WATTLES ON WAY HOME AFTER CONFAB

Omaha Stockman Witness Before Senate Committee; Basinger Called to Capital by Fort.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, March 14.—(Special Telegram.)—G. W. Wattles, food administrator for Nebraska, left this evening for Omaha. He was a guest of Senator Hitchcock at luncheon today, in the senate restaurant. Mr. Wattles said that as a result of his conference with his associates, he was more than ever impressed with the seriousness of the wheat situation. He believed bakers should still further reduce the wheat contents in bread, because there had to be still greater self denial if we are to feed ourselves as well as the allies.

Burke Is Witness.
John Burke, a well known live stock man of Omaha, was a witness today before the senate committee on agriculture outlining conditions live stock men were laboring under at the present time, as to the high cost of feed and unsatisfactory market prices for cattle.

W. S. Basinger, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, with headquarters at Omaha, has been called to Washington by Gerrit Fort, assistant director of transportation, to aid in opening the first union ticket office under government supervision in this city, on or about May 10. Basinger has been a busy man since his arrival yesterday working out minor difficulties between the roads, but he hopes to have the office running at the time indicated.

He will remain in the capital as a member of Mr. Fort's staff during the period of the war.
