Kennedy, member of the district appeal board the Concord club Thursday noon.

declared Kennedy. "Where reports of $8,500-Metz Bros., Louis Metz. these investigations become known I believe the spirit and patriotism of the people is such that these men will be kept from the polls, provided they are enemy aliens, by force if necessary," said Kennedy.

"The most trying cases coming to the attention of the appeal board are those where claims have been made for exemption on grounds of de-pendency," Kennedy said, and before any action is taken the case is thor-oughly investigated by federal agents. "No political influence has been brought to bear on the board membrought to bear on the board mem-bers except in one case and this was disposed of summarily."

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING HELD IN NEW TEMPLE

The Grand Commandry of Nebras-ka, Knights Templar, is the first of the Masonic bodies to hold an annual meeting in the new temple, Eight-eenth and Douglas streets. The Grand Commandry convened in its 46th annual session Thursday afternoon and concluded its business at noon, with an election of officers as follows: Wyman S. Clapp, grand commander, Kearney.

John S. Harman, deputy grand commander, Tecumseh.
Edward C. Jackson, grand generalissimo, Blair.
John W. Mitchell, grand captain general, Superior.

Arthur C. Stem, grand senior warden, Chadron.
Silas G. Dean, grand junior warden, bearer, Fremont.

Herbert A. Senter, grand warder, James M. Robertson, grand captain of the guard, Plattsmouth. During the sessions the commandry authorized a subscription of $2,500 to the third Liberty bond issue.

Lewis H. Moore, past grand com-mander of Des Moines, Ia., was pres-ent and delivered an address. Mr. Moore is the personal representative of the grand master at the grand encampment of the order.

Ed North, Deputy Collector Retires From Federal Work

Ed North, deputy collector of in-ternal revenue, has taken an indefinite leave of absence, after 25 years in that department of the federal gov-ernment. He finds it necessary to take a vacation, because of impaired health and the increased volume of work in the office. Deputy Carson will fill the vacancy.

Following the announcement of his retirement, Mr. North was presented with a carving set by the deputy col-lectors after a "surprise party" was held in his office in the federal building. The deputies expressed regret that Mr. North was to leave and pre-sented a signed paper setting forth their appreciation of his kindness and

Mr. North will pass a few months in Platte county, his former home, in regaining his health, and may also engage in the land business there.

Rev. Titus Lowe Confirms

Reports of Hun Amosities Rev. Titus Lowe, pastor of First Methodist church, interested a noonday meeting at the University club by relating some of his experiences during six months of recent service in th: Young Men's Christian association huts of the American expeditionary forces in France, His words confirmed previous reports and stories of German atrocities, some of which almost staggered the minds of his hearers. "They are minds of his hearers. he declared, referring to atrocities against not only the actual combatants, but against helpless and nnocent women and children. added that the inhumanities of the Huns extend beyond anything yet recorded in the history of the world.

The speaker told of the great work of the "Y" workers who follow the boys right up to the trenches.

FREMONT FLOUR MILL MUST GIVE $600 TO CHARITY

A voluntary agreement to pay, through the federal food administra-tion of Nebraska, the sum of $600 to be given the Red Cross and the Red Star by the Fremont Milling com-pany was the penalty assessed for vio-lations of the rules and regulations governing sales of wheat mill feeds. Five hundred will be donated to the Red Cross and the other $100 to the Red Star. The Fremont Milling company was cited to appear and answer charges for taking excessive profits on bran feeds. The milling company admitted overcharges amounting to $300 and offered to match the amount.

"The evidence showed that there was no intent to violate the rules, the overcharge being the result of unfa-miliarity with the rules. And for that reason the penalty was made very light," said Federal Food Administrator Wattles. "The officials are doing everything in their power to live up to the rules and the mistake was unfor-
