The Federated Mothers' and Teachers' club met at the library Monday. The special feature of the afternoon was a talk by Mrs. Allen O. Ruste, president of the State Congress of Parents-Teachers Associations. She spoke particularly along the line of child welfare and its relation to the state. Iowa is the only state in the union with a state welfare research station, and the importance of this bureau and the effective work which has been accomplished, as well as the possibilities of the future, were discussed by the speaker of the afternoon. She also urged the co-operation of the federation in the campaign for better babies, which is now claiming so much of the attention of mothers and teachers all over the country.

The Young Women's Christian association held its annual sunrise service on Easter morning from 7 to 8. Miss Vera Wind played "Easter Song" and other appropriate piano solos. Miss Edna Killian led the devotionals and Miss Ora Johnson gave the Easter message from Henry Van Dyke's "Handful of Clay." After the program an appetizing breakfast of egg sandwiches, cookies and coffee was served.

Principal Shirley spent Easter as the guest of relatives and friends at Marshalltown.

The recital at the Congregational church Monday evening, which was arranged by the music department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club, was a decided success and they will be able to turn a very nice little fund over to the Red Cross as the result of their efforts. An excellent program was given by local artists and the audience was large and appreciative.

The literature and book review class which meets at the Young Women's Christian association Thursdays has postponed all meetings until further notice on account of the illness of the instructor, Miss Irene Armstrong.

Harris; vice chairman, Mrs. W. H. Baker; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. M. C. Hartford. Friday evening the club plans to present a musical program at the West End club house. The members of the chapter were all placed on the reception committee. Mrs. E. D. Judd is the chairman of the program committee and Mrs. C. H. Gowens, Mrs. E. D. Fuller, Mrs. J. F. Peterson and Mrs. R. H. Harris constitute the invitation committee. The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate friends of the young couple. The bride was very charmingly dressed in a tan jersey cloth suit and a small black poke with rose colored facing. Her corsage was pink roses and white sweet peas. Mr. Friar has enlisted in the automobile training school in Kansas City and left on Friday to take up his work there. His bride will finish her year of teaching in the Pierce street school.

The home economics department of the Woman's club met Wednesday to complete its year's work for the Creche. No program was given except a few informal talks on food conservation. Mrs. Noy of the Central apartments was the hostess, and a number of nightshirts for the Creche children were completed and the rest taken home for the finishing touches, according to the usual custom, in order that the plans for the year may be carried out. At the next meeting, officers will be elected for the coming year.

The Mothers' and Teachers' club of the Pierce Street school held a plant and shrub sale Thursday afternoon for the benefit of the East Side Red Cross auxiliary. Mrs. Matt Tinley and C. E. White of the Garden club urged garden work this year as a definite war measure. Mr. White especially pressed the necessity of planting cane to conserve sugar. On the evening of April 19 the club will give a program at the school building.

The history and literature department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club met at the library Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Bradley as leader. Mrs. B. M. Snyder gave a short talk, preceding the regular program, in behalf of the new Liberty loan drive. Mrs. Bradley then gave a short talk on the life of Anne of Austria, wife of Louis XIII, and Mazarin, the prime minister, who had such an alarming effect upon the lives of the French people. Mrs. Sanford then reviewed the reign of that magnificent monarch, Louis, and also gave some interesting facts about Colbert, successor of Mazarin. The last years of Louis XIII, the terrible conditions among the French people and the final loss of the power of the nation as a result of the thoughtlessness and extravagance were very ably discussed by Mrs. Mayne. Mrs. Snyder then completed the program by comparing this reign with that of Henry IV, the good king of France.

Private Peat Will Talk for War and Charity Benefit

Private Peat

Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Municipal Auditorium, Private Harold Peat will tell the story of his two years in the trenches. The young Canadian soldier was one of the very first to respond to the call for volunteers, having enlisted in August, 1914. He went through the early days of the war, and for two years managed to hold his place in the line. Although wounded, he has come out of the war with a smile and a spirit of optimism that is in itself worth seeing. Private Peat's talk will deal partly with the war's effect on the people who go into it.

He wears two gold stripes on his sleeve now. They show he has been wounded twice. Once it was a gasping, but the other time he "got his." He appears under the auspices of the Nebraska Base hospital and Omaha City Mission.

Eat Less Bread

Every time that you eat a nourishing but breadless meal, you deal a blow to the enemy as surely as though you fired a gun across No Man's Land.

In order to make more endurable the lot of the hundreds of thousands of German girls who are condemned to more or less permanent "single blessedness" because of the ravages wrought among the male population by war, German statisticians and publicists are discussing a plan of insurance against spinsterhood.

Pearl buttons, applied to blouse, are cut in the shape of crescents.

Stunning long coats are cut from tussah and trimmed with satin.

With juvenile sashes new belk buckles appear, some very ornate.

TO DARKEN HAIR
APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur bring back its vigor, color, gloss and youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—A.P.

Navy Tug's Big Crew

Hundreds of anxious yeomen and yeowomen assigned to the United States ship Triton hurry daily to the Navy department to learn if they must immediately set sail for the war zone. Meanwhile the good ship Triton, a modest tug, chug-chugs on its way between Washington and Indianapolis, all unconscious of the consternation it is causing.

The trouble arises from the department's requirement that every navy man and woman be assigned to some ship, be it tug or dreadnaught. The Triton, being near at hand, has received more than its quota. In fact, if all the people assigned to it were to cross its gang plank some fine day, it would immediately sink to the bottom.

Plans are reported under way to install women in the distribution branch of the railway mail service.
