Sales of Liberty Bonds Following out the suggestion of Secretary of the Treasury W. G. McAdoo, in a recent letter to Ward M. Burgess, state director of war savings for Nebraska, the Nebraska war savings committee is devoting itself now to organization of war savings societies to be used in promoting the sale of the third Liberty loan bonds, and the stimulation of the habit of thrift and saving throughout Nebraska and the continued purchase of war saving stamps by those persons who are not able to partake of the Liberty bonds. The Omaha war savings commitee, headed by Joseph Barker, who is assisted by Charles T. Kountze, Harry McCormick, Guy H. Cramer and Robert H. Manley, has begun a systematic campaign for the establishment of war savings societies in Omaha. C. E. Corey has charge of this work among the industrial and business houses and Hugh Wallace will assist Superintendent J. H. Beveridge, who will have charge of the. work among the Omaha schools County Chairman of the War Savings W. M.
