USED CARS

Used cars are not always abused cars. We're constantly taking in cars on new Studebaker cars. These cars are, as a rule, dependable and still have lots of service left in them. We are very careful in making trades to see to it that the used cars have not been abused and that they are in usable condition when we get them.

If you contemplate the purchase of an automobile and feel that the higher prices of the new cars are prohibitive, we suggest that you look over our stock of used cars. Our plan of selling same will make it absolutely certain that the car is going to give satisfaction.
