

WARD M. BURGESS TO WASHINGTON FOR WAR WORK

Savings Stamp Director Gets Request From Baruch to Come to Washington in Industries Work.

Ward M. Burgess, director of war savings in Nebraska, has received a request from B. M. Baruch, chairman of war industries board, urging him to come to Washington at once, prepared to take up important government work in connection with war industries. Mr. Burgess will leave tonight for Washington.

"This is a broad matter, exceedingly urgent. I know enough about you to know that you can handle the proposition," Mr. Baruch telegraphed in sending his message.

Governor Neville Invited to Attend Meeting in East

E-President Taft has written a personal letter to Governor Neville urging him to attend a meeting of governors and ex-governors to be held in Independence hall, Philadelphia, on the afternoon of Friday, May 17, in connection with the convention on "Win the War for Permanent Peace." The governor is requested, also, to appoint a delegation of prominent citizens to represent his state at this convention.

Military Police Guarding Soldiers' Conduct in Omaha

Efforts by the government to protect the moral and physical standards of the men in khaki continue with increasing vigor. Military police patrolled the city Monday night with instructions to arrest all women of questionable character found in the company of soldiers. A close watch is being kept on dance halls and cabarets.

Parks to Cover 1,000 Miles in Spring Cleanup Drive

Commissioner Parks of the street maintenance and cleaning department announces that he will endeavor to cover 1,000 miles of alleys and streets in the annual cleanup work which will be started Wednesday morning. He asks citizens to exercise patience and remember that it may be 10 days or two weeks before his trucks or wagons will reach some districts. "Our aim will be to remove all heaps of rubbish which householders place in alleys or streets, alleys preferred," Parks stated.

Kennedy Advises Omahans To Purchase Their Coal Now

A circular letter issued by State Fuel Administrator Kennedy Tuesday morning urges all Nebraskans to purchase their winter supply of coal this month, thereby helping the administration, the railroads, the miners and incidentally themselves, as prices are scheduled for a raise during the summer.
