

HEALTH OFFICER TO PROPOSE NEW CITY HOSPITAL

Connell Would Sell Emergency Location and Build Modern Contagious Hospital on New Site.

Health Commissioner Connell has a plan which he will submit to the city commissioners, proposing to sell the City Emergency hospital on Douglas street and building a modern contagious disease hospital on a new site. He estimates that this property would yield $50,000 on sale and there will be due the city approximately $20,000 from the residue of the Anna Wilson estate, which will be settled within the next two months among seven beneficiaries.

Cottage Plan.

"My idea is to acquire a tract of land within reasonable distance and build a municipal contagious disease hospital on the cottage plan which has been adopted by many cities. One cottage would serve for nurses and general administration purposes, while other cottages would be used for scarlet fever patients, erysipelas patients and other cases as may be necessary.

"Omaha is a large city now and the present contagious disease hospital is lacking in meeting the demands made on it. I intend to present the matter to the city commissioners and I believe they will be impressed with the merits of my proposition."

Delta Tau Delta Frat Men To Oppose German in Schools

Opposition to the teaching of the German language in the schools and colleges is expected to develop this afternoon in the conference of the western division of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity at the Blackstone hotel.

Sentiment against the teaching of German has been developing during the two days' conference, and it is expected by leaders that this will be embodied in a resolution when the resolutions committee reports in the afternoon.

In the absence of President Axelsson of Chicago, Frank Rogers of New York, officer of the Rainbow, the official publication of the fraternity, is presiding.

Election of officers will take place during the afternoon. A banquet is scheduled for tonight at the Blackstone. Visiting and local alumni will be present. Colonel Curtis, president of the national council, is expected. A delegation of Delta Tau Deltas has arrived from Manhattan, Kan., from the state agricultural college there, to make application for a local charter.

Eggs Drop 17 Cents Per Dozen; Butter Cheaper

Eggs have dropped 17 cents per dozen in the scale of prices established by the price committee of the food administration at Omaha. Last week they were listed at 55 cents. The new schedule of prices issued quotes them at 38 cents.

No. 2 potatoes are listed in the new schedule and are quoted at 1 1/3 cents per pound. No. 1 potatoes are still quoted at 2 1/3 cents.

Butter is down 1 cent. It is now quoted at 54 and 51 cents, respectively, instead of at 55 and 52 cents, as last week.

A 12-ounce loaf of bread has been added to standard loaves bakers are permitted to bake. This is to retail at 7 1/2 cents per loaf.

Voters Who Have Moved Must Register at Once

Between 5,000 and 10,000 voters in Omaha have moved since their last registration, according to Election Commissioner Moorhead, and will not be permitted to vote at the April primaries unless they report at his office at once to re-register. "Even if a man has moved in his own precinct he must report the change of residence to this office to avoid having his registration challenged," Mr. Moorhead said. "It is possible we will have registration offices in South Omaha, Benson and Florence later. Voters residing in those districts, however, should register at this central office now and avoid the delay and confusion of an overcrowded registration at the eleventh hour."

Omaha Women Urge Wilson To Suspend Death Sentence

The Ladies' Aid society of the North Presbyterian church and the Daughters of 1812 of Omaha dispatched telegrams to President Wilson urging him to suspend the death sentence imposed upon four American soldiers found asleep at their posts while on sentry duty.

At the suggestion of Mrs. J. M. Wilson, wife of the pastor of the church, the Ladies' Aid society of the North Presbyterian church sent the following wire to the president: "We, the ladies of the North Presbyterian church, believing justice and mercy will be better served, most earnestly entreat you to intervene and save the lives of the four sentinels found asleep, as referred to by General Pershing, and give them another chance to serve their country."

William Gentleman, Omaha Boy, is Stationed in Paris

William Gentleman, son of Mrs. Mary Gentleman, 2919 Dodge street, and who went to France, accepting a position with the American embassy, is now in Paris, where he has taken station. In going to Europe Mr. Gentleman was a passenger on the steamer Niagara and made the trip without having any thrilling experiences while passing through the zone traversed by the German submarines.
