Educator Gives Graphic Account of Atrocities He Witnessed While at Marsavan Boys' College.

Turkish atrocities committed on Armenians, Syrians and Greeks and the terrible conditions in Turkey were described by Dr. George White, president of a boys' college in Marsovan, Turkey, in a talk at the University club Friday noon.

Dr. White, who has passed 26 years in educational work in Turkey, told of eight Armenian members of the college faculty being murdered by the Turks, who took possession of the college and forced him and his family to flee to America in the sum-

"Unspeakable outrages are commonplace in Turkey," said Dr. White. "Religious fanaticism, aggravated by the war, has driven the Turks mad and their insatiable thirst for the blood of Christians is never quenched. At one time there were between 300 and 400 Christian Armenians, Syrians and Greeks slaughtered with axes and buried, many of them still alive, in ditches in the province where I

Eggs, too, are coming down the scale in price. Fesh eggs are listed at 36 and 38 cents in many of the grocery stores today.

Butter has dropped 2 cents in the last few days and the best creamery can now be had at the grocery stores for 50 cents, whereas it has been selling at from 52 to 55 cents.

"Advertise and Watch Omaha Rise" is Winning Slogan

"Advertise and Watch Omaha Rise." This is the new slogan to be used by the bureau of publicity of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce in the campaign to raise $50,000 in Omaha to advertise the Nebraska metropolis throughout the United States.

Insurance Men in Drive for Sale of War Saving Stamps

Fifty life insurance men in Omaha are still hard at work on their canvass for the sale of war stamps. The move-ment is statewide this week, and in-surance men are giving all of their

The committee urges business houses to pursue the open door policy, and allow the salesmen to go through their plants again. It is found that wherever this is done the insurance men are selling large quan-insurance men are selling large quantities of the stamps, even though the places were thoroughly canvassed a few months ago.

The sale of war stamps is to be pushed hard during March, as State Director Ward M. Burgess is especially anxious that Nebraska shall retain its place in the lead of all the states in the sale of these stamps, and the drive is being made with particular energy in Omaha in the hope that Omaha might take first place among the cities of the country in this work.
