GREAT ALEX ASKS PERMIT TO JOIN FORCES OF NAVY

Draft Officers Say That Unless Special Permission Is Obtained. Famous Pitcher Must Go to Funston.

St. Louis, Mo., April 16 .-- Grover Cleveland Alexander, upon his arrival here today from Chicago, said that he had telegraphed his draft board at St. Paul, Neb., asking for permission to join the navy. This decision folowed a visit yesterday at the Great Lakes naval training station. Must Go With Others.

Lincoln, Neb., April 16 .- There is little chance for Grover Cleveland Alexander, premier twirler for the Chicago National league base ball team to enter the navy instead of going with the April draft quota from Howard county, Nebraska, the famous pitcher's home, according to a statement made here today by Captain Walter L. Anderson, representative in Nebraska of Provost Marshal General Crowder. Unless Alexander is able to secure permission to join the navy from high military authorities at Washington, he will have to go with his contingent from St. Paul, Neb., to Camp Funston, Captain Anderson said.

"Alexander had all winter to join the navy if he wanted to," Captain Anderson said. "Our general orders are to release no registrants for the facturer may say. navy after they have been called for duty in the army, and there is no reason why Alexander should be taken out of his present quota." Cody Wants Him.

Captain Lee Metcalfe, private secretary to the governor, received a message from Camp Cody this morning, carrying the wishes of 6,000 Nebraska soldiers that the governor use his influence to have Mr. Alexander assigned with the rest of the Nebraska boys to Camp Cody. They need him on the ball club. Six thousand wishes was the best they could do, but a ball was the best they could do, but a ball player never was known to consider wishes as a consideration when signing a contract, and this time the big pitcher will probably have little to say besides.

Goes to Funston. The secretary of Alexander's draft tober 15. board called state headquarters for the selective service draft for advice in connection with Alexander's request for permission to join the navy. The secretary said that Alexander stood in the April quota as the tenth man in a list of 12 to go. He was told that unless Alexander was able to induce the higher authorities at Washington to grant his request, he would have to go to Camp Funston during the five-day period, beginning April 26.

Symes, 300; Cahn, 275, For State Billiard Title

Playing a consistently winning game at the Symes parlors last night, Harry Symes took the state billiard title from Albert Cahn, 300 to 275, playing 18-2 balk line for an average 6 5.55, with high runs of 34, 31 and 23. Cahn averaged 5.1 with runs of 31, 21

The game proved extremely fascinating to the large gathering of fans, the probable winner not appearing with any certainty up to the last 40 points of play. Symes then ran 34, which practically finished his string and left Cahn but small chance to re-

T is, of course, to be presumed that Fred Mitchell, manager of the Chicago Cubs is quite grief-stricken over the loss of Grover Cleveland Alexander to the army. The snatch-ing away of the world's greatest pitcher would make any manager weep. But-Mitchell can find solace in at least one feature of the Great Alec's departure-it offers an excellent alibi in case the Cubs finish in the second division. And have no doubts, Mitch will use it.
