Its quota of $453,200 is tonight believed to be over-subscribed by not less than $50,000 and possibly when all pledges are redeemed as much as $100,000.

The active campaign was begun about six weeks ago, when Hall county ranked 58th in the state. Two weeks ago it had worked up to 25th place.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, March 22.—(Special.)—A controversy over the location of county roads and their improvement under an act of the last legislature, has met with opposition in Keya Paha county, the location of a road there not meeting the approval of some of the people of that county. The act provides for the improvement of roads from county funds along lines leading from one town to another.

May Postpone Building Cortland Methodist Church

Beatrice, Neb., March 22.—(Special.)—There is some dissension at Cortland over the erection of a new Methodist church to cost $25,000. Residents of that place, and some of the members of the congregation, realize that they must raise $45,000 as the township's quota of the third Liberty Loan, and it is questioned whether or not the edifice will be erected at the present time.

Mrs. D. W. Copeland, a resident of Blue Springs since 1883, died at her home there Wednesday, aged 81 years. She is survived by her husband and two sons, G. S. Copeland of this city and W. M. Copeland of Hansen, Idaho.

L. E. Norris, a Burlington engineer at Wymore, has entered the race for mayor of that place in opposition to George Currie, present incumbent. There are five candidates for councilmen in the first ward, Phil Mosher, Galen Schoff, Tony Schiedler and Tom Maloney.

Leo Munster, a farmer living northeast of Beatrice, returned home Thursday from a trip to Perkins county and reports that wheat along the route is looking fine. He states that a good rain would materially improve conditions.

R. N. Fulton went to Marvill, Kan., with two of the Beatrice bloodhounds, in answer to a call that two prisoners in the county jail had sawed their way through a window.

Mrs. Edgar McCrea, formerly of this city, was found dead in bed at the soldiers' home at Milford Thursday morning. She and her husband went there a few years ago, and the latter died four months ago.

According to reports from Cortland, two representatives of the non-partisan league met with rather a chilly reception a few evenings ago. One of them spoke at the opera house and, when he failed to secure and members, left town. Another speaker tried to address a crowd from the depot platform, but was given a grilling from the audience, and he "beat it" on a passing train.

At an adjourned meeting of the latter guards Thursday night in Fireman's hall, addresses were given by Rev. Cissell, Rev. Clark, Rev. Lucas and L. W. Colby. Provisional rosters of the four companies which will comprise the battalion were read at the meeting. A guard fund of $25 as a starter was raised. Company A, consisting of firemen, speeded things by holding a session after the general meeting and electing officers: General L. W. Colby was chosen captain; F. W. Hall, first lieutenant, and John Quinlan, second lieutenant. Quinlan and Hall are Spanish-American war veterans.

Meetings are held every two weeks at which some prominent man is the speaker. F. E. Edgerton of Aurora addressed the club Thursday evening on "The War and America."

Masons Raise $2,500 in Auction of Real Goat

A general battle to "get somebody's goat" featured the Friday afternoon initiation convale of the Tangier Temple of Shriners.

A large class of young men were taken into the order.

A goat, brought from upstate by a Mason, was hoisted on the stage, tied down, to preserve peace, and a loud and very fruitful auction started to assist the Red Cross. As a result $2,500 in cash piled up in front of the goat, at the end of a few minutes of bidding. The money will go to the Omaha chapter.

Clay County Minstrels Raise Money for Red Cross

The Clay county Red Cross minstrels have about completed a successful tour of the county giving entertainments for the benefit of the local Red Cross societies in each town. When the organization of the minstrels was proposed people of the county thought it a joke and bought tickets more to patronize the Red Cross than to see the entertainment. They have made for the Red Cross societies in Clay county nearly a $1,000.

U.S. CLAMPS DOWN ON IMPORTS; LIST NOT ESSENTIAL

Action Taken in Effort to Conserve Tonnage for Prosecution of War; Not Seriously Affect Public.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, March 22.—The first list of imports to be prohibited entrance into this country, in an effort to conserve tonnage for prosecuting the war was made public tonight by the war trade board, under authority of President Wilson's proclamation of February 14, which put all imports under license.

By denying permits for the importation of certain metals, foodstuffs and luxuries, which can be obtained here or can be sacrificed to the greater need of putting ships into war business, the board expects to add 1,500,000 dead weight tons to the fleet carrying men and munitions to Europe.

Tonight's list of articles constitutes only those least essential, concerning which there was little argument. Lists to follow will touch various interests more closely, and will not be issued until after consultation with the trade affected, so that there will be a minimum of disorganization and loss.

Must Forego Luxuries.

Some of the prohibitions will scarcely be noticed by anyone in this country, as they affect imports of which only a small percentage come from overseas. One per cent of the imported agricultural implements come in ships, it was pointed out, and the prohibition will mean little or nothing to the consuming public, but will save an appreciable amount of shipping space. Many of the prohibited articles are of bulky nature compared with their weight, so that the conservation actually would be greater than the figures indicated.

The elimination of many long hauls also will serve to increase tonnage facilities.

Following is the list of restricted articles:

- List of Articles.

War Board Would Increase Weight of Sammie's Uniform

Washington, March 22.—Warmer and more durable army clothing and blankets are recommended by a board of inquiry of the quartermaster's department, announced tonight by Acting Quartermaster General Goethals. If the recommendations which meet with General Goethals' approval regarding weights were adopted the uniform coat would be 20 ounces instead of 16, as at present.

The weight of the overcoat cloth is recommended to be 32 ounces instead of 30, now used, and the weight of blankets is increased from three to four pounds.

It is recommended that goods for shirts shall be 9 1/2 ounces, and that as much as 40 per cent of cotton may be used. The regulation shirting now weighs 8 1/2 ounces.

HAMER CANDIDATE FOR SUPREME JUDGE

Juris: Who Has Opposed Endorsement of State Bar Association Announces That He Will Make the Race.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, March 22.—(Special.)—Supreme Court Judge Francis G. Hamer is going to be a candidate for re-election to the state bar association and without the consent of any other nation on earth. He has opposed the bar endorsement, which is expected to be made public very soon and forecasts such announcement by making a little showing himself.

Judge Hamer wants it understood that he cares more for the endorsement of the people of Nebraska than he does for the small percentage of the bar association who were present at the meeting which took action favorable to the state bar endorsing candidates. He says that when the people of the state inaugurated the primary law they did so with the one object in view—that organizations and the like could not put something over on the voter by a pre-arranged picking of candidates.

Up to the People.

He wants the people of the state to remember that he is willing to put the picking up to them, and if they are satisfied with his record on the bench he would like to be returned. He says it is simply up to the voters of Nebraska and to these voters as a whole he is willing to submit his candidacy. Regarding his announcement he says in a signed statement: "Subject to the action of the voters who may sign the necessary petitions required by law, and to the further action of the voters in casting the necessary ballots to secure my nomination at the non-partisan primary election to be held in August, 1918, I hereby announce my expectation to become a candidate for judge of the supreme court of the state of Nebraska at the next November election. I seek a second term and am in excellent health and will see many of you during the summer and fall. When I came to this estate I stopped a short time in Omaha, later settling at Lincoln and subsequently removing to Kearney where I was twice elected as district judge and served a little more than eight years, and where I lived at the time of my election as judge of the supreme court."

Phillips, Mrs. Margaret Hytton, Mrs. Dollye Wood and F. A. Stehly.

The chairman of the Armenian-Syrian relief committee has just submitted his report of the receipts for Table Rock and vicinity, which shows a total collection of $700.

Jacob Ulrich, one of the early pioneers of this county, living west of here in the vicinity of Steinauer, recently died at the age of 70 years. 'MONEY SLACKERS' MUST PAY TAX OR BE PROSECUTED

Federal Officials Say Number of Nebraskans Have Not "Come Across" Only 10 Days More.

The government will prosecute a number of Nebraskans unless they "come across" in accordance with the war income tax law, federal officials say.

"We are about 20,000 returns short of the number estimated for Nebraska, said Internal Revenue Collector Loomis. "They are coming in at the rate of about 800 a day, but April 1, the limit of time, is only 10 days away. It seems evident that there is considerable attempted tax dodging going on."

"I want to say that the government has a thousand various agencies at work to detect these 'money slackers.' Some of them may think their little schemes are safe. But they may wake up to an unpleasant realization that the hand of the government is manifold and strong and active.

No Excuses Go.

"We are going to prosecute the tax slackers just as vigorously as the draft slackers. No excuse will get by. A vast amount of publicity has been given to the law and there is no reason why anyone should fail to make his return. Just as soon as the time limit is up our inspectors and various other agencies will put their hands on the dodgers. They will be brought in and will discover that it is a dangerous and expensive thing to try to defy the government. "It is every loyal citizen's duty not only to make his own return, but also to notify the department of any case in which a person is trying to evade the tax. And we have received hundreds of such notifications from individuals."

The law provides a fine of not more than $1,000 and imprisonment of not more than one year for a person who fails to make a return or who makes a false return to the federal tax collector. All single persons with incomes of $1,000 or more and all married persons with incomes of $2,000 or more must make the return.

Nebraska Crop Outlook Never Better, Says Walters

That the crop outlook for Nebraska was never better is the assertion of General Manager Walters of the Northwestern, made upon his return from a tour of inspection in the west.

"Farmers are making every effort to cultivate the greatest acreage possible," declared the railroad man. "Have no fears that the Nebraska farmer does not intend to do his bit."

Colfax County Farm Hand Pleads Guilty to Shooting

Fremont, Neb., March 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Tague Fealty, a farm hand employed by Louis Ashe near Schuyler, pleaded guilty to doing the shooting at the home of Ashe and John Varva about a week ago, when parties leaving the two places were shot at.

County Attorney Farrell obtained the confession from Fealty, who said he "wanted to have some fun."

County Attorney Farrell learned that Fealty was sent up from Merrick county for from one to three years on a burglary charge and has been paroled to a farmer near Seward. He came to the Ashe home about three weeks ago. Fealty has been returned to Lincoln to complete his term.

BOY SCOUTS WILL HOLD BIG PARADE THIS AFTERNOON

Procession Preliminary to Two-Hour Drive Next Week for Funds for Omaha Scout Organization.

Omaha Boy Scouts will give a parade this afternoon at 2 o'clock, preliminary to the subscription campaign which the scouts will make next Tuesday, for funds with which to finance the work during the present year.

There will be from 800 to 1,000 scouts in line. A significant recognition of the scout organization is the detailing of the Fort Crook band, to lead the parade. Colonel Douglas Settle, when informed of the parade, and the need of a band, immediately consented to have the Fort Crook music-makers head the procession.

The boys will carry a number of banners showing the work they have done since their organization, a little more than one year ago.

Need $10,000 to carry them through the year, and officers of the organization are confident that the people of Omaha will more than subscribe this fund.

"We have all had to give to a number of funds," says Dr. E. C. Henry, president of the Omaha scout council, "but I know that Omaha people appreciate the important work the boys are doing, and that it would be a real disaster if the organization could not be continued. Some of Omaha's biggest business men have volunteered their services to make the canvass for this fund, and it is my personal opinion that it will be oversubscribed."
