WIFE COMPLAINS AND ACKERMANN LODGED IN JAIL

Speaks Disparagingly of United States and Lauds the Kaiser and Then Is Arrested by Police.

Ed Ackermann, a German, living at 5030 South Twenty-fifth street, was arrested and lodged in the police station Sunday on complaint of his wife, who told the officers he had spoken disparagingly of America and American soldiers, had lauded Germany and the kaiser, and taunted her because she is an American. He said he hoped "every d---one of the American soldiers would be killed," and that "he would like to help do it," his wife declared.

Ackermann, according to his wife's statement, has repeatedly made sneering remarks about the United States and its army, and lately has grown abusive because she refused to agree with his pro-German views.

Funeral Services for Capen Are Held Sunday Afternoon

Funeral services for Bernard W. Capen, who died in Omaha Friday, were held Sunday afternoon at the Unitarian church. Robert F. Leavens, who had been Mr. Capen's pastor, conducted the services. Burial was Forest Lawn. The services were simple in accordance with the wish of the deceased, only those who had been closely associated with Mr. Capen in business, personally and in the church being present.

Mr. Capen had for several years been assistant to A. F. Rogers, chief engineer of the Bell Telephone company, and had charge of the building equipment of that company for five states. He was a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and was a statistician. He rendered large services for the government last summer in a survey of electrical equipment which was made at that time. He was active in the development of the University club, and the building of the new Unitarian church. His family was one of the oldest in Massachusetts, having come there from England in 1630. Mr. Capen came to Omaha from Maine where he had been with the Bell Telephone company since his graduation.

CHANCE FOR WOMEN TO REFORM WORLD

Rev. Fred Clark Points Out the Ideals That Are Within the Reach of the Females of This Generation.

Rev. Fred Clark, at the First Congregational church Sunday morning, warned against the commercializing of women's gifts and powers at the expense of her womanliness.

"The ideals of mankind are poured into the race through, and by its women," said the speaker. "Today our women are going out and working side by side with the men. Herein lies the danger to be avoided. God pity us if we grind down our women by paying them unfair wages, or by putting them where their idealism will be smothered.

"There are three ideals that must be preserved—the ideals of womanhood, of usefulness and of the heart. Will Transform World.

"If women will carry their ideals into business, politics and all their new fields of endeavor, they will transform this old, bored, stale world in a startling manner. They must preserve these ideals. We cannot, in justice to coming generations, allow these sacred things to become dulled.

"I believe that the ideal of usefulness is higher today than it was a year ago. Yet today there are more useless women in the homes of the well-to-do than any here else. They gossip, waste time, spend money and use up the energies of society. They yield no service, thought, character or the fruits of womanhood.

Woman an Eternal Marvel.

"The ideal of the heart must be preserved. In the outpouring of her love and self-sacrifice, woman stands towering above man so high that he cannot comprehend her. She is an eternal marvel to him, a wonderful mystery before which he stands like a child. And this ideal is best developed in the home, the home where woman is wife and mother.

OMAHA NEARS GOAL ON SALE OF WAR STAMPS

An official report of the national war savings committee, to state director of war savings, Ward M. Burgess, shows official compilation up to and including March 8. From this compilation, it appears that the sales of war savings stamps in three days preceding March 8, were $2,295,000, $2,970,000 and $3,049,000, respectively.

The war savings sales of the country are now producing upwards of $3,000,000 per day, which provides the treasury with about one-tenth of the entire amount now expended by the nation. While $3,000,000 is only 3 cents per day for every woman and child of the country, the entire cost of the war is only 30 cents per capita per day, says Mr. Burgess.

The sale of war savings stamps will finance the government's entire shipping program. The current receipts from their sale will already average the cost of building 12,000 tons of shipping per day.

Mr. Burgess says that Nebraska should be proud of the part it is taking in the matter of war finance and that all Nebraskans should lend a ready hand to pushing the sale of war savings stamps, because of the interest aroused by the sales in Nebraska and other states.

The war savings campaign conducted by the Omaha life insurance men with 15, two-men teams working, has resulted in an average of 80 applications for war savings stamps by the solicitors. The total subscriptions reported Saturday morning was about $125,000. Several of the insurance men are still working and they believe the subscriptions obtained by the life insurance men will reach $150,000 before the state-wide drive ends.
