McManusMORAN KNOCKED OUT BY FULTON
IN THIRD ROUNDPittsburgh Man Is Badly Cut in Early Rounds Which Proves Serious Handicap;
Fulton Strong.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 26.—Fred Fulton, of Rochester Minn., knocked out Frank Moran of Pittsburgh in the third round of their scheduled 20 round fight last night. The men are heavyweights.

Moran's right eye was badly cut by Fulton during the first round and the cut was opened wider during the second period. When the third round opened Moran seemed to have great difficulty in seeing his opponent.

Is Technical Win.

After a clinch in which Fulton landed left and right uppercuts and jabs to Moran's jaw, Moran fell and his seconds tossed in the sponge, Fulton being accorded a technical knockout.

Moran started the first round by rushing Fulton and landing right and left hooks to the face following with rights and left swings to the head. Fulton retaliated with right and left jabs to the body and a right cross that cut just above the Pittsburgh man's right eye, starting blood.

Open up Wound.

In the second round Moran opened with hard jabs to Fulton's ribs, following by a shower of rights and lefts to his opponent's face. After driving Fulton into a corner he landed repeated right and left hooks to the big fellow's head.

Fulton, taking the offensive shortly before the bell drove Moran to the center with vicious jabs and swings to the body and head. With his face covered with blood from the wound over his eye and with his right eye closed, Moran appeared in distress when the bell sounded.

In a clinch after the opening of the third round Fulton landed numerous right and left uppercuts. Breaking the clinch, Fulton sent a hard right across to Moran's jaw and the latter dropped helpless. Two minutes of the round had passed when Moran's seconds threw in the sponge.

Moran had several cuts about the face. Fulton was scarcely marked. Sammy Goldman of New Orleans was referee.

Fulton weighed 215 and Moran 198.

O'Dowd Is Given Decision

Over Greb in Ten Rounds

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 26.—News-papers critics gave Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, claimant of the middle weight championship, a shade over Harry Greb of Pittsburgh at the end of a 10-round bout here tonight. Greb did most of the leading, but could not get inside O'Dowd's left hand.

O'Dowd fought a strong defensive battle, forcing Greb frequently to swing wildly or stopping him short with a stiff left. He broke ground repeatedly, dodging Greb's left hook.

The bout was brisk. O'Dowd played for Greb's ribs, putting over some rights that appeared damaging. In the second a right smash to the Pittsburgher's mouth brought blood.

In the ninth, with the crowd calling for a knockout, O'Dowd made his best showing, but Greb skillfully covered and clinched.

DEMPSEY IS GIVEN
DECISION IN SIXTHReferee Stops Contest With Brennan in Pitiful Condition
Following Severe Beating
by 'Frisco Heavyweight.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 26.—Jack Dempsey, the San Francisco heavyweight, won from Bill Brennan here tonight in the sixth round of what was to have been a ten round bout. The referee stopped the bout to save Brennan from a knockout.

Dempsey had the advantage from the start. He floored Brennan four times in the second round and the Chicagoan was saved a probable knock out by the bell in the fourth round. The Californian had a shift that Brennan seemed unable to fathom. Dempsey was equally clever with either hand and landed at will with lightning rapidity, which seemed to mystify the Chicagoan.

Sixth Round Fast.

In the sixth round Dempsey landed a shower of lefts and rights to the body and jaw, a stiff right to the chin causing Brennan to take the count of nine. Brennan was game but when the referee saw his case was hopeless, and that Dempsey was on the verge of landing a real knockout wallop he stopped the contest.

The men fought at catch weights, Brennan tipping the beam at 196 and Dempsey at 182.

Farmers Urged to Salt

Grain in Order to Save

Washington, Feb. 26.—Millions of bushels of soft and wet corn can be saved if farmers will promptly salt their stocks. Assistant Secretary Vrooman of the Department of Agriculture made this announcement today in advocating the remedy to prevent serious loss of grain.

Vrooman said this should not discourage shipment of soft corn to elevators for drying, but because of the shortage of railroad equipment he doubts if it will be possible to get all the soft corn to elevators in time to save it. Salting, he added, should be finished within the next two weeks.

REAVIS SAYS FIRST STATE DISTRICT IS WITHOUT CARSCongressman From Nebraska
Declares Director McAdoo of Railroads Is Not Carrying Out His Promises.

Washington, Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative Reavis, who has spent days at the offices of the food administration and the director general of railroads in the interest of his constituents, does not look upon the recent open letter of the director general of railroads to Food Administrator Hoover with any degree of comfort, let alone conviction, in view of the telegrams and letters he is receiving from business interests in the first district.

Today Representative Reavis unbosomed himself as to the camouflaging indulged in by Secretary McAdoo. Mr. Reavis said:

"I am very glad to learn from the published correspondence of the director general of railroads with Food Administrator Hoover in which he says that there are ample cars to transport all the food products and that if information is furnished the director general of railroads of localities needing cars they would be immediately supplied."

"My mail is flooded with telegrams and letters that there is not a station in the first district that does not need cars at once to save the soft corn. Notwithstanding repeated appeals for cars, they are not supplied."

"I received a letter today from one of the small towns in my district stating that more than 50 stock cars had been ordered at that station and not a stock car had been furnished in a week; that in many instances farmers with hogs and cattle ready for the market have been compelled to hold them on feed because no transportation was forthcoming."

"This condition results in great loss to the farmer and an utter waste of feed to keep the stock up while waiting for cars. Lack of transportation to get stock to primary markets has resulted in great loss."

"The situation is intolerable and if the director general of railroads has ample cars, as he tells Mr. Hoover, he should get them to Nebraska without delay."

Glenn made a second attempt at escape while on the way to the Central police station, by dodging away from the officer, but was quickly nabbed before he had gone far.

Glenn refuses to talk to anyone concerning the charge against him. He is booked for investigation.
