FRENCH MINISTER BARES KAISER'S CONQUEST PLAN.

M. STEPHEN PICHON, French Foreign Minister Stephen Pichon has made public documents which prove the German government's determination to force war on France, and also that Berlin demanded the fortresses of Toul and Verdun as a guarantee of French neutrality in the war with Russia.

"We have known only recently the authenticity of these documents," said the foreign minister. On July 31, 1914, von Schen, German ambassador to France, was charged in a telegram from Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg, to notify us of a state of danger of war with Russia, and to ask us to remain neutral. What was unknown to us was that the telegram from the German chancellor contained these instructions:

"If the French government declares it will remain neutral your excellency will be good enough to declare that we must, as a guarantee of its neutrality, require the handing over of the fortresses of Toul and Verdun; that we will occupy them, and will restore them after the end of the war with Russia."

GERMAN SWORD TO BRING PEACE

Kaiser Declares "Complete Victory" Due to Intervention of God in Affairs of Teuton People.

Amsterdam, March 8.—In reply to congratulations from Philip Heineken, director of the North German Lloyd steamship line, Emperor William has sent the following telegram:

"The German sword is our best protection. With God's help it will also bring us peace in the west, and, indeed, the peace which, after much distress and many troubles, the German people need for a happy future."

The emperor detailed his gratitude at greater length in a message to the vice president of the Reichstag, saying:

"The complete victory fills me with gratitude. It permits us to live again one of those great moments in which we can reverently admire God's hand in history. What turn events have taken is by the disposition of God.

Praises Great Generals.

"The heroic deeds of our troops, the successes of our great generals and the wonderful achievements of those at home have their roots in moral forces and in the categorical imperative which has been inculcated in our people in a hard school. They will also carry us through in a decisive and final battle to victory."

"In the great tasks upon which the conclusion of peace, reconstruction and the healing of the wounds of war will set us, I desire my people to rely on the historical experience that unity means strength. May our people face the new time and its tasks with a strong sense of the realities, with unbending faith in itself and its mission, and with strong, patriotic and proud joy in the fatherland bound to me and my house by old and proved bonds of mutual trust.

"I do not doubt that a rich, strong and happy people will arise out of the storms and sacrifices of this time."

"Gypsy" Smith to U. S.

On Friendship Mission

London, March 8.—"Gypsy" Smith, well-known English preacher and evangelist, who made a tour of the United States about 10 years ago, has been asked by the British government to go to the United States on a special mission to help draw England and America closer together. He will go as the representative of the British Young Men's Christian association.

New Nevada Food Head.

Washington, March 8.—H. A. Lemmon of Reno, Nev., today was made food administrator for Nevada, succeeding Henry M. Hoyt, resigned on account of illness. Mr. Lemmon is secretary of the State Council of Defense. He will give his entire time as a volunteer to war work.

SAMMIES ROUT GERMAN PATROL; TAKE CAPTIVES

Americans, Outnumbered Two to One, Turn Teutons in Night Clash in No Man's Land.

With the American Army in France, Wednesday, March 6.—An American patrol of five men three nights ago outfought an enemy patrol of 10 men. They met in No Man's Land and the Americans opened fire. The Germans replied and for three minutes there was a sharp skirmish. The enemy retreated, leaving two dead and two wounded Bavarians, who were made prisoner. The American patrol returned to its own line without having received a scratch.

Stopped in Tracks.

Officers report that despite the fact that the Germans fired many shells to prepare the way for a raid not a single enemy soldier got into position to carry it out, the American automatic rifles, machine guns and rifles stopping the Germans in their tracks.

A half dozen bombs were dropped behind the American front in the sector northwest of Toul last night by German airplanes, which were looking for ammunition dumps. They did not succeed in hitting any of their objectives, however, and none of the bombs dropped caused any casualties.

Groups of German bombing airplanes on the way to cities and towns far behind the lines are passing over the American front almost continually. They are greeted by a hot anti-aircraft gun fire from the American batteries.

ENEMY PREPARES BOX OF TRICKS FOR U. S. FORCES

With the American Army in France, March 8.—The enemy apparently has something he is planning against our troops in the sector northwest of Toul. His camouflage constructions at certain places have suddenly been doubled in height and much work is going on within the enemy line.

Last night an American on patrol who understands German heard this conversation within a German trench: "Come here, Fritz, take this pick and pry what stone loose and then throw that dirt out. Those things over there. We work all night to fix things here and they blow them to hell in the daytime."

The men in the American patrol who made a sudden dash for the American lines from a shell hole near the German trenches where they had been hiding, have explained why they started out in broad daylight on their backward sprint. They had lost their way in the dark in No Man's land and got into the shell hole after wandering for several hours. Finally the men got hungry and all of them decided they would rather take a chance with German bullets than go any longer without food and water.

The sun came out today, drying out the ground and the trenches and the men's damp clothing.

Rain and Colder Weather

On Program for Omaha

A sharp turn to colder weather in the northwest Friday morning foreshadows a drop in temperature in Omaha, says the weather bureau report. Rain is expected to accompany the cold. It was 10 below zero in western Canada Friday morning.

The ice is moving out of the Missouri river in satisfactory manner, Colonel Welsh says. It is broken up now at Omaha and about ready to break as far north as Sioux City.

"The situation is better now than it has been at any time this spring," said Colonel Welsh. "The snow is melting rapidly and the breaking up of the ice in the Missouri river is proceeding in an orderly manner. If it continues thus there will be no serious floods, although a few weeks ago the situation was extremely serious."

Transfers Make February Payroll at Fort Omaha Small

Officers and men composing the garrison at Fort Omaha and students at the balloon school were paid Thursday. Major Maher of the quartermaster's depot was paymaster. The payroll for February was one of the smallest since the entrance of the United States into the war. Recent transfers of a large number of men who have completed training in balloon work is the reason for the small payroll. No new troops have as yet arrived to replace them, but 1,500 men are under orders to report for duty at Fort Omaha and it is expected they will arrive within a week. They will come from San Antonio and Waco, Tex., and Vancouver Barracks, Washington.

No Further Danger of Coal Shortage Here, Dealers Say

Danger of any further coal shortage in Omaha this winter is over, declare Omaha railroad freight traffic officials and coal dealers. Coal arrives in Omaha regularly, with an abundance of all kinds except anthracite. Dealers says efforts are being made to obtain next winter's stocks at the earliest possible dates. This is to be done so Omaha will not be caught short next fall and at a time when there will be the great demand for coal shipping cars.

Unidentified Man Drops Dead in Billiard Parlor

An unidentified man dropped dead at 1 o'clock this afternoon in a pool hall at 1322 Douglas street. He was about 60 years old. Heart disease was the cause of the death.

Von Meyer Near Death.

Boston, March 8.—The condition of George L. Von Meyer, who has been ill at his home here for several weeks with a tumor of the liver, was more serious this morning and physician said there was little hope of his recovery.
