

and congratulated each other on being alive."

Thi fact girl sim her Per

but shy

uat Fals

hin

eng dot del

cou the tin kn let An

sm

00

wo ian ier des bar

sen

Cr

Su

Me Ge

ses pil the

rac bu Fo

str

wa cie art

3t

de han tratulo :: a

Why Not Sugar?

Most diamond athletes experience in- loose and uncertain. He had his toe eventful morning he was sent to a cer-

Just One.

According to all the laws of averhave experienced many thrills. So the question was put to him. "Ever have a thrill, Ralph?"

"Danger, profit and loss, or love?" demanded Hayward. "Sure, plenty of 'em. Been in auto wrecks and train wrecks; once held five blun ones going uphill; spent New Year's eve in New York; copped a bet on the world's series; nailed one mallard out of a flock before "Dad" Weaver world weaver world is series; nailed one mallard out of a flock before "Dad" Weaver world is series; nailed one mallard out of a flock before "Dad" Weaver world is series; nailed one mallard is seri could scare it away; oh, a lot of 'em." "Nix, nix," ordered the questioner. "I mean a regular thrill."

A. STINGER, EDITOR.

Communications on any topic

NO ADS AT ANY PRICE.

gnature. None returned.

without postage or manager is no exception.

numerable thrills and the Rourke

his life; a thrill that was a thrill. "It was then I signed a war-time

Hanging "By a Hair."

Harley G. Moorhead believes he "I mean a regular thrill." "Oh, a regular thrill." Climbing along the perpendicular ward. "Only one of those ever hap-Ia., Charles L. Vance years ago had quired, but he makes no claim to planted on a ledge about two inches | tain creek to bring in all of the critters wide. Just above his head a large he could find. He discovered a milishell protruded from the face of the, tant bull along the creek and was deage, Ralph Hayward, who toils for But Jackson experienced one out-both a railroad and a theater, should standing thrill that surpassed all of the rock. With one hand he grasped a termined to bring the bull in or bust standing thrill that surpassed all of the others; one thrill which he will carry in his memory throughout the rest of self while he worked at the shell. "I variety and there was a flash of evil in had no more than taken hold of the his eyes. ledge," says Vance, "than the rock

"It was then I signed a war-time reage, says value, that the total made a rush at the animal contract with Chicago in the Federal gave way under my toes, and there is a source of the s Moorhead made a rush at the anifully two minutes before I could find head was out alone, several miles D. Rockefeller, Jess Willard and "Billy" Sunday didn't have all the money in the world after all." to him. He thought his time had

To be a circus clown was the boyish west and his eyes rested on Omaha. come. He managed to drive the bull ambition of William S. Stryker, presi- Because the city was centrally locome. He managed to drive the bull in with the bunch and proudly re-counted his experience to the fore-of Omaha. This ambition was gnawman, who had a good laugh when he ing at him back in Phillipsburg, N. never felt that he missed his guess, pride."

explained to Tenderfoot Moorhead that bulls are not brought in with the roundups. "I don't think I would be a success as a buil fighter," related Mr. Mcor-heard, while telling of his early days even the shoes in the windows did not on the range. attract his attention.

By A. EDWIN LONG.

The loose, torn shoes, with gigantic choice since.

Got Job in Factory.

has grown into a really important de-

Stryker is active as a member of

"I was about 8 years old," he re-

BUY AGAIN.

Do not this third call ignore: Help the Sammics make a score-, Buy again.

Buy again.

With your dollars now be armed.

Buy again, For your purse be not alarmed, Buy again, Buy 'em while they're plotn' hot-Sura, you can as well as not: Bach one will the Kaiser swat, Buy again.

Ah! He's In Again.

soles in which the circus clowns into the Kirkendall factory, and later flopped around the sawdust made into the jobbing business and then The pounding of the great, massive waves had been terrifying throughout more of a hit with him than does the into the/retail shoe business. Thus, the entire night. The mountainous finest modern $12 kangaroo. visitations from the depths had driven Envied the Clowns.

passengers and crew alike below How he eavied the clowns. How glad he was when his father left the dent of the Douglas Shoe store at 117 deck. The ship, tossed about as though it were a toy, had withstood farm three miles south of town and the cruel treatment for hours-but its moved to Phillipsburg to engage in a service new in the shoe business. the butcher business, for then the lad There he maintains, among other resistance was nearly spent. -The life boats had long ago been knew he would always be in town torn from their moorings, and the life when the circus and the clowns came. After a while he managed shows of partment of the place. boats were far from adequate. It was the captain's harsh voice that filled his own. With the aid of a few old those on board with the horror of the sacks and a paper hat he made him- the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, a situation: self appear quite a respectable clown. "There isn't the slightest chance for He charged admission of the boys- ha Athletic club, a member of the Iowa license. The wedding repast was life! We are lost!"

But one man retained his composure. It was the "hero" of our young Stryker accumulated quite a is one of the dozen men who direct solved the difficulty by suggesting that Jake is his name. His na- collection of peanuts and an assort- the affairs of the Associated Retailers we obtain an automobile and drive to tionality? Well, read on. ment of stomach aches. of Omaha. With admirable coolness "our hero" made his way from the depths of the the fire be neld in check until we ar- to the days of his early boyhood, marriage ceremony was performed ship to an upper deck, wherein rode rived there or would we have to aban- when he lived on the south side of the "upper crust" of the ship's pasdon ship and trust our lives in the Douglas street, between Fifteenth sengers. In his hand was a gold frail boats in that tempestuous sea and Sixteenth streets. with its mountainous waves? with its mountainous waves?

in an undertone. A gambler took a chance, and bought Jake's watch for $1. The thrill? Well, Jake explained the thrill? Well, Jake explained the thrill? Well, Jake explained the thrill the thread the ship's boilers and court house were at Sixteenth and farnam streets. Near the city fail and court house were at Sixteenth and farnam streets. Near the city fail and within a short distance of our house a man whose name was West the thrill? Well, Jake explained the thrill the thread the ship's boilers and court house a man whose name was West the thrill the thread the ship's boilers and engines were strained to their utbought Jake's watch for $1. The thrill? Well, Jake explained the thrill that comes once in a life-time—he woke up and the watch was reposing in his pocket. Fire In Mid-Ocean. A. G. Roe had a thrilling day and A. G. Roe had a thrilling day and in store for us. There was a certain in the beating in store for us. There was a certain in the beating in store for us. There was a certain in the beating in store for us. There was a certain in the beating in store for us. There was a certain in the beating in store for us. There was a certain in the beating in the counting room of the Metro-politan Water office: "It is the tragedy of progress that in the beating in the counting room of a white in the tragedy of progress that in the beating in the counting room of a white in the tragedy of progress that in the beating in the counting room of a white in the tragedy of progress that in the tragedy of progress that formerly at 7 octock how, by reason of the chock having been o'clock when it was formerly 7 an hour later as time was be-tore, but still at the same as the reposing in his pocket.

from the hay loft to the top of a white you horse in a stall. I thought the barn joy in the uncettainty of it all, a thrill lantic. "It was in February, 1913, that I that comes in the great battle with "It was in February, 1913, that I that comes in the great batter that sailed on a freight ship, the Manches-ter Mariner, from Philadelphia to Manchester, England," he said. "I was the sole passenger. It was a small ship with a crew of only 37 men and every morning, getting nearer and every morning, getting nearer and was moving like a merry-go-round. That was my first and last chew of tobacco."

the sole passenger. It was a small ship with a crew of only 37 men and wireless equipment. "We were a week out from Philadelphia and just about half way across when, one stormy morning, the for ward hatch blew off and a great cloud of smoke belched out. The crew, whose quarters were in the bow of the ship, became panic-stricken and vessel in mid-ocean, especially when the vusel has no wireless and the set is racked with February storms, is is racked with February storms, is and go their revolvers. They ad yanced on the crew and drove them forward, ordening them to put the transition of the hold. With six revolvers pointing at them and ready to shoot down any man that the fire was smoldering. We were five days from the nearest land at out ordinary speed. Cond When the new Bonds go on sale, Buy again; Your Uncle Sammy do not fail, Buy again; Though you have bought Bonds befor Buy again. If you'd have our boys success. Buy sealn: Ensp the new bould up with greed, Buy again; That small dot which you invest May make Hindenburg a jest And muss up the Kaisay's creat, Buy again

The' you forfait new Spring duds. Buy again. The' your meat be changed to spuds. Huy again. With your Bond-invested mon You can quell the rampant. Hup.

enduring example for her descendants and there seems to be no immediate danger of that example being desre-, garded. Personal pride is not to be decried, but unrestrained pride carries its victim far afield."

angels. When Eve beheld herself in a pool in Eden's garden she set an Yes, Pardon Us. "On the other hand," explained the Oldest Inhabitant, "I maintain that a lack of pride is as baneful as an excess of this human attribute" A person who is devoid of pride is a dere-lict on the sea of life. He does not care which wind may blow, nor to In 1880 his father looked to the which port he may be drifting. He is not even picked up as salvage. To be and the son has been glad of the "Haven't you heard of purse-proud people?" asked the Careful Observer. ""Yes, money does upset the equali-brium of some folks, but I have not been upset of late by any burden of When William finished school he looked over the want ads. As a repelf.

sult he took a job in Morris & Coe's "And have you read about the mee Shoe factory. From here he went inheriting the earth?"

"We are not proud, are we Samuel?" "Nope." today he knows more about shoes than in his palmiest New Jersey days Disappointed Scribe. he ever knew about clowns. As presi-

A young and ambitious newspaper eporter happened along when Rabbi North Sixteenth street, he is giving Frederick Cohn was relating an experience to a group of friends. things, a foot comfort service, which

"When I reached the house to marry these young people," said the rabbi. "I noticed that the marriage license had been issued in Council Bluffs and I called attention of the, groom to the fact that I could not member of Happy Hollow club, Oma- legally marry him in Omaha on an a good-sized peanut would admit any good fellowship committee of the ready for the invited guests and the boy in the neighborhood-and thus Omaha Chamber of Commerce, and bride's face showed consternation. I a point just across the Nebraske line on the Douglas street bridge. The on the bridge." The reporter's face was beaming with expectancy of a good story. "When did you say that occurred?

MUST MAKE GOOD

MAKE ROOM.

New Springtime Joke. A Juli usually follows a fullaby.

Knew His Place Sister Smith was called upon for testimony in a revival meeting. humbly declin_d in these words: "I have been a t ansgressor and a black sheep for a good many years and have only recently men the light. I believe that my place is in a dark corner behind the door." Brother Jones was natt called upon. Conter behind the door." Brother Jones was next called upon-Following Sister Smith's meek ex-ample, he said: "I too, have been a sinner for more than 40 years, and I do not think I ought to stand before you as a model. I think my place is behind the door in a dack corper with Sister Smith."--Ladies' Home Journal.

Met His Match.

mmy Atkins, ashore on leave i Tommy, Atkins, ashore on leave in Dublin; met a full-bearded Irishman and thought he would have a liftle fun with him. "I sys, Pat." he said, "when are ye goin' to place yer while ers on the reserve list?" "Whin ye place yer tongue on the dvil list, begorra." was Fat's come-back.-London Chronicle

THE WEEKLY BUMBLE BEE PROMINENT OMAHA EDUCATOR GAVE TEACHERS ADVICE ABOUT WEARING

' OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 31, 1918.

THE WEEKLY THE BUMBLE BEE

It Meant Well, But the School maxame Can't Be Blamed for Gigzling at the School roem?"
 It's story is too good to Great Man.
 This story is too good to would we tell the name of the school roem?"
 This story is too good to would we tell the name of the propier's money. We believe things by teachers. They are all the concerned, not for worlds an administration of efficiency to the weat the best of the school of the school of the school roem?"
 This story is too good to would we tell the name of the propier's money. We believe things by teachers. They are all the concerned, not for worlds an administration of efficiency to the best of their ability. This man is a prominent Omay is too good to the test of the school of the schol of the school of the school of the school of the school of shock in warm admiration," if you read "notes-aid end?

fficials will alive today he morrow ask-it to make about the diff like a printer loves his stipend. Like a bunion loves an old shoe.

It was in this other city that he once had occasion to address the teachers under his jurisdic-tion. He ended up his speech in this wise:
Mr. Stinger, that's how I love
"And I want you to be digni-

International strain strain strainInternational strain strainInternational strain strainInternational strainInternational strainMr. Stinger, that's how I love, youixEE.Twister.Twister.A correspondent informs us that last week we used "aunk" is the past tense of shik, of course, is sank and not sunk. We ware probably thicking of the word
"knew stank" in connection with the persons who sank the ships.
The past participie would have sunk
the Lusifania." Pardon the use of the lumplite nous.In this wise:In this wise:
"And I want you to be digni-
the not sunk."
The spast participie would have sunk
the ships.
The past participie would have sunk
the Lusifania." Pardon the use of the lumplite nous.In this wise:
"And I want you to be digni-
the strain the school com."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."In this wise:
"And I want you to be digni-
the school room."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."In this wise:
"And I want you to be digni-
the school room."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."In the school room."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."In the school room."
The school room."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."In the school room."
The school room."
The spast participie would have sunk
the school room."In the school room."
The school room."
The school room."
The school room."
The school room."
The school room."
The school room."In the school room."
The school room."
The school room."
The school room."<

The A. D. man, a mighty man is he. He alls in The Des office all day by the side of the ever-cirching delegraph, running off

Like a Bumble Bee loves honsy,

Like

tor of The Bumble Bee-tor of The Bumble Bee-tor are going into ales about the merry spring let us not forget that the beer signs will not be with als springtime. Alas and . Verily man was made to h. Dock beer signs loomed very spring 7-E. B. .

WOODY. at got a Wilson's con-to Marshal May I not ex-

ABITHMETICAL.

other day and handing us a cigar for which you said you pay, $15 per hundred, wholesale. We smoked it, or part of it, at any rate. Please call at the office at your earliest convenience and we will tell you where you can ret hetter stories for $1.80 per hundred. That El Cuspidoro was simply avrul. READY. How inspiring to pote that

We saw a young woman in overalls trudging up Sherman avenue on her way home from work in the Union Pacific shops. Did you ever see a young How inspiring to gote that 16 men are willing to serve the city as commissionera! Seven of the patriots will be selected. And the others will have the sweet consciousness that, in the hour of their, city's need, they that the dats and that the dats and telling him of the gr. Occasionally he

SCREEN.

Isn't it odd, when you think i of it, how we all go sbout our daily little duttes while the daily little in all history Grack's hint to scen h may depend ou meet is young with world's and panels, str. They are all " directed by a "master mind." The city dos catcher-be pardon, stray animal officer-was ordered by the city com-less work April 1. Take care of your bow-wow or buy him to cares what

United States is rept Peru. And who will alive today he would tell a story ask-akes about a man who understood all a tory are to be a tory asker to and from Omaha and sther points. Cept Feru. And who chres what price it is in Peru? NOW. Billy today he would tell a story and to be a tory season of now. If we have a bumper there is pairlot, set into the same now. If we have a bumper there is issuince, Montel bills and everything else. You to observe any more story. mon's business what they are, The prom. ed. had morely in-tended to tell the teachers not to wear middy blouses. tion: We like the cut o your jib. We know your record, which dates from the German crime of 1871. We know you have been preparing all these years for the blow which France and England and your Uncle Sam are striking now. MISTAKE. The "imponderables" that Bismark spoke of as "mightier than armies," are beginning to than armies," are beginning to Uncle Sam are striking now. Vive Foch!

ELUCIDATION. Just to make the daylight saving plan clear-if you arose formerly at 7 o'clock now, by clock is now. That makes it perfectly clear. AWAKENING.

AWARENING. Editor of The Bumble Bes-Remember that Monday will be April 1 and that Hindenburg said he would be in Paris on that date.-E. B. As Burns said: "The best leid plans of Hin the Hun aft gaug aglee."

woman in overalls trudging home from her work in the CUSTOM.

MONK.

fidence in stating that all the candidates for the high office of commissioner of the great city of Omaha stand for the square deal and fair play, the defense of the people's rights and the economical expenditure of the people's money. We believe they will not resent it when we

We believe we violate no con

