The destroyers went to the rescue through a field of blazing oil and took off also the crew of the Jennings, A number of the crew of the American ship, however, were badly burned and had to be removed to hospitals after being !anded.

An officer of the O. B. Jennings, who told the story of the disaster, supported in his statements by members of the crew, said the collision occurred shortly after 2 a. m., when they were within 15 miles of their destination. He added that it was caused by the necessity of running without lights owing to submarine

YORK STOCKS Army Men Enthusiastic on Flag Salute for Women

Dr. E. C. Henry offers through The Bee four prizes, aggregating $50, for the best suggestion as to a salute by which women could express their reverence and patriotism for the flag the same as a man does when he takes off his hat. The offer resulted in a flood of letters to The Bee.

Large numbers of patriotic Omahans have called The Bee by tele-phone to learn more of the details of the contest. Dr. Henry offers four prizes—first, $20; second, $15; third, $10, and fourth, $5. He says he is making the offer through The Bee "because he knows it is 100 per cent American." Rules of the contest will be announced Thursday. In the meantime those who wish to mail suggestions address them to "Contest Editor." Army men stationed at Omaha are enthusiastic about Dr. Henry's idea. "It's a splendid idea," said Lieutenant McNally, chaplain at Fort Crook. "I am going to think about it and will submit my plan to The Bee." Colonel Grant of the quartermaster's department suggested that women should stand at attention when they see the flag and should always turn their eyes to the Stars and Stripes just as the soldiers are taught Realistic Presentation of "The Beast of Berlin" Pleases Crowd at Auditorium.

"The Kaiser-The Beast of Berlin," a realistic screen production now on at the Auditorium is the most sen- filed with the food administration. sational exposure of the kaiser and his barbaric hordes that has thus far come

The play is authentic in parts, while merely fanciful in others, but most of the incidents are based on facts. Rupert Julian, who impersonates the German emperor and his staff of assistants were more than a year in that will be remembered.

The plot of the sinking of the Lusitania, the raid on Belgium, and the kaiser being knocked down by an officer are only a few of the big climaxes, and a fanciful ending of the war, with kaiserism completely crushed, with all the allied chiefs in attendance, is well directed. A special augmented orchestra renders the original musical score.

The picture chronicles in vivid truthfulness Belgium and her inoffensive peoples before the invasion of the German hosts. The treatment of the peasants by the German hordes as they plow through the country, takes the spectator into the Imperial Palace of the kaiser and unfolds startling, repugnant insights into his pri-

It is stupendous in its treatment of present day history, of hitherto unoffered truths of the personal life of the German demon and the atrocities of his army and navy. Julian's rendition of the role of the kaiser is remarkable in its close attention to detail of make-up, mannerisms, costuming, habits and exaggerated ego of the ruler who has plungd the world into mourning to advance personal amoitions, and has sacrificed the honor of nations, homes, men, women, and

and has loosened its purse strings in the Liberty loans to Uncle Sam.

FOR HER" HE SAYS

Miller Declares His Sister Began to Improve Right Away After Taking Tanlac

Still another comes forward with his unqualified endorsement of Tanlac. Charlie S. Miller, formerly of Kansas City, Mo., and now living at 224 North 19th Street, Omaha, came into the Sherman & McConnell drug store at 16th and Dodge Streets, recently and said:

"Well, here I am for another bot tle of your Tanlac for my sister. She has used one bottle so far and it has helped her so much that I want her to continue taking it until she is entirely restored, which won't be very long if I may judge from the wonderful improvement she has already made. For about a year she had been on the decline and had fallen off until she scarcely weighed 90 pounds She was so run down and weak that recently on returning from a visit to St. Louis, she could hardly stand the trip. Her appetite got so poor she could hardly eat anything and nothing we tried seemed to do her one bit of good. "After reading in the papers what others had to say about Tanlac we decided the proper thing for her to do was start right on Tanlac, and her trouble seemed to yield to the treatment right from the start. Her appetite picked up from the first few doses and then she commenced to brighten up and show improvement. Her appetite is splendid now and she's getting stronger and beginning to pick up in weight, I heartily endorse Tanlac and would advise everybody who is in a run-down con-dition to try it."

A dull, dragging feeling of the body, a sluggish mind, dull memory, depression of spirits, nervousness. despondency, stomach trouble, loss of appetite, indigestion, weak back and headaches are among the numerous symptoms from which a surprisingly large number of people suffer. Experience has taught that ninety per cent of all chronic ill health is caused by poor digestion and non-assimilation of the food, which produces a catarrhal inflammation of these or-

Tanlac benefited Mr. Miller's sister because it contains certain medicinal properties which combat these very troubles. Thousands are now using the medicine in all sections of the United States and Canada with the most surprising and gratifying results. Scores of testimonials are being received daily from men and women of unquestioned honesty and integrity who feel gratified as a result of having found such a great source of relief.

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by Sherman & McConnell Drug Company corner 16th and Dodge streets; Owl Drug Co., 16th and Harney streets; Harvard Pharmacy, 24th and Farnam streets; Northeast corner 19th and Farnam streets, and West End Pharmacy, 49th and Dodge streets, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative .- Adv.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.
