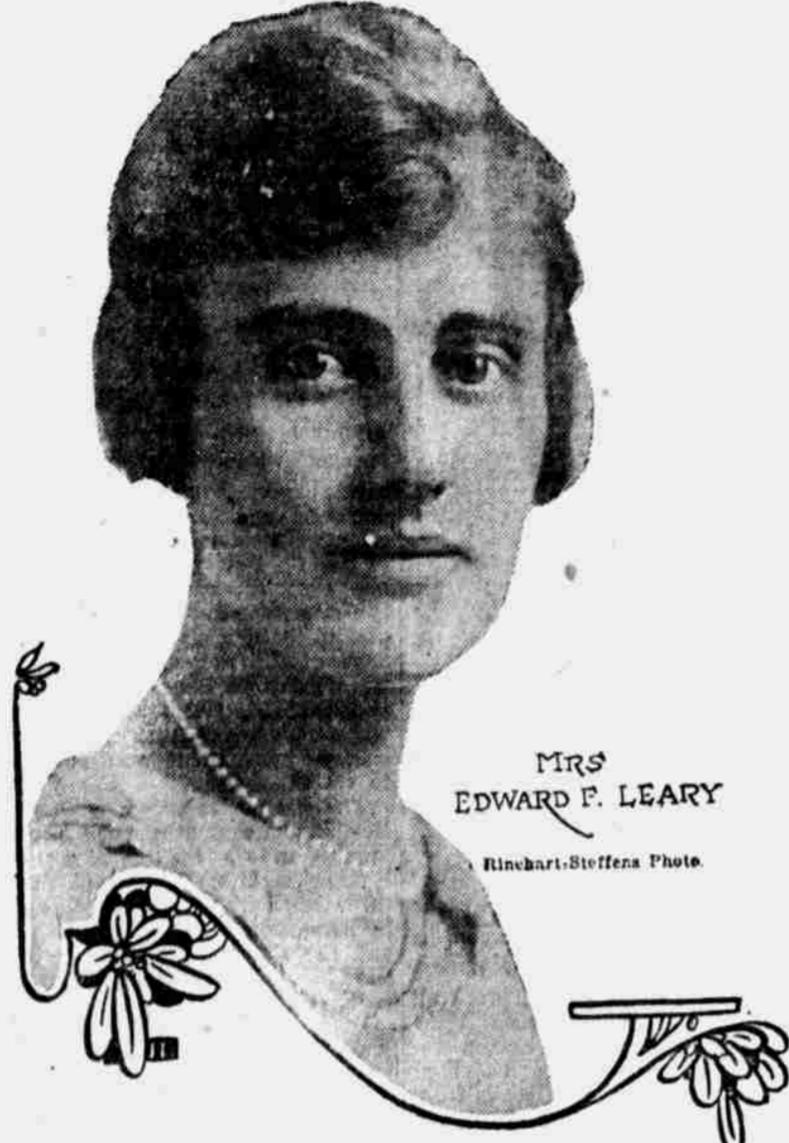

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tombrinck and small son are expected to return shortly from South America, where they have been living.

Mrs. L. B. Flanders, formerly Miss Eva Wallweber, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallweber, before going to her new home in Norfolk, Va., where her husband is in the government service.

Mr. Glen Munger is in the Immanuel hospital following a surgical operation.

Attendant at Wedding

Mrs. Edward Leary, pretty young matron, will be the bridal attendant of Miss Nan Barrett. Miss Barrett's marriage to Mr. Jack Hughes will take place Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served, after which the young couple will leave on their honeymoon.

Mullen, Fisk, Rosecrans, Galloway, Voltz, Queenan and Barrett.

High Cost of Dying Appalls Belgium's Starving

An organ of the high command of Brussels recently published the following:

"Everything is going up, even what one might think would escape the general rule—the cost of funerals. Late the communes paid only 100 francs for burying paupers. Today the amount has doubled, not only on account of the higher price of wood, leaden plates, wax, etc., but also because of the increase in the number of coffins needed for paupers, for burials at the expense of the communes are more and more numerous."

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Claggett had at their guests last week Mrs. A. Claggett of Lexington, Ill., and Mr. Edward Horney and Clifford Horney of Beaver Crossing, Neb.

When boiling meat put a wire tea pot standard in the kettle and the meat will not burn.

Orange and grapefruit marmalade can be made a little at a time all through the winter.

When pans are scorched use a stiff wire whisk to get the burned food off the bottom.

Foods rich in mineral water are fruits, green vegetables and whole grains.
