Mrs. Cudahy Here To Name War Zone Canteen Workers

Mrs. Joseph Cudahy of Chicago arrived Wednesday morning to confer with Nebraska women who have made application to be sent to France as Red Cross canteen workers. "Red Cross headquarters has asked the central division, to supply about 25 workers," Mrs. Cudahy told the applicants who assembled at the Wead building this morning to meet her.

"After selecting four from Chicago, I naturally turned to Nebraska, because I always regard it as home and I knew that your chapter here was so splendidly organized."

Mrs. Cudahy is at the head of the canteen work of the central division. She was attired in the divisional and national headquarters uniform. The suit was of colored woolen material. It was made with a short plain shirt, Norfolk jacket with large patch pockets. It was belted with a black leather belt and buttoned with gun metal buttons.

She wore the war hat, a blue sailor with a Red Cross insignia in front. The costume was completed with tan pumps and sand colored spats and a white blouse worn with a four-in-hand blue tie.

The costume is very similar to that worn by canteen workers in the war zone. Full time volunteers are required for the work abroad, according to Mrs. Cudahy. Workers may be sent to do clerical or surgical dressing work if needed in those branches more than in the canteen.

"No one with relatives in the service, or with German or Austrian connection by birth, marriage or name, will be considered. Workers may have to spend 18 hours a day at the work, meeting troop trains at night, or other emergency work may be included.

The Red Cross reserves the right at any time to return a worker who proves unsatisfactory. "We can't take women who are temperamental and particular about what kinds of work they are fitted for. We must send women who are 100 per cent efficient and who are possessed of the real Red Cross spirit of willingness to help in any way they are useful," Mrs. Cudahy told her audience.

Luncheon for Mrs. Cudahy.
Mrs. C. T. Kounitz entertained Mrs. Cudahy at luncheon at her home at noon. Her guests were several of the out-of-town applicants, including the Misses Clara and Marguerite Schneider of Fremont, Mrs. Harry Jones of Syracuse, three of the Brownell hall teachers, the Misses Mae Scotland, De Han and Robertson. Others present were: Mesdames Clement Chase, field secretary for Nebraska, Mrs. M. Ladd and Charles Meyer of Lincoln, Mrs. A. L. Reed and Mrs. John Melhopp of Council Bluffs, and Miss Sweeney.

Miss Mary Ringwalt was one of the applicants.

Mrs. Cudahy will spend the day here. She will make her decision in a very short time. The women from this division must be ready to go by May 1.

TAKE THE LOAN

By Edward Everett Hale.

(May, 1861—Written by Edward Everett Hale, when the people had to be urged to subscribe for a 7.3 per cent loan. Those who did so are today millionaires.)
Come, freemen of the land,
Come, meet the great demand,
True heart and open hand,
Take the loan!

For the hopes the prophet saw,
For the swords your brothers draw,
For liberty and law,
Take the loan!

Ye ladies of the land,
As ye love the gallant hand
Who have drawn a soldier's brand,
Take the loan!

Who would bring them what she could,
Who would give the soldier food,
Who would stanch her brother's blood,
Take the loan!

All who saw our hosts pass by,
All who joined the parting cry,
All we bade them do or die,
Take the loan!
