HANSCOM PARK I have recently received the listing of a beautiful home consisting of nine rooms, located on a corner lot 50x297, facing east on Thirty-second avenue, overlooking the park and extending through to Thirty-third street, making two large beautifully located lots. The house is modern in every particular, and extremely well built. Four attractive rooms on first floor including living room, dining room, kitchen; four good sized bedrooms and bath on second floor, and a large attic with one finished room for maid. Nice large well ventilated cellar with cement floor good plumbing and heating plant. This house is in excellent condition. No encumbrance or taxes of any kind against the property and the owner is in a position to carry good sized mortgage should purchaser so desire. The house is entirely too large for present owner, which is the only reason for selling same. See me for price and terms.

TO MOVE CAPITAL BACK TO BALKANS Serbian Government to Go First to Saloniki and Later to a Point Nearer Monastir. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Corfu, Island of Corfu, Sept. 15.—The Serbian government is preparing to move its entire government establishment back to the Balkans, going first to Saloniki and later to a point on Serbian soil near Monastir. The Greek government has already granted the request for the establishment of the Serbian administration at Saloniki and King Peter, Crown Prince Alexander and several of the cabinet ministers are now installed there. There is much sentiment about this shift of Serbia back to its native soil. Since their tragic flight before the invading hordes from the north, king, regent and government have found a temporary abode on this island. They have lived simply and the whole establishment has been located in a modest building formerly used as a hotel. The royal apartments and the ministry of foreign affairs occupied the first floor, while the finance, interior and other ministries were on upper floors. The French military authorities of the island have given every aid, and yet the Serbians have constantly longed to be back on their own soil. Not Much to Move. This shift of a government back to the Balkans does not involve much moving of government property, for practically everything was lost in the flight before the invaders. The minister of foreign affairs, M. Paschitz, told the writer and later to foreign archives were lost or abandoned during the exodus and that not one of the old treaties or papers still exists. Even the precious secret treaty between Serbia and Greece, and which Serbia depended for united Balkan action against the central powers, was lost in the whirl of flight. So that the foreign department has had to begin all over again and piece together something like a record of Serbia's foreign relations. The minister of finance was most fortunate and managed to save most of the financial archives. What was of most importance, he saved the government treasure, amounting to several million dollars, which was sent to Marseilles and finally landed in a Paris bank. The minister of the interior has already gone on to Saloniki and is laying out the extensive work of reconstructing the new Serbia, for the Serbs confidently look forward to re-occupying their old territory and building up a new and greater state. The minister has outlined plans for reconstructing the railways and bridges, most of which has been ruined by war operations, and for rebuilding the towns and cities. The minister of education is also hard at work, trying to hold together the scattered remnants of young Serbia. Thousands of refugee Serb children have been gathered up in France and England and Serbian professors have been provided for them in order that Serb teaching and traditions might be maintained, and the youth of Serbia preserved from being swallowed up in the general disorder which has overcome the country. The American government's advance of $5,000,000 francs a month, or 60,000,000 francs a year, has come at an opportune moment to permit the authorities here to carry on their work of relief and reconstruction. All government revenues had virtually come to an end. There were no receipts from customs or internal revenue, nothing from the government postal and telegraph system which was in the hands of the enemy, no property of
