Wubbenhorst Tops the Market on Fat Cattle

H. Wubbenhorst, stockman and farmer of Howells, Neb., topped the market on fat cattle Friday with a load of 17 steers, which averaged 1,494 pounds and were bought by Armour & Co. at 15 cents per pound, the highest price of the year to date. Wubbenhorst bought these steers on the Omaha market in October, 1916, for $6.40 per 100 pounds. They were roughed that winter and placed on grass the following summer. It required only six months feeding to get them in shape for market.

Officers Arrest Butkis For Stealing Pay Check

After eluding for three weeks officers who sought to arrest him on a charge of stealing from his father a pay check from Armour & Co. for $37, Adam Butkis, 17-years old, was taken into custody Friday at his home, 7410 T street, by Detective Franch. The boy is said to have cashed the check at a South Side grocery store, and to have sought the paternal roof after the funds were exhausted.

Kiddoo to Explain How He Put Nebraska Over Top

Guy C. Kiddoo, assistant war saving stamps director for Nebraska, left Thursday night for Washington on invitation of the government to explain the campaign methods used to put the state "over the top" in the sale of war saving certificates and thrift stamps. Nebraska heads the list of all states in per capita sales.

Charges Filed by Chief Against Officer Shean

Chief Dempsey of the police department has filed charges against Patrolman J. W. Shean of the South Side, charging reckless driving and unnecessary use of firearms on the occasion of a recent collision of two automobiles, in one of which Shean was riding.

South Side Brevities

A rummage sale will be held at Twenty-fourth and Q streets next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Father F. Jonathis announces that he is confined to his bed and will not be able to attend the Liberty parade Saturday.

Miss Lily King, secretary to Manager R. C. House, Armour's and her sister, Miss Mary King, secretary to Manager Edwards of Swift's, are spending a part of their vacation in Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Two hundred and fifty men, making up the remaining quota of Class 1, are notified by local exemption board No. 2 to appear April 13 at the South Side city hall for examination.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will give an entertainment in the church auditorium Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of an illustrated talk by Mr. Latman, singing by the Methodist quartet and reading by Mrs. Thermanon.

Douglas Fleming, 4717 South Twenty-seventh street, and Anna May Burns, Twenty-fifth and Patrick streets, were arrested Friday night in company with a Fort-Crook soldier at the former address. They are looked for investigation.

A public concert will be given by the Mozart orchestra at South Side public library Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Henry Beck, leader.

A public card party will be given by the Ladies' Booster club of No. 114, Excelsior Order of Eagles, at Bagley's home, Twenty-third and W streets, Tuesday night.

South Side Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred A. Crocker, 4294 South Twenty-second street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. W. F. Caldwell, head resident of the Social Settlement, will speak.

Unit of Sousa's Band Will Play in Omaha April 19

A 50-piece unit of Sousa's band will appear in Omaha Friday, April 19, in the interest of the Liberty loan. It will arrive at 1:15 p. m., and remain until 10:10 p. m. This announcement has just reached the Liberty loan committee. Bandmaster Sousa organized a 600-piece band recently at the Great Lakes naval training station and this has been split into 12 units, which are touring the country during the third Liberty loan campaign.

Department of Justice Probes Alleged Sedition

The Department of Justice is investigating an alleged seditious talk, said to have featured a recent meeting of socialist in Omaha, according to Chief Eberstein of the Federal Department of Justice.

MUSIC

Newsom Concert Company at Auditorium.

The Hugh R. Newsom Concert company appeared at the Omaha Auditorium last night in a miscellaneous program which brought deserved enthusiasm from the audience, and proved them to be a company of young musicians who are sincere and conscientious in their work, and capable of presenting good music most interestingly.

Leonora Ferrari, soprano; Laura Barnett, contralto, and Clay Inman, baritone, in their individual groups of solos, displayed voices of exceptional quality, which they used skillfully, and with splendid effect, showing excellent training.

Miss Lillian Pringle, cellist, also gave a good accounting of herself in her cello solos and in the concerted numbers, drawing a broad tone from her instrument and playing with technical accuracy. Alberto Salvi, harpist, brought many unusual effects from his instrument. He also has technical proficiency, and plays with strong rhythmic sense and musical feeling. Mr. Newsom, achieved some interesting effects on the organ in combination with the cello and harp, and as tenor in the numbers for quartet and trio completed the program.

Plan Class for Recording Finger Prints; Meet Monday

H. J. Nielsen, finger print expert of the police department, will attend a meeting of the Board of Public Welfare Monday night to discuss plans for starting a class in the art of recording finger prints.

This is in connection with the government civil service work, which is being promoted by Mrs. F. H. Cole. Those who are interested are invited to attend. Superintendent Beveridge of the public schools will be present, as he is considering finger print work as a new feature in the high schools.

It is explained that many lines of government work require a knowledge of this form of identification of persons.

Arthur Palmer Elected Noonday Club President

Election of officers marked the annual meeting of the Noon Day Club, held at the Chamber of Commerce Friday night. The officers are: Arthur L. Palmer, president; Frans Nelson, vice president; H. E. Westbrook, secretary; John Changstrom, treasurer.

The meeting was given over to a patriotic demonstration, following the election, resolutions being adopted to further the sale of war stamps, work hard for the new Liberty Loan, and to undertake a strenuous campaign for the Americanization of foreigners, particularly those of Scandinavian birth.

Detail More Guards for Buildings; Fear Firebugs

Information which was more or less uncertain as to its origin or authenticity caused a stir in the wholesale district Friday night, when extra guards and watchmen were detailed to prevent incendiarism.

The report was that an organized attempt was being made to burn large buildings in various cities, the Kansas City fire of Thursday night being a demonstration of that effort, the reports stated.

The police and special watchmen will patrol the wholesale district day and night and will require suspicious persons to give an account of themselves.

Liberty Bond Mass Meetings in Schools Thursday Night

Patriotic meetings in the interest of Liberty bonds will be held in the school houses of Omaha next Thursday night.

Little Insurance Talks

By HENERY H. LOVELL, Insurer

"Don't Buy It in Omaha"

We do; who don't? Well, you would be surprised to know who buy outside of Omaha such purchases as they could buy in Omaha to better advantage, while their business depends largely and in some cases entirely on local Omaha patronage. Some of these outside buyers are monopolies while many are not and many of them are loud in their endorsement of "Buy it in Omaha."

You would be much surprised to see a list of the Omaha enterprises which send all or a large part of their insurance premiums to agents or agencies away from Omaha when they could do as well or better in price and service through local agents who buy their necessities and luxuries in the home market.

A little business given an active local insurance man is a mighty good investment. It makes a friend and customer and an ever ready reference to you, Mr. Business man, of any one who is thinking of wanting anything in your line. As an example, this office is open for business friendships in many lines we buy or could recommend to our friends. We buy groceries; we haven't a policy of any kind with a grocer. The same is true of automobiles, tires, auto supplies, dry goods, meats, ice, milk, laundry, cleaners, druggs, trunks, books, doctor, dentist, seeds, wholesale grocers, bank, advertising, candies, cigars, carpenters, tailor, haberdasher. Would you believe it, even our landlady uses our rent to pay some one else insurance and our office landlords, well, we are ashamed to say. As our laundry man says "Perhaps some other time." If we can't give "Service" and "Good Goods" we won't expect to hold your business against in or outers; but try "Buying it in Omaha."
