DRIVE TO RAISE FUND FOR RELIEF TO START TODAY

Business Men to Conduct Campaign for $45,000 for Armenians and Syrians . This Week.

Beginning with appeals from every pulpit in Omaha yesterday morning, Omaha started out to raise this week the $45,000 remaining of its quota of $60,000 for Armenian and Syrian relief. Last fall this campaign was conducted through the churches, $15,000 being subscribed. This week the drive will be led by a body of busi-

The city had been divided into districts and the business concerns have been card indexed, ready for a systematic campaign by a body of chosen workers.

Meeting of Workers.

At noon today there will be a meeting at the Commercial club of the workers. The committee, on the eve of the campaign, issued these bits of information regarding the campaign: Hundreds of thousands of emaciated people, mostly babies and children, are dving of starvation.

intellectual, Christian people, who have suffered at the hands of Turkish fanatics.

They are not heathen, but thrifty,

They will not be aided unless it is by America. The money is handled through the Swedish consul directly to missionaries and other experienced workers actually on the field. The Red Cross, unable to do the work, because of the pressure of duties more directly in its line, gives $300,000 monthly to the fund.

Turkey, for some reason, does not stand in the way of help reaching the sufferers. It requires $60 a year, $5 a month, or 17 cents a day to save a life. One or more of the sufferers has died while you have been reading this, The work is not one that appeals to small charity, but to the generous heart of every person, wealthy or poor, who will subscribe and in doing so, know he is playing the part of Good Samaritan.
