ARMY NOTES

Captain Frederick C. Test has been promoted to be major and is now at Camp Dodge, having recently returned from a tour of duty at Panama.

Lieutenant Sanford Gifford and Mrs. Gifford leave tomorrow for New York, where he, as a member of the Nebraska base hospital unit, is ordered to the Rockefeller institute for a course of training in bacteriology.

Lieutenant Victor Caldwell, with several other officers at Fort Omaha, are under orders to go to Arcadia, Cal., where the new balloon school is to be established on the "Lucky" Baldwin ranch.

Captain Taylor Belcher and Lieutenant John Caldwell of motor truck company A, Fifth division, have gone from Jacksonville, Fla., to Buffalo, and are in charge of trucks being driven from there to Baltimore for shipment abroad.

Lieutenant Richard Baliman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Baliman, reached New York yesterday from Jacksonville, presumably under orders to sail. His parents went on Wednesday to New York to meet him.

Lieutenant E. T. Ferguson of Fort Omaha left last week for Denver, where he goes as a recruiting officer. Lieutenant Ferguson belonged to the Second squadron, which has been in France since December, but he was prevented from sailing with his company by an attack of appendicitis after he reached New York, and was operated upon and later sent back here.

Jabin Caldwell is home from Call Field, Wichita Falls, Tex., on 10 days' leave and is with his mother, Mrs. Victor Caldwell, who has just returned from the south and east.

Lieutenant Drexel Sibbersen, who has been in France since October, is now at the front. The last letter from him to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Sibbersen, was dated February 12.

Among the student officers at Fort Omaha is Lieutenant David Morgan, who arrived there four weeks ago from an artillery camp to take the balloon course here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Morgan of Hillsboro, O., the former a one-time resident of Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan arrived Tuesday to see their son and are at the Fontenelle.

Personals

Mrs. T. E. Stevens, who went to Florida in February with Mr. Stevens, is now in Englewood, N. J., with Mrs. B. B. Wood and Mrs. Harry Grammer, and will remain east until after Easter. Captain Grammer is now in France, having arrived there a month ago.
