In a deposition, Mr. Smith answered categorically nine questions relating to political expenditures, to which he had refused replies while under ex-amination during the public inquiry in 674 May, 1916.

Thus he complied with the order of the supreme court last November, holding that the commission had authority to inquire into practically all expenditures of a railway company. Liberal Expenditures Made. Mr. Smith referred specifically to four items of expense: $30,000 spent in 1914 in Alabama, for political cam-paign purposes and charged to operating expenses; $34,800 spent in Ala-bama through the Johnson-Dallas Advertising agency in a campaign against rate reduction; $20,715 spent in 1910 for maintenance for political agents, whose identity and precise work was not disclosed, and $15,000 expended in 1907 "in aiding a newspaper which was advocating certain views upon public questions in which the Louisville & Nashville Railway company concurred." The name of the paper was not mentioned.

Don't Envy the Good Dresser---You Can Look As Well As He

Elègance in dress usually means attention to details. The most perfect costume will have its appearance ruined by a pair of rusty shoes. An ill-fitting shirt will make an otherwise perfect costume look "frowsy."

A man's shirt deserves special attention-if he is particular as to his appearance. Don't let your shirts make you look "cheap;" make them add to your dress.

Beau Brummel Shirts

are splendid examples of the master designer's art.' They fit perfectly where-do not pull or bind anywhere. They are cut from tested fabrics, and will withstand wear better than you expect-coming from the laundry, time after time, good-looking and young in color and fabric. There's a Beau Brummel shirt here that will exactly please you. It is marked at a price you will be glad to pay, and it will be a joy every time you put it on. Come and see our Beau Brummels today. It will be a pleasure to show you their points of superiority. Prices range from $ to $ ?

Watch the Little Pimples; They Are Nature's Warning

Unsightly and Disfiguring Signals of Bad Blood. Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body.

Not only are these pimples and splotches disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting ir-ders. And the one remedy which has ders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a purifier is S. S. S. the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere. If you are afflicted with any form of skin disease, do not expect to be cured by lotions, ointments, salves and other local remedies, as they can and other local remedies, as they can not possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is in the blood. Begin taking S. S. S. today, and if your case needs special advice, write a complete history of your case, and our chief medical adviser will give you all necessary instructions, with-out charge.
