

'YSELLS SAVINGS STAMPS AT HUTS TO U. S. SOLDIERS

Takes Big Part in Inculcating Thrift by Placing These Means at Disposal of Men.

By placing war saving stamps on sale at each of its 68 service huts in the 20 military centers of the central military department the army Young Men's Christian association is actively engaged in the promotion of thrift among the soldiers and in aiding the government in financing its war program, according to an announcement received here. Already it is stated, the 300,000 enlisted men mobilized in the middle west are responding generously to the appeal of the government to make their share of war savings stamps, even though a large majority of them have invested in Liberty bonds and government insurance on which they are still making payments.

Resold to Soldiers.

With the stamp on sale in the 68 service huts of the Young Men's Christian association their accessibility to the soldier and sailor is made easier and more certain. Printed matter telling of the advantages of purchasing stamps, both to himself and his country, is being distributed by the Young Men's Christian association secretaries as well as placed in a conspicuous place in all the green huts which thousands of soldier boys frequent. A special fund has been set aside by the National War Work Council for the purchase of stamps to be sold again to the soldiers. The army Young Men's Christian association will thus act as a repository for war savings stamps and the service will be rendered without charge as a part of the established program of the association to promote thrift among the men of the national army.

"Who Saves Serves."

Camp Grant Young Men's Christian association officials have reported that more than $1,000 worth of war savings stamps were bought by enlisted men within a few days after they were put on sale in the green huts. Camp Sherman secretaries are actively co-operating in the state-wide stamp sale movement. Supplies of the little posters that are to remind soldiers and civilians alike that "Who Saves Serves" are now on sale at Camps Custer, Taylor, Dodge and Funston, besides Great Lakes training station and the various barracks and aviation fields where Young Men's Christian association huts are provided for the unrestricted use of the men in khaki.

The cultivation of thrift among enlisted men is an integral part of the army Young Men's Christian association program in every military training center, says a statement from the National War Work council. For the purpose of inculcating a sense of thrift among the men who are especially in need of it, a set of panels illustrating the advantages of unwise spending have been prepared for circulation in all of the big army camps of the central department. These are exhibited in prominent positions in the Young Men's Christian association huts and compose a part of the plan carried on for thrift in earnings as well as in health and intellect.

Runs Into Big Figures.

A recent compilation covering the entire central military department revealed that money orders to the amount of approximately $250,000 a month were being purchased by men in uniform as their director, was announced today by Secretary Wilson. This fund, it is pointed out, represents either savings or their equivalent in payments to dependents, premiums for insurance, installments on property or Liberty bonds and savings bank deposits.

Captain H. P. Letton Describes Sensations Aboard the Slowly Sinking Transport Tuscania

Son of Supreme Judge, in Letter, Tells Feeling After Torpedo Struck American Ship.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, March 4.—(Special.)—The story of the sinking of the Tuscania by a German submarine is told in a letter written by Captain Harry P. Letton to his father, Judge C. B. Letton, of the Nebraska supreme court, received at the state house yesterday.

Captain Letton was on the Tuscania and escaped, but lost all of his equipment. He writes from Londonderry, Ireland, saying in part: "Have been here now for two days, but will probably leave tomorrow and continue my trip. I am writing this now in the hope that it will be allowed to pass since the news of the sinking has been released in the United States for two days and it will be old by the time you receive this. I hope you received my cablegram which I sent the day I landed.

Finds Flash Light.

"Well, it was an experience that I never want to repeat. I was in my state room where I had gone to shave before dinner. Suddenly I heard a dull thud, felt the boat quiver and heard glass crashing. Then the lights went out. I knew where my flash light was and as soon as I found it, I got my overcoat and life belt and went to my station. I was supposed to get away on the first boat at one station, but men crowded into it so fast from another station that I was left. I then helped some enlisted men to get their raft overboard. They looked pretty precarious to me, so I thought I would wait and see what would turn up.

"The boat was settling away slowly, but not listing much. It was a scene I will never forget as long as I live. After about an hour a destroyer came alongside and I got into "Big Wally" will be tried in District Court March 12.

Calling for Volunteers To Help in Planting Trees

Harrisburg, Pa., March 24.—Arrangements have just been completed for the most extensive re-forestation plan that has ever been attempted in this state, but the war has made such a drain on woodmen that Commissioner of Forestry Conklin is issuing a call for young men to volunteer their services as tree planters. More than 8,000,000 trees have to be set out without delay and while a number of state college students have already enrolled for the work, highway department officials are anxious to obtain many more men.

The plans call for the re-forestation of lands now owned by the state, many of which were cut over years ago and which now will have to be handled scientifically.

"The state nurseries have about 21,000,000 trees and 8,000,000 of these must be put in the ground to prevent serious loss, but owing to the large number of foresters and woodmen who have enlisted, we need men to do the planting," said Commissioner Conklin.

"The planting season will open about April 5 or 10 and will continue until about May 25. The men who do the work will be well cared for in camp, paid good wages, given traveling expenses and will have, in addition, a valuable experience in the woods. The planters also will know they are doing something to help along the state's conservation work. This year we will plant on more degraded hillsides than ever before, if we can obtain the men."

JAPAN TO TAKE DECISIVE STEPS IF RUSSIANS QUIT

Foreign Minister Declares Full Understanding Exists With Entente Allies if Reels Obtain Separate Peace.

(By Associated Press.) London, March 4.—In his speech at Tokio, February 24, in reply to interpellation of representatives, Viscount Motono, the Japanese foreign minister, is reported by Reuter's Tokio correspondent as saying that some discrepancies were to be found in the various reports of the Russo-German peace negotiations. It was therefore difficult at that time, he pointed out, to form a definite idea concerning the actual conclusion of peace by the two countries.

To Act Promptly.

"Should peace be actually concluded," he continued, "it goes without saying that Japan will take steps of the most decided, most adequate character to meet the occasion. The withdrawal of Ambassador Uchida from Petrograd is due to the unsettled and dangerous conditions prevailing there. It does not mean a rupture with Russia.

"Regarding the question of Russia's separate peace, the fullest understanding exists with Great Britain, America and the other allies. The consul-general at Moscow will represent Japan after Ambassador Uchida's withdrawal."

Heavy Artillery Firing Prevalent on U. S. Front

(By Associated Press.) With the American Army in France, March 4.—There has been extraordinary artillery activity along the American sector on the Toul front since yesterday's attack was repulsed.

Two thousand shells of all calibers were counted along the front from noon yesterday until noon today, while many more fell uncounted. Some ten-inch projectiles battered towns behind the American line.

American infantry and engineers, who had been cleaning up the scene of the fight on Friday, found some bodies buried.
