LINCOLN TENPIN CRACKS FIRST IN TWO BIG EVENTS

State Bowling Tournament Closes With Burst of Speed on Part of Visitors; Association Record Broken.

Table with columns for 'FIVE-MEN EVENTS', 'DOUBLES', and 'SINGLES'. It lists names and scores for various bowling events.

The Nebraska Bowling Association tournament closed last night with the Maxwell Motor quintet from Lincoln in first place in the five-men event...

Records of the two-men events and singles were not bettered during the tournament.

E. Ojendyk, Lincoln, crept into supremacy in the singles with a high score of 636.

In the doubles two teams tied for first place with the head score of 1,178.

Tomam-Huntington, Omaha, and Clough-Flanagan, Omaha, who led in the doubles with an equal score, will bowl tonight for the decision.

The Team Scores. The Fremont Gandy Kitchen, five-men team, 1917 champions, won third place in the tournament with an aggregate score of 2,751.

R. Grotte, Omaha, and L. Taylor, Fremont, are tied for third place with a score of 601.

A. Krug, Omaha, and W. Senner, Omaha, vie with each other for fifth place. Their score is 592.

Scores made by the five-men teams in the 1918 tournament far surpassed the average runs made in previous years by teams of the State Bowling association.

In the doubles and singles, this year's scores fell below the average runs of past tournaments.

Table with columns for 'Singles' and 'Doubles'. It lists names and scores for individual and two-person bowling events.

OMAHA GUN CLUB FINDS LOCATION NEAR FAIRACRES

Obtain 17-Acre Tract and Will Erect Club House and Install Five Traps at Once.

After many weeks of searching, the Omaha gun club has found a new location. The new location is a 17-acre tract west of Fairacres. It lies between Fairacres and the peony farm and faces the Dodge street road. It is all hay meadow, with a clear background, so that it will make an excellent shooting ground.

Carter Is High

George Carter of Lincoln turned in the high score Sunday at a shoot at the gun club. Carter's 47.50 was high mark of the day. Henry McDonald and Ray Kingsley were the leading amateurs, each cracking 46 blue rocks out of 50 chances.

BRITISH OUTNUMBERED EIGHT TO ONE IN BIG DRIVE NEAR BAUPAUME

One German Division to One English Battalion When Teutons Launch Thrust South of St. Quentin; Machine Guns Hew Down Enormous Numbers of Advancing Enemy.

British Army Headquarters in France, Sunday, March 24.—The main thrust on the British right flank by the Germans Thursday morning was south of St. Quentin and the enemy used a division for every 2,000 yards of the front, there being approximately one German division against every British battalion.

The purpose of the attack here was to capture Urvillers and Essigny-Le-Grand and thereby acquire high ground for a further advance.

It is now possible to give more details of the early stages of this and other fights.

CROSS OISE RIVER

On the extreme right of the British army the enemy crossed the River Oise at two places. One body of troops came out of LaFere and swung north, while another army crossed at Moy and turned south to form a junction with the LaFere group.

In the other main theater of operations—between Arras and Bapaume—the Germans made their first drive against the high ground between the Colij and Seneze rivers.

GERMANS DRIVE AT HAM

South of St. Quentin a number of strong British redoubts made a gallant defense and it was nightfall before the last of them, with their machine gunners, had been reduced.

Further north the British also withdrew from Holnon wood. The German assault with increasing vigor, and after desperate fighting in the region of LaFere, succeeded in getting across to the British side.
