Hawthorn has been in the hosby the different orators, but when the wind-jamming had terminated, apparently everyone was satisfied with the different orations and hit the homeward trail with a firm determination to do all in their power to preserve amateur base ball in Omaha, while their former diamond companions are en route to Germany to bring back peace and good will to the entire universe.

President Jake Isaacson presided chairman of the mass meeting and his opening speech he asked the especially to remember the pond with them at least occasionally. R. L. Metcalf, who was to make a pa-triotic speech was unable to attend. Commissioner Hummel, the next peaker, told the boys they could depend on him the ensuing season in event he was re-elected. A backer of amateur base ball, namely, Frank Dewey, told the bunch that in looking over his records he found only 10 of 40 who formerly played with various teams backed by him still in Omaha. The rest are either members of the army or pears. of the army or navy. Good Word for Boys.

He asked that the following resolution be adopted:
"To the Enlisted Boys, Army and

Navy: "The Omaha Amateur Base Ball association in session at this time is thinking and talking of you, and we send greetings and hope that you succeed in putting the kaiser out of business. With best wishes and Godspeed from all of us." This resolution was unanimously adopted.

J. P. Connolly, a member of the board of recreation, spoke about the boys who had enlisted and had been drafted and he hoped that the young boys would enlist new youthful timber to keep the game up to the old standard. The writer, Frank Jacobs, Butch Fries, Abe Kaiman, Robert Krall, Bill Ammons, Walter Nelson. Krall, Bill Ammons, Walter Nelson. Victor Lund also spoke.

About 30 of the base ball players made brief talks.

Letters From Front.

Letters were received by President men: James Milota, formerly secre-tary of the association, and George Sutej. The thairman read the letters, which were joyfully received. Talk New Rules.

New rules were talked about that might be adopted for the ensuing season, namely: To cut down the number of men allowed at the opening of the season from 15 to 12.

That protests will be sent in with a forfeit and if it is ascertained that there be no foundation for the protest the forfeit money will automatically become a part of the treasury of the Omaha Amateur Base Ball asso-

The receipts for one day from class A games will probably be turned over to the Griffith ball and bat fund. On week from tonight, March 7, the City league and Metropolitan league will meet at the city hall to elect new officers.

For Clash With Hawkeyes Ames, Ia., Feb. 28 .- (Special.) -Both Ames and Iowa will be smelling blood when they meet here Friday night in the final basket ball game of the season on the Ames floor, for on the result of this contest the state honors rest. Both teams have about an equal claim to the title, Ames having one defeat by Iowa against them, while Iowa has been beaten by several of the smaller scchools of the state earlier in the season.

All of the Ames men are in condition at present. Since the run of bad luck and injuries has left the camp, Coach Salter's proteges have put up a brand of ball seldom seen.

Hahn, one of the Ames sub-guards, has earned himself a berth on the regulars if anything can be taken from appearances. He is displacing Abbott, who has played in the guard poof anybody on the floor, guarding everybody, and scoring most field baskets of any Ames man. SNYGG SECRETARY OF THE IMPROVERS

Sutton, Retiring Official, Details Some of Things That Organization Has Been Able to Accomplish.

O. V. Snygg of the Greater Omaha Improvement club was elected secretary of the United Federation of Improvement clubs Wednesday night. He succeeds R. J. Sutton, who will leave Omaha next Wednesday for Atlanta, Ga., to enter an aviation training school.

In his valedictory address Mr. Suton called attention of the club to the fact that congress has not yet carried out all of a program outlined in a resolution adopted by the club 10 months ago and forwarded to Washngton for the guidance and information of the national lawmakers. In that resolution the United Federation of Improvement clubs recommended government control of railroads, which has been accomplished. Regulation of prices of food staples was recommended and that has been put into effect.

Eleven members of the affiliated clubs attended the meeting last night.
