

GREAT PARADE TO BOOST NEXT LOAN TO BE HELD APRIL 6

If Day Is Favorable Committee Expects to Have Hundred Thousand People Out for Patriotic Demonstration.

April 6, first anniversary of America's entrance into the world war, is the date set for the mammoth "Patriotic flag parade" here, which will inaugurate the third Liberty loan drive. The parade is to be strictly cosmopolitan, with bankers, bootblacks, landlords, laborers and merchants in line.

Bands from Fort Crook, Fort Omaha and Camp Dodge, augmented by several Omaha bands, will furnish music. All military organizations, lodges, orders and societies of Omaha will be in line with uniforms.

Governor to Review. In front of The Bee building a reviewing stand will be erected, from which Governor Neville will review the parade.

Replicas of the famous British "tanks," designed and constructed under the personal supervision of Gus Renze, will add a touch of realism, emphasizing the real purpose of the parade.

Thomas C. Byrne, chairman of the Liberty loan drive, has appointed a committee of arrangements, which will meet Wednesday night, composed of the following: Everett Buckingham, chairman; Charles E. Black, vice chairman; Gould Dietz, John W. Gamble, Howard Goulding, Joseph Kelley, T. P. Reynolds and W. B. Check.

Women to Participate. Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, head of the woman's organization for the Liberty loan for Nebraska, will have charge of a committee of women. These committees will work out all the details and appoint subcommittees of several hundred to see that everything is carried out according to program.

"It is the aim of those in charge to have at least 40,000 men and women in the parade regardless of the weather," said a member of the committee Monday night, "and if April 6 is a nice, warm day, we fully expect to see 100,000 people in line."

AMERICA MUST SHARE WITH WAR STRICKEN FRANCE

That it is not simply a matter of giving up old clothes, no longer wanted, but the dividing of our clothes with the war stricken people of Belgium and northern France was explained by Mrs. C. T. Kountze to Woman's club members at the Metropolitan club Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Kountze spoke in behalf of the Red Cross drive for clothing. She also announced that today while there are 4,200 women working for the Red Cross in Nebraska, that 10,000 women are needed.

Major John G. Maher gave a patriotic address, urging the women to make increased sacrifices to gain victory.

The club voted to support the project of the National Federation of Women's Clubs in co-operation with the War Victory commission in building 12 lullough houses for recreation and dispensaries for the American soldiers in France. Each member will give $1.

Delegates were elected to the district convention to be held at Ralston April 19. They are Mesdames E. S. Jewell, C. A. Sherwood, F. D. Odell, Ben Baker, William Berry, Mary I. Creigh, F. J. Burnett, John Mullin, Joseph Lawrence. Alternates Mesdames George Munger, H. J. Bailey, O. A. Nickum, O. Y. Kring.

STATE EVANGELIST HOLDING SERVICES

Rev. B. M. Long Begins Two Weeks' Series of Meetings at Wheeler Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Dr. B. M. Long, state evangelist for Nebraska, and Prof. W. O. Grindle, musical director, who is a graduate in music of the Moody institute, Chicago, began a two weeks' series of meetings at the Wheeler Presbyterian church, Twenty-third and J streets, Monday night. Professor Grindle has added to the church choir a junior chorus.

Speaking on "The New Evangelism," Dr. Long said: "When Lincoln saw slaves sold on the auction block in the south he declared if he ever got a chance he would strike slavery hard. He got the chance, and signed the emancipation proclamation. Pompey and Caesar stood face to face. Caesar did not want to enter the fight, but Pompey pressed him, and a terrible battle followed, and 80,000 were slain. Caesar looked on the bloody scene and was shocked, but said, 'Pompey would have it so.' The new evangelism stands for home religion. The most important thing in the world today is home training. It stands for the work of the eldership. Every elder should have a parish. We had evangelism of the Jonathan Edwards type the Finney and Fulton street prayer type. We have personal evangelism. We are not saved to go to heaven, but to serve. Dr. Long's topic Tuesday night will be "A Strange Dream."
