High School Teacher to See Service Abroad

Eva O'Sullivan

Miss Eva O'Sullivan, popular science teacher in the Central High school, will leave soon for overseas with the Nebraska base hospital unit. Miss O'Sullivan will serve her country by performing the work of laboratory technician for the unit. She will not go into the training camp with the men of the unit, but will await her call to some eastern point of embarkation.

Miss O'Sullivan has taught at Central High for seven years. Previous to that she was assistant principal in South High school. She was elected a class teacher by the 1917 graduates. Miss O'Sullivan is a graduate of the state university and has taken summer courses in the east.

Speeches by Dr. J. M. Patton, Amos Henley, James Lovely and Mrs. Mayme Cleaver, grand chief of honor; musical numbers by Mrs. Tillie Donovan, Mrs. Frick, Helen House and Miss Robinson; reading, Mrs. E. H. Shrock, and a dance by Loretta Boros.

Election Gossip Not Limited to Men; Women Have Candidates, Too

With club programs, pet projects and new patriotic measures nearly out of the way for the year, all good club members are busy forecasting the outcome of the approaching elections. Presidential possibilities naturally are the chief topic of argument and prophecy. Among the members of the Omaha Woman's club prediction is made less possible because of the system adopted this year of voting by a ballot box, instead of the customary voice of the nominating committee.

Mrs. A. L. Fernald, present leader of this large organization of women, has served one year. Her name is frequently mentioned for a succeeding term. Some of her predecessors have held office for two years.

Another name frequently heard in pre-election gossip is that of Mrs. Ben Baker, present leader of the political and social science department. Her decision not to serve again in the latter capacity will leave her free for a more important office. Her record for efficiency in that place will make certain her success in any office of the club.

Mrs. Mary I. Creigh, now first vice president, is such a representative club woman that many of her sister members are convinced she is the best possible choice for their next president.

Another enthusiastic member, who is spoken of as a likely candidate, is Mrs. L. M. Lord. Her activities have been centered chiefly around the affairs of the social science and public speaking departments, but her vote is always cast for all the most progressive movements of the organization.

At Monday's meeting the ballot box will receive the vote of the members. At the next open meeting, April 15, the members holding the two highest numbers of votes will be voted on by the club. This system will not exclude nominations from the floor.

Government Canning Expert Will Lecture In This City

T. J. Newbill of the Department of Agriculture at Washington will give three lectures for the conservation program this week under the direction of Miss Nellie Farnsworth, home demonstration agent.

Mr. Newbill will speak at 3 p. m. Wednesday in the council chamber of the city hall; before the home economics department of the Omaha Woman's club Thursday at 10 a. m., and at the instruction class at the Saunders school Thursday at 3:15 p. m.

Canning problems will be the subject of Mr. Newbill's talks. All women of the city are invited. A repetition of last year's mistakes may be prevented by preparedness in this work.

Owing to spring vacation week, Miss Farnsworth's program will be shortened this week. Monday night she will hold an instruction class at the Druid Hill school. She will hold a class at the Howard Kennedy school at 7:45 p. m. Friday. Pupils of the South Side High school will hear Miss Farnsworth Friday morning.

Banish Childish Fears

Some years ago it would have been thought sheer nonsense to talk of a child being afraid when he did not even know he was afraid, says Laura Spencer Porter in The Mother's Magazine.

Now, owing to the researches of earnest men and women in the field of psychology, and owing to very exact and modern experiments in psychology, we know that only a very small part of our mental life and experience ever rise into consciousness; and that by far the larger part consists of impressions and tendencies and fears and repressions that are active yet remain hidden as if were under the surface of the conscious.

South Omaha Woman's Club. The meeting which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Frank Lee on Tuesday has been cancelled.

Denver Clubwoman Visiting in Omaha

Mrs. Mary C. Bradford, president of the National Educational association, is the guest of Mrs. F. H. Cole. She will remain over Sunday and possibly until after the meeting Monday of the Omaha Woman's club.

Mrs. Bradford, whose home is in Denver, served as a member of the civil service reform committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, of which Mrs. Cole is chairman. She will speak to the club on "Instruction for Government Positions" if she remains.

Mrs. Cole will be hostess informally at tea this afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Bradford. Clubwomen interested in Mrs. Bradford's work and personal friends have been invited to call.

The first number will consist of "The Star-Spangled Banner," sung by the Omaha Woman's club chorus. Mrs. Raymond Young will play the "Sixth Rhapsody," by Liszt. F. O. Newlean will sing "Dreams," by von Flieitz, and "Prelude," by Ronald. The chorus will sing "Hark, 'Tis the Breeze," by Marshall; "April," by Gounod; "Good Night," by Reinecke; "Summer Months," by Mendelssohn.

A general review will follow the annual election of officers for the parliamentary department, Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock in the clubrooms.

Mrs. J. O. Veiser of the literature department of the Omaha Woman's club has invited the department to meet with the Dundee Woman's club at the home of Mrs. J. W. Marshall, 4910 Cass street, Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. G. Clark will lecture on "Fagore's Indictment of the Western Civilization." Mrs. Clark will give a vocal solo.

Election of officers will be held at the meeting on Thursday of the home economics department. Mr. T. J. Newbill of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, who will be in Omaha for two days, will speak on "Home Canning and Its Problem." The meeting is open to all women who are interested in the latter subject.

Louise Shadduck-Zabriskie, violinist, and Edith Louise Wagner, pianist, will give a sonata program under the auspices of the music department of the Woman's club, April 9, at the First Christian church. The proceeds will go to the Red Cross.

Celebrate Anniversary

Social lodge 102, Degree of Honor, celebrated its 23d anniversary March 28. Chief of Honor Anna Smith presented the lodge with a large birthday cake. Mrs. Ellen Wagen was in charge of the program, which included an exhibition by Boy Scouts' troop No. 38 of St. John's school.

This institution is the only one in the central west with separate buildings situated in their own ample grounds, yet entirely distinct, and rendering it possible to classify cases. The one building being fitted for and devoted to the treatment of non-contagious and non-lethal diseases, no others being admitted; the other Rest Cottage being designed for and devoted to the exclusive treatment of select mental cases requiring for a time watchful care and special nursing.

GREAT NEWS THAT WILL INTEREST EVERY WOMAN OF OMAHA

Omaha's greatest improvement will be the opening of the finest and greatest improved Ladies' Apparel Store of the west, which will carry the well-known name of Orkin Bros. This store will occupy a large space on the main floor and a large space on the second floor of the new Modern Conant Hotel building at Sixteenth and Harney streets, as well as the entire second floor of the Nash Building, formerly the Omaha Rubber Company, which building adjoins the Conant Hotel. This store will be noted for its wonderful daylight advantages, which every woman knows is so much better than shopping by artificial light. Mr. Orkin says that he will carry a stock of merchandise in this new store that would be a credit to any New York house.

It has been a great disappointment to Mr. Orkin not to have opened this new store at the beginning of the spring season as he had planned on doing, as the building was promised for March 1st, and thinking that it would be ready, Mr. Orkin being associated with the New York Store and knowing the great advance to be made he early placed enormous orders for Spring and Summer apparel which had to be accepted at our present location, 1510-21 Douglas St. This store being so much smaller than the new one, we are not able to handle this mountain of merchandise, so to relieve congestion we are marking them much below the valued prices. We will be in our new store about April 15, and we are going to dispose of thousands of dollars worth of Spring and Summer apparel that was purchased for the new store in the next fifteen days which sounds like an impossibility, but this merchandise will be marked at such a low price that every woman who is interested in saving on her new apparel will secure one or more of these many bargains.
