Poor of Gotham To Reap Reward From Gambling

New York, March 3.—The poor of the city will reap a large financial benefit from the John Doe inquiry into gambling conditions in this city, District Attorney Swann predicted today. Help for them will come from enforcement of a law which provides that "a person who wins or loses at play or by betting at any time the sum or value of $25 or upwards, within the space of 24 hours, is punishable by a fine not less than five times the value or sum so lost or won."

Mr. Swann announced that a prominent New Yorker who recently lost $10,000 in 30 minutes at Chemin De Fer, had sent him a check for that sum, saying that it would be worth $100,000 to him in papers. Mr. Swann said that he could not accept the check, which alone would cover the cost of the inquiry to date without the consent of the courts.

"German War Practices"

An official book of 96 pages has been issued in Washington under the title of "German War Practices."

A copy of this book will be sent free to any reader of The Bee.

It sets forth the details of the system that has made Prussianism a word of reproach for generations to come.

It describes specific instances, individual cases, as well as broad policies such as that of Belgian deportation.

It is based on official sources: the archives of the State Department, German official proclamations, reports of American officials, as well as the field-diaries of German soldiers.

It contains statements especially prepared by Herbert Hoover, Frederic C. Walcott, and Vernon Kellogg.

To get a copy of this free book, fill in the attached coupon and mail with a two-cent stamp for return postage to The Omaha Bee Information Bureau, Washington, D. C.
