

Spring

SOUTH SIDE SLACKERS MUST COME IN OR BE HUNTED DOWN

Detective Chapman Sent Out
After Registrants Who Have Failed to Return Their Questionnaires.

Of 3,400 men registered in South Omaha, 241 have failed to return their questionnaires to the Second district exemption board. Detective Charley Chapman, detailed to locate them, says that about 5 per cent are men unfamiliar with the English language; about 5 per cent are in the service, 3 per cent have joined the Polish-French army, and the rest are slackers who are trying to evade service by leaving the city. It is believed that many of them have gone to Mexico. As fast as these men can be located they will be placed in class 1A by the board.

Entertainment Is Planned For the Little Folks

An entertainment for children will be given at the Social Settlement house, Twenty-ninth and Q streets, Saturday at 3 o'clock. Mrs. George D. Rice will tell stories. From 7 to 8:30 o'clock there will be social dancing for children, followed by a dance for adults. Dancing lessons for adults will be given before the regular dancing.

At 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon the Russian Progressive club will hold a meeting, followed by a program by the Junior Musical club. Monday the U. S. A. club will meet at 8:30 o'clock.

Farmers Near Craig Donate Hogs for the Red Cross

Another load of hogs, donated by Nebraska farmers, was sold at auction Friday noon for the benefit of the Red Cross. This load came from farmers near Craig, and was collected through the efforts of John McDougal, hog buyer, Craig. There were 70 in the shipment, which was bought by Swift & Co., at $17.25 per 100 pounds, netting the Red Cross $2,556.46. Editor Bruce McCullough of the Journal-Stockman was the auctioneer.

Unregistered Voters Show Interest in Primary Election

Keen interest in the primary election, April 9, is being shown by the number of voters registering at the South Side city hall. About 502 voters, who have changed residence or become of age since the last registration and as many more are expected to register next Friday, the last day for registration. Those who failed to register here may do so at the court house, on or before March 29.

Young Brownlee Dies in Hospital at Fort Riley

Word has been received of the death at the Fort Riley base hospital of F. E. Brownlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Brownlee, Fort Crook. He enlisted in Omaha last June in the signal reserve corps. His parents have gone to Fort Riley and it is expected the body will be brought home Saturday.

South Side Brevities

Wanted—At once, experienced sausage stuffer; steady employment. Omaha Sausage Co., 2719 M.

Complete line of Columbia Gramophones and records. Come in and let us demonstrate. KOUTSKY-PAVLE, CO.

A card party and dance will be given by the X. L. club April 3 at McCann hall instead of at Moose hall.

Bellevue home: 1 block from car; 5 rms., furnace, city water, electric light, large maple trees; big garden. Must sell a once. During business hours call R. D. Walker, Douglas 759.

Telephone South 800 and order a case of Omaha Lager, the healthful refreshing Home Beverage, delivered to your residence. Omaha Beverage Co.

P. Vavra, 2223 South Twelfth street, reported that a thief entered his pigeon coops Thursday night and stole 22 homer pigeons and a pair of blowers.

The Kensington of U. P. Lodge No. 3, Degree of Honor, will meet at the home of Mrs. August Fisher, 4203 South Twelfth street, next Thursday afternoon.

Funeral services for Emil Long, 70 years old, who died at his home, 3816 T street, Wednesday night, will be held at St. Mary's Catholic church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery. He is survived by eight children, August, John, Frank, Edward, Oscar, Alphonse, Laura and Mary, all of Omaha.

A reunion of the alumni since 1914 and the 1918 class of Jungmann school was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jacobson, 1418 O street, Friday night. Those present were: Messrs. Urban, Curtis, Joe Smola, Frank Smola, Lloyd Carter, Clarence Blesie, Orl Olson, Frank K. Roebing, Joe Tomlin, Frank Oursda, Charles Cerny, Earl Jacobson; Meses Helen Volteck, Carrie Melivee, Helen Gabriel, Anna Volteck, Mary Chadek, Arlene Chadek, Blanche Ziba, Marie Conk, Frances Conk, Pearl Green, Emily Gabriel and Miss Hickey, teacher. Also Messrs. and Mesdames J. A. Jacobson, G. W. Jacobson.

GERMAN WRITERS MAKE BIG CLAIM FROM WAR FRONT

London, March 23.—The Central News says all sorts of details are being sent out by German war correspondents.

One of them talks about 1,000,000 yards of piping behind the front. Another says the number of airplanes has been increased ten-fold.

According to still another, tanks, batteries for projecting poison gas and flames and other modern engines of war in great numbers, are on the front.

This From Boston.
The friends of the candidate for school commissioner were jubilant for their man had won. That night they formed in line and marched up to his house carrying a lot of transparencies. "Education done it," one of these triumphantly ran.—Boston Transcript.

Omaha Road Shows Big Decrease in Net Income

Chicago, March 23.—Net income of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad decreased $3,243,894 during the calendar year of 1917, according to the annual statement. Income in 1916 was $20,368,924 and in 1917 was $17,150,300. Surplus for the year amounted to $15,162,548, a return of approximately $10.28 on each share of common stock. The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha, a subsidiary of the Northwestern, shows a decrease of more than $1,000,000 in net income.

GERMANS DRIVE ON RETREATING BRITISH ARMY

British Army Headquarters in France, March 23.—It was reported this morning that enemy infantry had pushed down across the Canal De La Somme and had driven forward against the positions to which the British had retired. German cavalry was seen advancing behind the infantry. There was small doubt but that the attacking force intended to make a supreme effort to rupture the British line in this sector.

Newport Is 35 Per Cent Over War Savings Stamp Quota

Newport, Neb., March 23.—(Special.)—Newport oversubscribed its quota of war savings stamps by $3,500. This is 35 per cent more than was allotted. In the Red Cross drive at Newport Saturday, the local chapter netted $3,800.

TWO PERSONS HURT IN AUTO COLLISION

Six-Year-Old Harry Boydston
and Mrs. C. A. Overton Seriously Injured; Brakes
Set Too Quickly.

Two persons were seriously injured and two others received minor hurts last night when two automobiles collided at Twentieth and Wirt streets.

One of the automobiles, driven by M. O. Boydston, letter carrier, 2706 Laurel avenue, turned completely over, pinning his wife and son, 6 years old, underneath the wreckage.

C. A. Overton, 3211 North Fourteenth avenue, was driving the other car.

The injured were:
Harry Boydston; fractured hip and right leg; severe body bruises.

Mrs. C. A. Overton, 3211 North Fourteenth avenue; possible internal injuries and a bruised back.

Mrs. M. O. Boydston, 2776 Laurel avenue; deep abrasions on the face and hands.

M. O. Boydston, cut severely about the hand, body bruises.

Eight-year-old Jack Boydston was uninjured.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Reynolds, 3127 North Fourteenth avenue, who were in the car with Mr. and Mrs. Overton, escaped with only a slight shake-up.

Doctors C. R. Kennedy and Ewing Brown attended the injured persons at the Swedish Mission hospital.

"I saw a collision was imminent, and immediately I applied my brakes," Boydston said. "I set them too suddenly. I noticed that the other car was on the wrong side of the street."

Famous New York Women Decorated by French

New York, March 23.—For the second time within six months, Miss Anne Morgan and Mrs. Anne Dike have been decorated by the French ministry of agriculture in recognition of their activities in war-torn districts of France, according to a cable message received here today.

The latest decoration was given, it was stated, for restoration work at Blerancourt. A diploma of honor also was awarded to the committee for devastated France, it was announced.

Miss Morgan and Mrs. Dike received decorations from the French minister of agriculture last October for their efforts toward rebuilding ruined villages in the Aisne district and relieving distressing conditions prevailing among refugees.

Adopt Citizen Suffrage Bill.
Pierre, S. D., March 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The senate today passed the senate citizen suffrage resolution which ties the citizenship feature to the equal suffrage amendment to the constitution and sends them to the people as a joint amendment. Both houses have passed the radical Council of Defense bill and the house has passed the Maryland compulsory labor law.

Mexican Killed.

Nogales, Ariz., March 22.—An unidentified Mexican was shot and killed today by a United States infantryman on duty, when the Mexican failed to halt on command of the sentry.

War Bonds Thief Caught.

New York, March 23.—In the arrest here today of Louis Rosenberg, 23 years old, on a charge of having stolen two $1,000 Liberty loan bonds and disposed of them for $998 each, the police believe they have one of a band of thieves who have stolen Liberty bonds valued at $300,000 in the financial district recently.

Pay As You Wear

EASTER IS SUNDAY
MARCH 31st

Select your Easter apparel this week. You don't need cash here. Open a charge account at Beddeo's. Just pay a small amount down, and a trifle each week or each pay day.

Spring Suits That You Will Be Proud to Wear at

$18.50, $22.50
$29.50, $35.00

A most remarkable showing of the newest fabrics in the most fashionable Spring styles, such as plain tailored, semi-tailored and fancy models in straight Eton, semi-flare and ripple jacket effects. New tans, new grays, military blues, as well as navy and black. Select your Easter suit Monday at Beddeo's and have it ready for Easter. Second floor.

Three floors full of bright new apparel, the largest credit clothing store in the west.

--Spring Dresses
Full of Charm and Newness

$16.50, $18.50, $22.50

Come Monday and see this wonderful display of Dresses. For variety, for quality, for price, they are the best values to be found anywhere. Every dress new this Spring—Silk, satin, serge, jersey, georgette, crepe de chine, Foulard combinations in all of fashion's newest colors. Second floor.

--Special Showing of Millinery for Easter

$4.95, $11.95

A special showing of millinery for Easter, which includes every shade and every style considered correct for the new season. To get an idea how reasonable our hats are, just look at the hats shown elsewhere at $7.50 to $15.00, then see our display at $4.95 to $11.95. A visit to the millinery section Monday will prove interesting. Second floor.

--Charming Spring Coats

$12.50 to $38.50

Unusually smart new models on slender lines with close fitting sleeves and new ideas in collars, cuffs and belt. In Velours, Gabardines, Burella, Poplin and Serge, wide range of new colors, including sand, gray, brown and pekin. Second floor.

We Are Pleased to Extend
Credit to Out-of-Town People.

BEDDEO

1417 Douglas Street

1/2 TONES

FOR NEWSPAPER
AND CATALOGUE
ADVERTISING

Advertise
with Pictures
BEE ENGRAVING
DEPARTMENT
OMAHA

KING'S
PATENTED PROCESS
FRUITS and VEGETABLES

are conceded to be the finest dehydrated products on the American market today—unsurpassed for their quality—they mark an epoch in modern food conservation.

TO ALL WOMEN

Interested in Modern Conservation and Preparation of Food.

The Free Demonstration of King's Patented Process—Fresh Fruits and Vegetables—in the Down-Stairs Store of

Burgess-Nash Company

Unfolds a Wealth of Information—Don't Miss It.

Progressive
Grocers Recommend and Sell
KING'S
Dehydrated
PRODUCTS

Paxton & Gallagher Co.
Distributors
Omaha, Nebraska.

