

USED CARS

Owing to war time demands of the government, manufacturers of automobiles have been forced to limit their output to 40 per cent of last year's demand. This naturally will cause a shortage of new cars and create an unusual demand for used cars. Make your visit to the Automobile Show complete by examining some of the Used Car Bargains listed below. These dealers will demonstrate any car to your satisfaction.

A word to the wise is sufficient,
Like the early bird he catches the worm,
For bargains he's always there waiting,
That's why he always has money to burn.

Now some fellows are always complaining;
They'll tell you they don't get a chance.
Others good luck they keep on explaining
"Till the fringe appears on their pants.

It's not luck, my dear fellow; stop raving, You'll never win if never you try, While the other fellow is working, scheming and saving,
You're busy telling how you're the fall guy.

Money was made round to keep it rolling,
If rolled right it always comes back.
If you spend it the bell of hard luck for you will keep tolling,
And you'll be standing there holding the sack.

The wise ones will buy their automobiles right now, while we are selling them at straw-hat prices in winter time. Next spring these same cars will be selling from 20% to 50% higher. The wise fellow will have his car—then the trailer will be saying, I wish I had bought.
We have over twenty different makes of cars—all late models. Roadsters and Touring Cars from $100 up.
Come in and look them over. All cars sold with a money-back guarantee.

Have Created
a New Standard of Used Car
Values

Go to Studebaker-Wilson, Inc., Used-Car Dep't and pick out your car today—at before-the-war prices. Drive it every day, save doctor bills, add an hour more to your day. Keep well, fit and strong. This is the greatest war economy and the surest way to lick the kaiser. Later on, if you need the money, sell your car and in all probabilities you will receive as much as you pay for it now. Before-the-war prices prevail today, later on an almost assured shortage will very likely advance prices on NEW and USED CARS.

So buy today, when you need a car most, buy while the prices are still very low, buy a good used car—one that is well broken in, free running, sure starting, and in good mechanical condition. Charge the investment to better efficiency, life insurance and better health for the whole family.

Studebaker-Wilson, Inc., offers you just such a car at a marvelously low price. If you haven't all the money, pay a little down and the rest as you ride.
