

BOY SCOUTS GET MEDALS FOR WORK FOR LIBERTY LOAN

Judge McHugh Congratulates Youngsters for Valiant Services; Presents Master With Beautiful Gift.

Medals for services during the first and second Liberty loan drives have been presented on behalf of the government to 69 Boy Scouts by Judge W. D. McHugh, member of the State Council of Defense.

Judge McHugh congratulated the boys on the splendid work done in the past and urged redoubled efforts in their drive for the third loan.

Field Meet in May.
Associate Scoutmaster Bill Houston was presented with a wrist watch as a token of their esteem. Houston is now in the balloon school at Fort Omaha and expects to leave soon for California. Scouts Carl Diamond and Louis Staples made goodbyes to 250 of their fellows who attended the meeting. The two boys left last night for Paris island, N. C., for naval training.

Scoutmaster English announced that the annual field day for the scouts would be held in May.

The Liberty loan committee has given the Elks the opportunity to move the state tank east on Farnam street Tuesday at noon. The patriotic demonstration will take place near Twentieth and Farnam streets. Judge Sears, an officer of the Elks' lodge, will deliver the address.

BRANDEIS HEAD TO MANAGE WELL KNOWN THEATER

those which make for success in theaters, but the fact that he has already booked the best shows in the country to appear in the Brandeis theater during the coming season, argues well for his ability to successfully manage this new enterprise.

Only Best Attractions.
The Brandeis theater was originally planned to be the show place of Omaha, and even today, there are few cosier or more beautiful playhouses in this country. It was the original intention to house only the first class attractions, and to operate along a very high plane. It is Mr. Brandeis' idea to adhere to this plan, playing only the very best attractions in this country, and when they are not obtainable, to keep the house dark.

Mr. Brandeis has been in conference with Klaw & Erlanger and other prominent theatrical promoters and producers in New York, and the following high class attractions have already been booked for the next season: "Polly With a Past," "Cohan Revue," "Rainbow Girl," Alexander Carlisle, in "Cousin Sam," "Little Teacher," "Fish O'Hara," "O'Brien's Minstrels," George Arliss in "Hamilton," "Tailor Made Man," "Turn to the Right," Richard Carle in "Furs and Frills," "Going Up," "Toot-Toot," "Ben Hur," Maude Adams, Otis Skinner in a new play, Chauncey Olcott, who has not appeared in Omaha for the past two seasons; Cyril Maude in repertoire, Lou Tellegen and "The Rivera Girl," Klaw & Erlanger's latest and greatest musical comedy.

Book Famous Plays.
These are the plays that have crowded Chicago and New York playhouses, playing to more than 100 performances in many instances. "Omaha," says Mr. Brandeis, "has progressed to a point where it will eagerly entertain the very best that is produced in stageland, and lend its hearty support to a theater that is one of the show places of this city."

The Tuesday Musical club has already made engagements to hold its series of concerts at the Brandeis next season, and other artists, not on their program, will be booked independently.
The present lessee of the Brandeis theater, Messrs Le Doux and Le Marquand, who operate the Empress theater as well, have decided to devote their entire time to their other interests, so the last vaudeville performance was given last night, and the theater now enters on its new season under the management of Mr. Brandeis, assisted by Mr. Sutphen.

PROMINENT WOMEN TO JUDGE WINNERS OF BEE'S CONTEST

Suffrage Leaders and Red Cross Workers Will Be Asked To Decide on Proper Women's Salute When They Pass Old Glory.

Judges to name the winners of The Bee's "Woman Salute Contest" will be selected from leaders of the Red Cross and prominent suffrage workers in Omaha. Their names will be announced later.

Suggestions continue to come in with increasing number, every conceivable way of saluting the flag, being mentioned by readers throughout Nebraska, Iowa and surrounding states.

L. R. Loeke of Norfolk, Neb., a prominent business man of that city, and one who has served Uncle Sam in previous campaigns, writes:

"The article in The Omaha Bee has brought out a long neglected phrase of patriotism." His suggestion for a salute is:

"Raise the right hand sharply, placing it over the heart, fingers extended, facing the flag, left hand hanging naturally at the side.

A soldier's salute for the women, is the idea of Miss Louise Johanna of Columbus, Neb. Miss Johanna's suggestion is:

"Stand erect, head held up, facing the flag and remain rigid and quiet."

Mrs. George Law, Corning, Ia., mother of four American boys, writes:

"Lower the head as if in prayer, hands and arms straight down side, rigid-as possible."

Beecher Higby, 2244 Landon Court, declares he thinks the men of Omaha should take a few lessons from the women on how to march, whether they have a salute or not. They outdid the men in the big parade, he declares. This is his suggestion:

"Stand at attention, eyes toward the flag, with right hand over an a little above the heart; fingers extended above heart—pointing toward shoulder."

Elmer Nichols, 1607 Burdette street, happened to be on a train with General Boucher, the famous Frenchman, when he saw the story of the contest in The Bee. He asked the general what his opinion was, and the hero of the Maine suggested the French salute, as follows:

"Right forearm horizontal, hand extended and joined, little finger touching bottom of head piece, hands again forehead."

Babe is Salute.
Mrs. Louis Metcalf, 716 North Twentieth street, considers the question of what a mother would do if she had a babe in arms. The babe itself would be a tribute to Old Glory, she declares.

Mrs. D. McConnell, Pender, Neb.: "Place right hand over heart, raising bottom of head piece, hand out."

O. B. Manville, Oakdale, Neb., suggests that women assume a "radiant countenance," when the flag passes.

Mrs. Elsie J. Camm, 4131 Grant street, suggests throwing a kiss with the hand nearest the flag as it approaches.

Address your suggestions to "Contest Editor," Omaha E. Omaha, Neb., confining them to 75 words with writing on only one side of the paper.

Dr. E. C. Henry, who is responsible for the popular "Woman's Salute Contest," may have to buy war saving stamps to satisfy the winners of the event. Many of the contestants close their letters by such requests.

Remember, next Thursday is the final day for contestants to enter their suggestions, the winner of which will get $20, second $15, third $10 and fourth $5. Dr. Henry offers the first three prizes and The Bee will add a fourth prize of $5.

LAST TO START, FIRST OVER TOP IN LOAN DRIVE

Minneapolis, April 20.—The ninth federal reserve district, last of all the reserve districts in the country to start its third Liberty loan sales campaign, tonight reported to Washington that it had oversubscribed its allotment of $125,000,000—the first district in the country to "go over the top." Subscriptions reported to district headquarters tonight totalled $137,141,500.

Montana, with a quota of $9,000,000, telegraphed that it had raised $14,741,500. North Dakota has subscribed well over $10,000,000. Its quota was $6,500,000. Assigned to raise $10,000,000 more than in the last campaign, South Dakota reported that it would reach its $22,000,000 quota. Including the figures to date from Minnesota, St. Paul and Duluth, Minnesota has raised $76,400,000. Figures received from the portions of Michigan and Wisconsin which are in the ninth district brought the total to the $137,141,500 mark.

The bond purchases in farming districts and German communities were especially gratifying, according to A. R. Rogers, district chairman. The plan of allotting a certain amount of bonds for each person to purchase proved a great success, Mr. Rogers said.

O. B. Manville, Oakdale, Neb., suggests that women assume a "radi-

The Season's Only New Car

Hudson Super-Six Touring Limousine

THIS new model answers every requirement of the owner who drives and who on occasion wishes to use it as a formal limousine.

But more important than the exclusiveness of its body design is its independence from the present scarcity of expert automobile repairmen.

The best mechanics out of every important repair shop have been enlisted to look after the motors of the army. They are needed to keep the aeroplanes, motor trucks, automobiles and ambulances in running order.

Those who are left don't know so much about automobiles. Every shop is at lower efficiency. Cars which call for constant service attention simply won't be as satisfactory as they have been. There will be no one to give them the needed attention.

The car that satisfies this year must be so built that it will stand upon its own design. Its construction as turned out by its builder must be final.

It is not a time when the buyer can safely rely upon the mechanical organization of the local dealer, however efficient and willing he has been in the past.

50,000 Super-Sixes Prove Their Reliability

No one doubts the position of the Hudson Super-Six. There are 50,000 in service. For two years it has far outsold any other fine car. Motorists are familiar with the character and number of its records made in every field that calls for super-endurance. Those tests did reveal limits, though far beyond those of the average car. They enabled Hudson engineers to extend the endurance of this new series.

The report from thousands of earlier cars, as made by private owners, also helped in showing what was necessary to make the Super-Six what we believe the present series to be—the most enduring car in the world.

Here you see the Super-Six Touring Limousine in use either as a smart Sedan which the summer owner can drive, or as a limousine in which the licensed chauffeur sits at the wheel.

It has used as a limousine, a dividing glass separates the driver's compartment from the passengers.
