

OMAHA PASTORS TO BOOST FUND FOR ARMENIANS

Preachers Will Lend Aid to Drive for $45,000 in Sunday Sermons; City-Wide Campaign.

Every minister in Omaha has been invited to speak Sunday on Armenian and Syrian relief as an aid to the campaign for $45,000 for that fund, which will be waged in Omaha next week. While practically every minister will mention the need of such assistance, a number are giving entire sermons to the subject.

Some of them are:

Rev. E. H. Jenks of First Presbyterian.

Rev. G. A. Hulbert of Central Congregational, "I, as Much as Ye Have Done it Unto the Least of These. Ye Have Done it to Me."

Rabbi Frederick Cohn, Temple Israel, "Russia, Armenia and Palestine."

Dean Tancock of Trinity cathedral.

Rev. E. A. Jackson, First United Evangelical, "The Good Samaritan."

Rev. A. F. Ernst, Lowe Avenue Presbyterian, "The Church for the Times."

Rev. R. E. Waitt, Oak Street Methodist, "Starvation or Christ?"

H. G. Langley, Trinity Methodist, "The Man Jesus Loved."

Rev. E. L. Reese, Harford Memorial, "Might and Right."

Rev. Denton E. Cleveland, Central Park Congregational, "The Retaking of Babylon—Shall it Be Captivity or Freedom?"

Rev. J. H. Williams, Grace United Evangelical, "My Responsibility in Present World Conditions."

Rev. Charles F. Holler, Trinity Baptist, South Side, "Who is My Brother?"

Rev. Titus Lang, First Lutheran, "Help the Helpless."

The committee preparing for the drive in Omaha next week to raise $45,000 for Armenian and Syrian relief, announces Dr. Harold E. Gifford has again subscribed $1,000, and a large number of other subscriptions of $1,000 or more are expected. Dr. Gifford, who has already given $2,000, said: "The condition of these people should appeal to every American with a surplus dollar." His purpose in contributing, he says, is to encourage others as well as to aid in the cause.

Church Society to Present Service Flag With 18 Stars

A service flag with 18 stars will be presented to Parkvale Presbyterian church Sunday morning by the Church Helpers, a Sunday school class made up of the young married people of the congregation. E. S. Burdick, teacher of the class, will make the presentation speech. Leo Quinn, president of the class, will unveil the flag.

An honor roll will also be presented by the Ladies' Auxiliary through the president, Mrs. George E. Ticknor. M. C. Wilbur, who has two sons in the service, will make the address of acceptance in behalf of the congregation. A letter from First Lieutenant Robert Wilbur, one of the minor men of the church, will be read. Following is the honor roll:

Leroy Wilbur	Raymond Merrill
Robert Wilbur	Donald McNeill
Donald Wilbur	Iris McNeill
William Pettit	William H. Pepper
Herbert Pettit	Frank E. Pepper
Harold J. Riley	Charles Leonard
Jack Barry	Robert Sharpe
Paul T. Smith	Robert H. Toler
John Munro	E. A. Olsen

Don E. De Bow Sues the World-Herald for $50,000

Attorneys for Don E. DeBow have filed suit for $50,000 against the World Publishing company, publishers of the World-Herald, for alleged libel. The first count cites a story printed under a Grand Island date line August 24, 1917, which, it is alleged, libeled DeBow. The printed story, DeBow's petition states, said DeBow was arrested, whereas he says he was not. Twenty-five thousand dollars is sought on this count.

The other count asks $25,000 damages for an editorial published in the World-Herald August 25, 1917. This editorial, DeBow's petition states, had a heading, "Pandering to Swindlers." DeBow was connected with the Farmers' Oil and Gas company.

Boy Scouts' Benefit Circus Makes Hit at Auditorium

The "Jingling Bros." circus went big at the Auditorium Friday night. Every number was a head-liner, with underscoring for the "Rube" wrestling match act. Maneuvers by the Boy Scouts were both interesting and instructive, and gave evidence of careful, useful training.

Members of the Rotary club, under whose auspices the show was staged, appeared in full evening attire, lending an atmosphere of smartness, which harmonized thoroughly with the military appearance of the Boy Scouts.

The show was a winner from every view point, reflecting ability of management and deflecting dollars into the Boy Scout fund.

Man Arrested on Warrant Charging Motor Car Theft

Izzie First was arrested by police on a charge of grand larceny by detectives on a warrant sworn out by Friedman Yudelson of Sioux City. It is alleged he stole an automobile from Yudelson on the night of February 26.

Hazel Bell Peck Granted Divorce From Soldier-Artist

Hazel Bell Peck has been granted a divorce from Frederick L. Peck, formerly a commercial artist of this city, and now at Camp Funston. Nonsupport was alleged. The couple were married in Council Bluffs August 3, 1913.

ACCUSED OMAHA LAWYER CLEARED OF DISLOYALTY

John W. Graham, Arrested on Complaint of Thrift Stamp Salesman, Released After Federal Hearing.

John W. Graham, Omaha attorney, was discharged Saturday morning by United States Commissioner Neely after a hearing on a charge of violating the espionage act.

He was arrested Friday after E. Wolverton had informed the United States attorney of alleged statements made to him by Graham. Wolverton, a life insurance agent, alleged that when he called on Graham to sell him war savings stamps, Graham made severe strictures on the conduct of the war.

A large representation of Omaha attorneys attended the hearing. Wolverton testified Graham said to him that the food and fuel administration are fakes; that the people were bled to death on the first Liberty loan and that the cantonments were located in swamps through graft by President Wilson and Secretary of War Baker; that Secretary Baker lied when he said there are 100,000 American soldiers in Europe, because half the force is engineers and laborers; that he praised Senator La Follette; that there is no government except President Wilson and Secretary Baker.

Wolverton said he finally called Graham a pro-German and the Kaiser's agent and told him he would report him to the federal officials. He said Graham went to O. H. Menold, agency director of the New York Life insurance company, and asked him to intervene.

Menold testified Graham gave him the impression that he believed President Wilson and Secretary Baker were profiting personally by war activities and that Roosevelt criticized the conduct of the war and any other American citizen has the right to do the same.

Graham denied he made the statements except that he had said there was grafting and incompetence and red tape all along the line and he wanted to see the government put on an efficiency basis in conducting the war. He said his statements were misconstrued.

Commissioner Neely released Graham on the ground that he had no intention to obstruct the government. "We all are entitled to criticize to a certain extent," he said.

Assistant United States Attorney Saxton says the case may be presented to the federal grand jury.

OFFICERS FIND LIQUOR IN HOME OF M. BRUNSKY

More than 200 gallons of fine wines, whiskeys and alcohol, and 200 quarts of beer were unearthed yesterday in the basement of the home of M. Brunsky, Thirteenth and Boulevard, just over the Sarpy county line, when State Agents Buell and Mathwig conducted an investigation of the place on a search warrant sworn out before County Judge Wheat of Sarpy county.

The whole amount of intoxicating liquors is valued at nearly $5,000. Officers say they have evidence that Brunsky had in his possession, when the state was voted dry, a stock of liquor valued at more than $50,000.

Brunsky was arrested and booked on a charge of illegal possession of intoxicating liquor. He was released under bond for his appearance this afternoon before Judge Wheat.

The confiscated liquor will be introduced as evidence in the case. Brunsky told the state agents that the liquor was stored in his home for his own private use. Nevertheless, officers say he is charged with violating the prohibitory laws of the state by keeping on hand more liquor than the quantity provided for.

Police Arrest Women, But Fail to Hold Mer in Raid

Nine women were arrested last night by officers of the morals squad and given immediate examination by police surgeons.

Police failed to place under arrest for examination any man habitue of ill governed houses.

Sergeant Murphy and the morals squad raided the Aberdeen hotel again and arrested A. Zwieback, proprietor, and two other inmates.

They were released on bonds.

Police Are Looking for Thief Who Stole Clothes

The watchful glimmers of the police and sleuths are on the lookout for some medium sized individual decked out in a new suit of dark clothes, a pair of bright tan shoes and a striped shirt.

Police think such an odd appearing person may have stolen a suitcase containing such articles of clothing, besides shaving outfit, from the automobile of Joseph Christenson of Minn. Neb., which was left standing at Ninth and Farnam streets yesterday.

Food Administrator Will Not Make Visit to Omaha

Herbert Hoover, food administrator of the United States, will not visit Omaha.

W. B. Tagg, president of the Omaha Live Stock Exchange Saturday received a telegram from Lewis Strass, Hoover's secretary, saying that the food administrator, owing to the pressure of his work, will be unable to make a visit to the middle west.

Postal Telegraph Employee Cleared of Forgery Charge

A. T. Morin, former employee of the Postal Telegraph company, was excused yesterday in police court of a charge of forgery, the telegraph company being complainant.

Morin offered a perfect alibi in court, attested to by fellow employees of the company.

"Innocent Bootlegger" is Sentenced to Sixty Days

Mike Henzyen, whom police call "the innocent bootlegger," was sentenced to 60 days in jail by Judge Madden in South Side police court Saturday morning for illegal sale of liquor.

George Mills, negro, 2712 M street, testified that he bought a quart of whiskey from Henzyen and paid $3.50 for it. Henzyen, who has been convicted of three bootlegging charges, stared at Mills and blandly told the court "this is the first time I ever laid eyes on that nigger."

Mrs. Henzyen, who served some time in jail on an illegal possession charge, appeared in court with her husband.

The Henzyens were formerly proprietors of the Roosevelt hotel, but moved to 2607 J street when officials declared that the hotel was filthy and unfit as a home for children.

Marriage of Hattie Ellen Bax to George E. Bax is Annulled

Hattie Ellen Bax, 17 years old, whose guardian, Hattie E. Winscot, brought suit for her to annul her marriage to George E. Bax, was granted the annulment in district court Saturday and her maiden name of Hattie Ellen Schaffer restored.

Miss Schaffer was married to Bax July 5, 1916, at Lincoln, when she was but 15 years old, according to her guardian's petition. The marriage was solemnized without her guardian's consent or permission, she alleges. Both of the girl's parents are dead and Hattie Winscot had been appointed guardian by the district court. Bax was 26 years old when the marriage took place, she avers.

Lone Bandits Gets Watch From Holdup Victim

A lone bandit held up R. W. Auguston, 2309 South Twenty-fourth street, at Twentieth and Martha streets, late Friday night, pressed a gun against his victim and took a solid gold watch. Auguston was on his way home at the time of the holdup.

Food Commission Issues New Fair-Price Schedule

The maximum price that may be charged for creamery butter beginning Saturday in Omaha is 50 cents per pound for No. 1 grade, according to a new schedule of fair prices issued by the food administration.

Select eggs are marked at 38 cents per dozen retail, while No. 2 eggs are quoted at 35 cents.

Police Find Booze in Abandoned Automobile

An abandoned automobile containing 24 dozen quarts of whiskey was found by Officers Creal and M. E. Anderson of the morals squad Friday afternoon in East Omaha.
