Corsets--Newest Spring Styles

UNDER ORDINARY CONDITIONS it is rather difficult to order Corsets by mail—but if you will use the chart we show here as a guide and check off and answer the questions below, we feel sure that we can send you a Corset that will prove absolutely satisfactory. You should order your Corset NOW—before you start to buy your Easter outfit.

TAKE THESE MEASUREMENTS

NOTE—Take the measurements with your clothes on.
At points 1 to 2 (see above chart), measure around the waist.
At points 3 to 4 (see chart), measure around the body at the fullest part of your bust.
At points 5 to 6 (see chart.) Take this measurement seated, giving desired height of corset, from waist to the top of corset.
At points 7 to 8 (see chart.) Take this measurement seated, giving height of corset from waist to top of corset under arms.
At points 9 to 10 (see chart.) Measure how many inches below your waist the fullest part of your hip is, then measure around body at fullest part of your hips. Give both measurements.
At points 11 to 12 (see chart.) Measure front waist to desired end of bone in back of corset.
At points 13 to 14 (see chart.) Take this measurement seated, measure from waist down the desired length of bones over the abdomen.

Please also answer the following questions:

Do you need space over the hip bone (you will if hip bone is sharp)
Do you prefer lace front or back lace corset?
Do you require abdominal support?
