

SOUTH SIDE POLICE KEPT BUSY RUNNING DOWN OFFENDERS

Crap Game Players, Bootleggers and Drunks Are Rounded Up by the Officers.

An epidemic of alleged law violations kept the police busy Saturday night and Sunday breaking up crap games, hunting down bootleggers and rounding up drunken men.

Officers raided a place at 2601 N street, where they said a crap game was in progress, and arrested Tom Erca on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, and the following as inmates: Tom Gedish, 2601 N street; Jim Erca, 2601 N street; John Darlas, 3019 West Q street; John Kuch, Exchange building; Eddie Pappas, King's hotel; George Samoroso, Pete Corstas and Pete Klipas, no addresses; Joe Mike, Twenty-sixth and M streets; Frank Latesco, Twenty-sixth and M streets; A. Trico, Twenty-sixth and O streets, and Nick Gaags, Twenty-sixth and O streets.

John Baughman, 2019 North Seventeenth street, and William Dougherty, 5026 South Twenty-ninth street, were arrested on a charge of the possession and sale of liquor. F. L. Ford was charged with being a plain drunk.

Sunday morning officers with a search warrant went to the home of John Dombrowski, 4614 South Thirty-first street, on suspicion that liquor was being sold there. After getting no response at the rear door, they started around the house and saw several bottles being pitched out of a window into the yard next door. They obtained the liquor, one bottle of which was broken, and arrested Dombrowski on a charge of illegal possession of liquor. Police say Dombrowski has been arrested on a similar charge before. He was released on a $500 cash bond.

South Side Man Confers With Federal Officials

J. F. McNany, president and manager of the Grain Belt Supply company, returned Sunday from a two weeks' business trip through the east and south. He visited Washington to confer with officials of the biological department of the bureau of animal industry with reference to obtaining pigs for virus purposes.

"The results of the trip were entirely satisfactory," said Mr. McNany. "We did not quite understand certain actions of the government in connection with our business, but it was all explained to us, and we see now that the government is right about it, and we are satisfied."

Audley B. Schmidt Dies At Home in South Side

Audley B. Schmidt, 55 years old, died Sunday at his residence, 3609 R street. Plans for the funeral will be announced later. He had been a resident of South Omaha 32 years, and is survived by a wife and three children. John, the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gestrost died at the family home, Twenty-first and Sidney streets Saturday afternoon, after having been sick one week with pneumonia. The funeral will be from the Grace Baptist church at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, with burial in Grace-land cemetery.

Lithuanians Take Over Liberty Bonds

Lithuanians on the South Side Sunday subscribed for $3,000 worth of Liberty bonds. Of this $18 was paid in cash and the rest will be paid through the Stock Yards National bank. The committee which took the subscriptions consisted of Father Jonaitis, Joseph Vick and Frank Zigmung.

TREAT DRAWS FIRE; J. H. SUTTON THRICE WOUNDED

J. H. Sutton, 2319 South Seventeenth street, was shot three times Sunday night by E. H. Bioger, 1938 South Twentieth street, and was taken to St. Joseph hospital.

One bullet entered below the right shoulder and lodged in the body, one passed through the right forearm and the third inflicted a flesh wound in the chin.

Bioger gave himself up at the police station immediately after the shooting. He said that he had a controversy with Sutton a few weeks ago and that Sutton called at his house last night and began breaking the windows with the warning, "I am here to get you." Mrs. Bioger substantiated the statement of her husband.

Omaha Man is Instructor of Flyers at Kelly Field

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Greer, of the Flairton hotel, have received a letter from Lieutenant Thomas H. Highley, who is flying high at Kelly field No. 2, San Antonio, Tex. Lieutenant Highley was manager of an Omaha manufacturing company. He enlisted several months ago and won his commission in January of this year. He writes:

"I am engaged in the most elevating work of instructing cadets how to fly. I take them up for their first ride and teach them until they can go alone. So far I turned 20 cadets loose. It is a great life. It gets rather monotonous and a trial on my patience, yet it is very interesting work and full of thrills, for the gray hairs are cropping out on my temples now. The work requires me to be flying from five to seven hours a day and the rest of the time I am at leisure and that is the way it goes."

TWO YOUNG GIRLS DECLINED RIDE; SAVED LIVES

Sunday was a lucky day for Bernice and Olive Natly, 11 and 12 years old respectively, 2215 Webster street, and Miss Frances Boyle, 407 North Twenty-seventh street. They are thanking Providence for their good fortune of not having gone automobile riding with Alfred Catania, when they were asked to go.

The baptismal ceremonies of the infant child of Sam Rabiolo were to occur and the three little girls were asked to ride to Saint Anne's Catholic church in the automobile with Mr. Catania. However, on account of the crowded condition of the automobile, they declined, saying they would take a street car to the church.

After the baptism the party of nine went automobile riding north of Florence and were on their way home when the accident occurred at the railroad crossing.
