

Nebraska DEMOCRATS IN TANGLE ABOUT SENATORSHIP Large Crop of Candidates in Field and More in Sight Just Over Horizon; Scrap Likely.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, March 10.—(Special.)—That the recent republican state committee at its meeting last Tuesday made an "awful" mistake in not following the wishes of Nebraska democrats in calling a convention to recommend a candidate for the republican nomination for the United States, is evidenced by repeated attacks upon the action of the committee by local democrats and the local democratic organ.

For many weeks republicans had been advised by the democratic organ and by letters from the outside published in the paper that neither of the republican candidates already in the field would do and that another man must be put in order to win the election. They are deeply disappointed because the committee did not get into a fight, but calmly discussed the situation and finally decided not to follow the instructions of democratic politicians.

A Matter of Orders. According to one of the committeemen at the meeting, the democrats cannot understand why the republicans will not take orders. He said that the democrats are so used to taking orders from the Mullen-Hitchcock boss that they are at a loss to know why republicans get along so well without. He was of the opinion that they were trying to camouflage their own critical condition in the senatorial fight by endeavoring to create a similar condition in the republican senatorial situation. That the democrats will face the hardest situation they have ever dealt with in Nebraska, when the time comes to select a democratic candidate for the United States senate is becoming more apparent every day.

Breach Unhealed. First of all the breach between the Hitchcock faction under the leadership of Arthur Mullen and that of the Bryan faction under the guardianship of Brother Charlie Bryan has not healed in any degree, notwithstanding repeated efforts of the Mullen-Hitchcock-Cory triumvirate to bring about some sort of a compromise. In fact the situation is becoming such that nothing short of a special intervention of providence can keep the old democratic ship from being tossed in the most turbulent waters it has ever sailed.

Lieutenant-Governor Howard will be a candidate. Although he has not yet filed, he will do so in good time. He will receive the backing of the Bryan forces. Attorney-General Reed has filed and is safely in the political pond. Mr. Reed expects to draw his strength from the people irrespective of fractional alignment, who believe his record as attorney-general entitles him to consideration. Should former Governor Morehead enter the race, and he probably will, he will have a strong following from the rank and file of the party. So far he has the opposition of the Mullen-Hitchcock-Cory triumvirate, whom it is claimed have double-crossed the Falls City statesman and are looking around for some man who can win against Reed and Howard, and also Morehead if he enters the race.

Neville in Reserve. Just now it is the opinion of those who are watching the situation that the Omaha triumvirate is planning to wait until the last moment and then rush Governor Neville into the political trenches as a candidate for the senate in hope that in the excitement of the battle he will be able to go "over the top" and win hands down. But trouble looms for them once more. It is now generally understood that William B. Price, whose home is in Lincoln, but who is in Omaha most of the time, is seriously considering entering the race for the democratic nomination for senator. This will complicate the situation, in that Price is neither a Bryan nor a Hitchcock man. He went to the St. Louis national democratic convention and earned much glory and a front page picture by opposing Mr. Bryan and posing as the man who defeated him for delegate to the convention. He is a sort of free lance and may cut into the strength of all of the other candidates to a greater or less degree. Price is well acquainted over the state, having run for office before, and politicians here in Lincoln look upon his entry into the race as missing up the old democratic pond to such a degree, that there is no knowing what the outcome will be.

Six-Inch Separation Rule In Force for Co-Ed Dancers (From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, March 10.—(Special.)—University social clubs put in effect Mayor Miller's new dance order for the first time last night and under the eye of a chaperone the young people danced with the six-inch separation rule in effect. News Notes of Table Rock. Table Rock, Neb., March 10.—(Special.)—A three-act comedy entitled "All A Mistake," and a basket social were given at the Bunker Hill school house last night. Receipts amounted to $59, which were donated to the Red Cross.

State Receives Request for Men To Work in Halsey Forest Reserve

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, March 10.—(Special.)—The state employment office at the capitol has received a call for 40 or 50 men and boys for work in the government forest reserve at Halsey. The government employs a large number of men there each spring in their planting and nursery operations. Transportation for workers is furnished. The office is receiving a number of requests for married men for farm work and is filling these places each day, but still have a number of applications for farm work by married men who wish to get back to the farm. Farmers throughout the state are urged to make use of this arm of the state government. The office has already furnished a large number of farm hands to farmers throughout the state this spring. Farmers realizing that there may be a shortage of help later in the season are making their wants known early so as not to be disappointed and are taking out men before really needed so as to have them when spring work opens.

State Director Norman of the public service reserve states that enrollment in the reserve throughout the state has been very satisfactory. He has just received a request from Washington for the records of a number of qualified railway operating men to be attached to the 46th and 56th engineers for overseas duty at once. Railway section and trackmen are especially needed. Men over 31 may enlist and those of draft age inducted into the service up to the moment they receive orders to go to a camp. Occasionally there is an application for a position on a farm to operate a tractor. Such applications are usually referred to the county agricultural agents in those counties where tractors are being used extensively.

BOOST FOR POTASH HIGHWAY IN WEST

Road From Grand Island to Alliance Promises to Come Into Prominence This Summer.

Alliance, Neb., March 10.—(Special.)—The Potash highway and automobile road, extending from Grand Island to Alliance promises to be in good shape for travel by June if the interest shown by boosters in the various counties along the route continues as it has started.

At a meeting at Theford, March 5, boosters from Halsey, Purdum and Theford to the number of 40 met with the county commissioners of Thomas county and perfected an organization with John Turner of Theford, president; Thomas McCauley, Seneca, vice president; M. J. Cox, Seneca, secretary, and P. F. Lewellen, treasurer. Secretary W. D. Fisher of the Potash highway attended the meeting. Action in Thomas county will be taken at once, the route will be marked and funds raised for the grading and upkeep of the highway through that county. Farmers and ranchmen of Thomas county are particularly interested in the development of the highway.

Grant county boosters organization at Hyannis with A. C. Sibbert of Hyannis, president; S. G. Wright, of Whitman, vice president; L. E. Baycock-Cory triumvirate to bring about some sort of a compromise. In fact the situation is becoming such that nothing short of a special intervention of providence can keep the old democratic ship from being tossed in the most turbulent waters it has ever sailed.

At a meeting in Mullen, C. M. Barebay was elected president of the Hooker county organization; A. G. Humphrey, vice president; C. C. Campbell, secretary, and W. H. Scott, treasurer. A report today from Hooker says the work started on bad spots.

Sheridan county, with W. G. Wilson, Antioch, president; M. P. Kincaid, Bingham, vice president; C. M. Empson, Lakeside, secretary, and A. Moore, Ellsworth, treasurer, has already done much work on the road constituting the highway through that county, but complaint is made that the commissioners are not spending sufficient money to keep the road in repair.

A good roads fair will be held in Alliance April 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, the proceeds to be used toward the betterment of all roads, including the Potash highway entering Alliance.

Military Funeral Given For Young Walter Brahm

Wisner, Neb., March 10.—(Special.)—Military funeral services were conducted for Walter Brahm, who died at the base hospital, Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga., Monday, February 25. The body arrived here Saturday, accompanied by his mother, wife and brother, Paul, who had been with him a few days before his death. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lemke. Rev. J. M. Leidy of Fort Omaha preached the sermon. A firing squad from Fort Crook was in attendance. The pallbearers were Wisner men in uniform of the Nebraska National guards. J. C. Hoff, George Fiehn, Vern Salisbury, Ora Worrell, E. R. Herman and Charles McGaughey, Finnicum post, Grand Army of the Republic, were represented, bearing the post colors. It was the largest gathering ever at a funeral in Wisner. Brahm volunteered in the Eighth Field artillery.

BOARD WILL HOLD STOCKHOLDERS OF FAILED BANKS

Attorney General Reed Asked to Bring Suit to Reimburse Money Taken From Guaranty Fund.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, March 10.—(Special.)—The State Banking board has asked Attorney General Reed to begin suit against all stock holders of the First State Savings bank at Superior and the Farmers' State bank at Decatur, to compel them as individuals to reimburse the state guaranty fund for money taken from it to pay depositors in these banks at the time they failed. Assets of the Superior bank did not return more than 30 per cent of what can be expected from the assets of the Decatur institution. Under the law a stockholder may be assessed for twice the amount of the face value of his shares. The state will ask the receiver of the Decatur bank to turn over what money is in his hands with the exception of a sum sufficient to pay judgment, which may be levied on litigations now in court. D. D. Whitcomb, receiver, has $43,338 on hand and the banking board is of the opinion that at least $25,000 of this could be turned over without jeopardizing legitimate claims of litigants.

Frank Iams, whose claim for $12,000 against the Decatur bank was rejected by the supreme court, has intervened in the receivership proceedings and is attempting in that way to get his money. He had that amount on deposit at the time of the failure, but because the bank was paying him 6 per cent, which was 1 per cent more than the guaranty law allows, the court held this constituted a loan and not a deposit and could not be paid out of the guaranty fund, and that Iams must take his chances with creditors. In the case of the Superior bank the district court of Nuckolls county will be asked to order Receiver C. W. Harvey to sell what assets remaining, close up the bank's affairs and pay the entire proceeds to the state board so the money may be divided among the banks which contributed to the guaranty fund assessment. His last report shows $13,000 on hand. At the time of the assessment $54,000 was taken from the fund while at Decatur the sum was $79,000.

South Siders Want Far Side Stop at Intersection. South Siders desire northbound street cars to stop on the far side of the street at Twenty-fourth and N streets and are planning on taking up the matter with the street railway company. The point is a terminal for Fort Crook and Bellevue cars, and at times the traffic is congested and South Sider citizens contend that, at that place the far side stop for northbound cars would lessen the danger involved by the heavy traffic.

It was at Twenty-fourth and N streets that Miss Meta Schack of Council Bluffs was struck by a heavy truck Saturday afternoon and sustained serious injuries.

Handwriting Causes Delay of U. S. Checks

Washington, March 10.—Poor handwriting of men in military or naval service is largely responsible for a two weeks' delay in the distribution of government checks for February pay allotment and family allowances to dependents. The last checks for families of sailors and members of the marine corps and coast guard went into the mails today, but checks for the army will not be started until Monday and it will take two weeks to complete the task.

Coughs Waste Energy

Careful physicians always point out that every cough wears human strength and tears down the body's resistive powers. The reason SCOTT'S EMULSION is always best for coughs is that it peculiarly soothes the tender membranes while its rich, creamy food rebuilds the tissues to avert bronchitis and lung trouble. No alcohol—just food.

WAR TEACHER OF SACRIFICE, SAYS REV. S. DE FREESE

Lutheran Preacher Declares World Conflict Answers Words of Cain: "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

"Am I my brother's keeper?" was the text of Rev. S. de Freese's sermon yesterday morning at St. Mark's English Lutheran church. "These were the words of Cain," he said, "Cain was a murderer for he had killed his brother, Abel. And in uttering these words he proved himself also a hypocrite and a liar. Moreover, they were impetuous words uttered by the almighty God. God had asked Cain where his brother, Abel, was. And Cain had the unparalleled audacity to answer God with impertinence as well as with a lie. His answer implies that God's question was unjust and unfair and his answer was made in a poor attempt to cover up his own crime and to shirk the responsibility. All down through the ages this question has rung: 'Am I my brother's keeper?' Why should I look out for the welfare of anyone but myself and those nearest to me? Duty of Mankind. The only way the true Christian answers this question is in the affirmative. I am my brother's keeper. You are your brother's keeper. If you see him straying from the path of right and rectitude it is your duty to set him right. When he is in trouble it is your duty to comfort and help him. The great sacrifice by almighty God of His only Son is an example of what He expects of us. Christ, in his parable of the good Samaritan, illustrates the virtue of doing good to others.

"Today, more than ever before, we are acting as our brothers' keepers. The world is forgetting itself in doing good to others. We have given great sums, not only for the welfare of our 'brothers' who are soldiers, but also we have given millions aid are giving millions to alleviate the sufferings of our 'brothers' whom we never have seen and never will see, such as the Armenians and Syrians, the Belgians, Serbians, Jews and others.

Be Want Ads Bring Results. REV. A. H. SYKES NOW TALKS ABOUT HIS WIFE'S TROUBLES

Minister Thinks It His Duty to Make Statement About Wonderful Change.

It is seldom, indeed, that men of prominence, especially ministers of the gospel, willingly express their indebtedness publicly to a proprietary medicine. However, when a medicine obtains that singular purity and efficiency that is shown by the uniform preparation, Tanlac, statements from our best citizens are to be considered thoroughly commensurate with the good that is actually being accomplished.

Rev. A. H. Sykes, pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tenn., prominent not only as a minister of the gospel, but popular as a man and citizen who has been true to his friends and every trust ever reposed in him, said recently: "For the last ten months, Mrs. Sykes has been in very delicate health, suffering from bad stomach and kidney troubles, which gradually developed into a general nervous breakdown. At times her condition became alarming, and I frequently sought medical advice, but nothing we could do for her seemed to bring relief."

"In fact, she suffered so long and so much that I feel it my duty to let everyone know what this medicine has done for her. For several months her condition was such that she had to remain in bed, and as a last resort I decided to let her try Tanlac."

"I am a conservative man and have always been skeptical regarding the use of proprietary medicines, but this case has certainly proven an exception. I am now firmly convinced that Tanlac is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything to give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes had taken only two-thirds of a bottle of this medicine when we began to notice a marked improvement in her condition. In less than a week from the time she began taking it she was able to sit up and is today able to help with the household duties. Before she began taking Tanlac she had fearful pain in her side, and suffered constantly from sour stomach and indigestion and was intensely nervous. These distressing symptoms, I am thankful to say, have entirely disappeared, her appetite has returned and she seems to relish everything she eats. She sleeps better and is gaining strength and flesh rapidly. I think it only a question of a short time until her health is fully restored."

"Tanlac has certainly proven a remarkable remedy in her case and will do all you claim for it. I cheerfully recommend it to my friends."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by Sherman & McConnell Drug company, corner Sixteenth and Dodge streets; Owl Drug company, Sixteenth and Farnam streets; Harvard Pharmacy, Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets; northeast corner Nineteenth and Farnam, and West End Pharmacy, Forty-ninth and Dodge streets.—Advertisement

BUTTONS PREVAIL ON SPRING SUITS

Jersey Silks, in Military Colors, Will Be Featured at House of Menagh Style Show.

Button, button, who's got the button? They are everywhere on the new spring suits and dresses. Rows and rows of tiny ones are seen on the sleeves, the skirts and even up the middle of the back of the new gowns. Fifteen Omaha women will act as manikins at the style show to be given Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Empress theater by the House of Menagh. Clothes for every type of femininity will be displayed. The jersey silks are to be featured according to David Menagh. They come mainly in the military colors, taupe, sand and gray and button close up to the neck with tiny silver buttons. Skirts will be much longer and for the most part narrow. Jackets are short and flaring, there is even the suggestion of the cion and the bolero of a few years ago. One especially smart suit will be shown. Gray is the color, the jacket made short and full and braided in blue. The skirt is a long straight model, with tiny pockets embroidered in the same shade. Another suit in sand color has the cape effect on the back of the jacket. Evening dresses will not be shown to any great extent this year at the Menagh style show. A number of capes will be displayed, however, that can be worn for afternoon wear. One is especially attractive and a stunning cape of American Beauty velvet with seal collar and cuffs will be one of the most attractive wraps displayed.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

$50,000 TO ADVERTISE OMAHA

“Advertise and Watch Omaha Rise”

Omaha, her advantages, her resources and her great possibilities should be advertised to the nation. The Bureau of Publicity of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce is now engaged in a drive for $50,000 with which to conduct an advertising campaign that will result in a Greater Omaha.

Advertising will be inserted in publications of national circulation, particularly in journals circulating among executives. The main objects of the campaign will be: (1) To acquaint business men of the East with the great resources of Nebraska and surrounding states in Omaha's trade territory; (2) To show that these resources are capable of untold development; (3) To explain what industries Omaha needs and will support, and (4) To point out the financial benefit eastern firms will derive from establishing factories, branch factories, warehouses and offices in Omaha.

This is an advertising age. Omaha should not take a back seat in selling herself as a location for great future development. After the war is over there will be a marvelous period of reconstruction. If Omaha wants her share of prosperity, she must begin working her prospects now.

Every public-spirited citizen will want to take a part in this constructive work.
