POLITICAL SHRAPNEL

Leaders of the anti-administration forces are said to be experiencing difficulties in getting together on a "slate" with which to conduct an offensive against the city hall. A conference was held Thursday in "Bob" Smith's office in the courthouse.

Nothing definite has been done yet among the city hall nominees toward getting together. The mayor has gone away for a few days for a rest. Some have ventured to predict that there will be no city hall slate as yet, and they refer to the primary vote to explain that premise.

Commissioner Butler makes this statement: "I positively will not commit myself before the election to support any candidate for mayor."

Thomas Falconer says he has made no tieup, although he admitted that negotiations have been going on. It is generally believed that in the event of a city hall slate being arranged, Roy N. Towl will be acceptable. Falconer and Reynolds have been mentioned in that connection.

"I wish to emphatically deny rumors that I intend to withdraw from the race. If I thought that I would receive only three votes I would stay in the fight to the finish," said Commissioner Withnell.

Auburn Dealer is Ordered To Accept Potato Shipment

R. G. Stewart, Auburn, Neb., dealer in fruits and vegetables, was ordered by the federal food administration for Nebraska to accept a car of potatoes, which he had rejected, and further to pay all costs accruing since the rejection, Thursday.

Stewart rejected a car of potatoes, bought from the C. C. Whitnack company of Lincoln, alleging that they were not up to grade. He refused to accept an offer of Whitnack to stand any loss which might be proven.

Whitnack reported the case to the food administration. Government inspection showed that Stewart had no just cause to reject the potatoes, so Stewart must take the shipment, with slight allowances not to exceed 10 per cent, and pay demurrage costs.

Jeffers Awaits Orders Before Organizing Force

Although he has received notice of his appointment as superintendent of the railroad terminals of Omaha and Council Bluffs, working under the direction of Regional Director Aishton, General Manager Jeffers of the Union Pacific, is awaiting further instructions before he organizes his working force.

As soon as Mr. Jeffers receives his instructions, he will name an assistant and organize his office working force. In a general way his duties will be to take over the Omaha and Council Bluffs railroad terminals and to devise a system by which movement of freight may be facilitated.

Woman Eats Strawberries And Cream; Becomes Ill

COUNTY PAYS AS GRAND JURY SITS ON PETTY CASES

Investigations Into Lynch Ouster and Police Probe Fail to Produce Results, it is Said.

Final report of the grand jury will probably not be made this week, it is understood. Expressions of dissatisfaction on the scope of the work of the grand jury investigations are heard at the court house.

The three-fourths of the time passed by the jury has thus far been occupied by petty crimes, which ordinarily are taken care of by the county attorney or one of his deputies. Meanwhile the county is paying $80 a day to the members of the jury, in addition to large sums in witness fees. So far as known, investigations into the Lynch ouster case, police probe and alleged graft in fire apparatus, have fallen through, the jury being unable to obtain enough votes to return a true bill.

Thus far the investigation of the murder of a police officer at the race track in Benson several years ago has produced the most results, it is understood.

The jury is now working on the final report, and it will probably be submitted to Judge Redick the fore part of next week.

RETAIL CREDIT MEN ORGANIZE; BENEDICT HEAD

Closer co-operation between retail credit men was urged at a meeting of 30 representatives of credit departments of Omaha stores in the offices of the Associated Retailers Thursday night.

An organization of the members under the name "Associated Retail Credit Men" was formed and the following officers were elected: I. A. Benedict of Thompson & Belden, chairman; F. Baden of Drexel Shoe company, vice chairman; Miss Mayme Jacobs of the Associated Retailers of Omaha, secretary.

E. W. Nelson, treasurer and manager of the Rudge & Guenzel company of Lincoln, spoke on existing financial conditions and emphasized the need for co-operation between credit men. He declared similar business conditions will continue for a long time after the war is ended and efficient handling of the situation is needed.

I. A. Benedict, J. W. Metcalfe and others spoke. W. S. Stryker, chairman of the credit bureau of the Associated Retailers, presided.

Credit men say they feel sure that the association will enable them to protect their stores from losses and their honest patrons from unjust suspicion.
