PLACE SELECTS IN COAST ARTILLERY

Men of Draft Age Not in Present Quota May Be Used for This Service, Says General Crowder.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 26.-(Special Telegram.)-Men of draft age not in present quota may be inducted into coast artillery service, orders received by General Logan today from General Crowder announced. General Logan is sending letters to local draft boards Food Administration to allow mutnotifying them to this effect. Those going into artillery service now will until April 15. They say this will be sent to Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, for training.

Camp Dodge Filling Up.

Recruits from Iowa and Minnesota continue to arrive at Camp Dodge and are being examined and assigned as rapidly as possible. Four thousand five hundred men arrived today. Fifteen thousand men in all are to come in this draft. The early arrivals were assigned to the 350d infantry and the 339th field artillery. Beginning 15. today the men will be assigned to the 349th and 351st infantry and the money on their operations this win-337th field artillery. Ad Man Hurt.

George Mercer, former president of the Des Moines Advertising club and manager for Nichol the Tailor, was seriously injured when his automobile was struck by another car at Forty-second and Grand. He was thrown to the pavement and it was feared for some time that his skull was fractured. On examination, however, it was found this was not true. The driver of the other car, Vernon Newman, was arrested by the police and a large quantity of liquor was found in his car. Newman was uninjured, but both machines were wrecked. Old Soldier Dead.

Captain V. P. Twombley, who won distinction during the civil war and who served as state treasurer of Iowa from 1885 to 1891, died at his home here yesterday at the age of 76 years. He has been ill for some time. After two color bearers had been shot down in the charge of the union forces on Fort Donelson Twombly. then a private, seized the colors and carried them until the battle was won. He was thrice wounded during the war. He was an officer in the Second Iowa infantry, referred to in history as the "bravest of the brave," His parents came to Iowa in a very early day and he was born near Farminghis heroic conduct at Fort Donelson own Liberty bonds and virtually all he was promoted to a lieutenancy and of them belong to the Red Cross and later made captain. Through the county superintendents of Iowa the war savings stamps campaign, the Junior Red Cross organization and the work for vocational agriculture in the public schools is to be extended throughout all of the schools of the state. State Superintendent A. M. Deyoe has issued an official call to the county superintendents of Iowa to meet at the state house Thursday and Friday of this week to consider these matters. "It is expected that every man, woman and child of school age at least shall contribute something to help win this war," says the state superintendent.

Seed Census Ready.

Seed corn census takers, appointed by Governor Harding for every school district in the state, completed their work today and reports on the quantity of seed corn available in each district will soon be forthcoming. All reports received thus far by the State Council of National Defense and the agricultural extension department at Ames is to the effect that in order to provide a proper supply for all parts of the state there must be a most careful distribution of the stock now available. Prof. Bender Here.
